We Are Glad You Are Here!

In order that we may better serve you, please register with the parish by visiting www.seaslv.org or downloading the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton App. Registration forms are also available in the gathering space of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if you need to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at home or in a hospital. For assistance after hours or on Sundays, call the answering service at 702-388-9571. A priest will be notified and will contact you directly. The Sacrament is also offered communally within the Mass. Watch the bulletin for upcoming Anointing of the Sick Masses, scheduled on a quarterly basis.

Holy Communion for the Sick

If you are homebound, please call Tom & Patti Stava at 702-586-8093 and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will visit you. In case of hospitalization, inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and would like to receive Communion.

Funeral Ministry

In the event of a death of a loved one, please contact the Funeral Ministry at 702-403-8416 BEFORE making arrangements with any of the professional services. Pre-planning is also available.

Sacrament of Baptism

Baptisms for infants and children up to 7 years of age are celebrated on Sundays either during Mass or at 1:45pm. Parents and Godparents should attend the baptism class on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall classrooms. Adults are baptized at the Easter Vigil after completing the stages of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A 6 month minimum time period is needed to complete the preparation required for the Sacrament of Matrimony. For more information, contact our Wedding Coordinator, Maureen Sisto at 702-804-8321.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends and Parishioners of St. Elizabeth's,

If you are visiting our church today, it is with great pleasure that I welcome you to our parish. The parish staff at St. Elizabeth is dedicated to serving our parish community: young, old, and in-between, large families, small families, and households of one. To those Catholics who have not been to Mass in some time, I extend a very special invitation to join us every Sunday. What happens here at Mass every Sunday, gives each one of us the strength and support we need to get through our week. The love and mercy of the Lord is boundless! Come and see for yourself.

Today we celebrate the happiest and most important day of our Catholic faith—the resurrection of Jesus Christ! We have been waiting for this day for the last 40 days. Indeed, He has risen as He promised. Alleluia! It is the “Good News” that we celebrate and share: Jesus Christ is risen and He continues to be with us for all time. This is a time for joyful singing, praying, and celebrating the sacraments of new life. As we do, we pray for the coming of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. Without Pentecost, the celebration is incomplete because it wasn't until the Holy Spirit was sent to us that the “Church” (of which we are members) actually began.

I wholeheartedly congratulate our neophytes, the newest members of our Church. Last night, during the Holy Easter Vigil they were baptized, confirmed, and they received their First Holy Communion. After studying and praying for two years, they are now fully initiated members of the Church. We must continue to pray and support them in the faith and welcome them as they come to participate fully in our liturgies and activities. They are:

| ♦ Danielle Livingston |                             |

One thing we know: Jesus, who the Romans crucified and buried in a tomb is risen, and the tomb left behind is empty. That is our basic faith. It is what we believe and what we celebrate today and every Sunday. Alleluia, Jesus Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

May God bless you all, and may this Easter Season bring joy and prosperity into your lives. Christ is risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Yours in Christ,

Altar Flower Dedications

Would you like to honor a loved one, give thanks for an anniversary or accomplishment, or commemorate a loved one's birthday or death by sponsoring flowers on the altar? Your name and the names of your loved ones will be printed in the Sunday bulletin. The cost of the altar flowers is $250. Please visit the parish office to secure your preferred date.

Easter Sunday

Fact of Faith

What is Easter?

The Easter Vigil is the “Mother of All Vigils.” Easter Sunday, then, is the greatest of all Sundays, and Easter Time is the most important of all liturgical times.

Easter is the celebration of the Lord’s Resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father and sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. There are 50 days of Easter from the first Sunday of Easter to Pentecost. It is characterized, above all, by the joy of glorified life and the victory over death, expressed most fully in the great resounding cry of the Christian, Alleluia! All faith flows from faith in the Resurrection: “If Christ has not been raised, then empty [too] is our preaching; empty, too, is your faith” (1 Cor 15:14).

“What you sow is not brought to life unless it dies. And what you sow is not the body that is to be but a bare kernel of wheat, perhaps, or of some other kind; . . . So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown corruptible; it is raised incorruptible. It is sown dishonorable; it is raised glorious. It is sown weak; it is raised powerful. It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual one. So, too, it is written, ‘The first man, Adam, became a living being,’ the last Adam a life-giving spirit. But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven. As was the earthly one, so also are the earthly, and as is the heavenly one, so also are the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one” (1 Cor 15:36-37, 42-49).

The Octave of Easter comprises the eight days, which stretch from the first Sunday of Easter to the Second Sunday of Easter. It is a way of prolonging the joy of the initial day. In a sense, every day of the Octave is like a little Sunday.

The word “Easter” comes from Old English, meaning simply the “east.” The sun that rises in the east, bringing light, warmth, and hope, is a symbol for the Christian of the rising Christ, who is the true Light of the world. The Paschal Candle is a central symbol of this divine light, which is Christ. It is kept near the ambo throughout Easter Time and is lit for all liturgical celebrations.

Jesus Lives

“Jesus lives. This is the simple message of Easter. And because Jesus lives—so does hope, so does love, and so do we... This Easter morning let us acknowledge the gift of life Christ has given us. Let us look into the empty tomb and proclaim with joy, proclaim with all our hearts and with our lives—that Jesus lives! May God bless you. Happy Easter!”

—Cardinal Daniel N. DiNardo, USCCB President

Happy Easter!

Happy Easter! Or as most other languages prefer: Blessed Pasch—Passover! Pasqua, Pascua, Páscoa, Pâques! Israel's Passover through the Red Sea to the Promised Land! Jesus' Passover through the Cross to resurrection! Our catechumens' Passover last night, and ours once upon a time, through Baptism's waters to our family's Eucharist! Welcome, everybody! As someone once said of the Catholic Church, "Here comes everybody!" So, we make our own Saint John Chrysostom's Easter welcome from fourteen hundred years ago: "Let everyone enjoy this radiant feast! You who fasted from Lent's beginning, and you who didn't fast at all, rejoice! The table's richly set! Come, take from it, everybody, no worries, no embarrassment! All of you, taste the banquet of faith! Enjoy the feast of forgiveness! Let no one grieve for having sinned again and again: pardon has risen from the tomb!" Happy Easter! Blessed Pasch! Welcome, everybody!

Celebrating Mercy During Easter

By Mary McClusky

Easter is a time of great joy, hope, and celebration, so why does the Church emphasize our sinfulness and great need for mercy on the Second Sunday of Easter, "Divine Mercy Sunday" (April 28, 2019). The Gospel reading on that day and Jesus' words to St. Faustina Kowalska make it clear that the connection is quite fitting and always appropriate: Jesus suffered and died for our sins so that we might receive His mercy and the joy of eternal life.

The destruction of life through abortion, assisted suicide, and euthanasia are among the gravest of sins. Yet, Jesus says that even those who have committed great sins can not only be forgiven but have priority. St. Faustina, a Polish nun canonized by St. John Paul II in 2000, recorded the words of Jesus in her journal: "Let the greatest sinners place their trust in my mercy. They have the right before others to trust in the abyss of My mercy... I cannot punish even the greatest sinner if he makes an appeal to my compassion, but on the contrary, I justify him in my unfathomable and inscrutable mercy" (Diary of St. Faustina, Divine Mercy in My Soul, 1146).

As related in John's Gospel (Jn 20:19-31) proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter, the resurrected Jesus appeared to the disciples. They had been gripped by fear but rejoiced when they saw him and received the Holy Spirit, peace, and the power to forgive sins. God invites us, like the disciples, to be moved from fear into great joy. Despite our great sinfulness, we can receive forgiveness, grace, and healing in the sacrament of reconciliation and be inspired to show mercy to others.

Pope Francis reflected on the challenge of finding joy despite the experience of sin in his description of the women who entered Jesus' tomb that Easter morning. They came face to face with Christ's death and of their own existence as sinners in need of God's forgiveness. At the same time, they encountered His love, which is greater than the greatest of sins. The power of the Resurrection gives us the courage to face our sins, confess our mistakes, and then humbly receive God's forgiveness and accept the joy that comes with new life in Christ.

In our celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday next week, throughout the Easter season, and beyond, may each of us be inspired to repent of our sins, receive forgiveness through the sacrament of reconciliation, and be empowered by Christ to be merciful towards others. Let us pray fervently that many will seek and receive God's infinite gift of Divine Mercy.

Divine Mercy Devotion

Join us at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 28 to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet in the Mater Dei Chapel. Bring your Divine Mercy icons to be blessed. The message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, a Polish nun, who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread. The message of mercy is that God loves us—all of us—no matter how great our sins. He wants us to recognize that his mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon him with trust, receive his mercy, and let it flow through us to others.

Stewardship

Returning Your Rice Bowls

Thank you for participating in the CRS Rice Bowl

Program for Lent. To return your Rice Bowl donations, please count up the money in your Rice Bowl, write a check for that amount to "SEAS" with "Rice Bowl" written in the memo line, and return the donation in the collection basket or to the Kairos Gift Shop. Thank you!

A Stewardship Moment

Easter Sunday

In today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter boldly offers his testimony to the risen Christ. He shared with the crowds what he himself witnessed: Jesus' friendship, healing and forgiveness. Peter proclaims a resurrected life that brings hope. The Christian life is, indeed, a resurrected life. It is new life, one of truth, inner joy and genuine fulfillment. God has transformed our lives for all eternity, and that transformation is what it means to be a Christian. Do you know the resurrected life? Have you experienced it? Good stewards have, and in their joy, they are committed, like Peter, to offering their own witness.

Mother's Day Novena May 12-20

Our parish tradition is to pray for our mothers, both living and deceased for nine Masses beginning on Mother's Day. Novena cards are available in the gathering space of the church. The beautiful card is yours to keep. If you would like to include your mother, grandmother, or anyone who has fulfilled the role of mother in your life in this novena, please return the offering envelope in the collection basket or to the Kairos Gift Shop with the names of those you would like included. The Novena begins on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 12.

Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA)

Please join us as a local church in realizing, "In Your light we see light," by helping to fund these ways in which the light of Christ is shared. Pledge cards are in the gathering space.

- Vocations and Education and Care of Priests (51% of the total CSA budget)
- Faith Formation (18% of the total CSA budget)
- Pastoral Outreach (15% of the CSA Budget)
- Campus Ministry at UNLV (10% of total CSA Budget)

SEAS Outreach Food Pantry Update

- ♦ Donated Food from Parishioners...Food from the Case Lot Sale at Smith's and Costco (pictured above) is a huge help for our pantry.
- ♦ Donated Freezer from Parishioners...Two gracious parishioners donated a brand new freezer (pictured below) to the Outreach Food Pantry, then, they stocked it with meat and frozen meals! They humbly wish to remain anonymous. Thank you!!!

- ♦ March Farmers' Market...349 people attended the Farmers' Market on March 30. This is a community building event as we share food donated by Three Square. Some people attending were in need of food, others were taking food to neighbors/family to share, and others just like to get free food. All are welcome! Next Farmers' Market is Saturday, May 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. in the parking lot.

- ♦ March Food Pantry Statistics...540 people signed in to receive food from the Outreach Food Pantry, averaging 135 people a week! The food is taken home and feeds their families:

1128 Adults
751 Children
710 Seniors
2589 Total

Thank you!!

Easter Basket Drive

Thank you to everyone who donated to our annual Easter Basket Drive, and to the volunteers (some of them pictured below) who helped fill and distribute the baskets (pictured on page 12). Some baskets went to Catholic Charities, some went to our SEAS community, and some to our food pantry clients. Your generosity put smiles on many faces!

A Campaign for Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

God of the past, present, and future,

We come before you ever mindful of the many ways you have blessed our parish community in the past, the many ways you continue to sustain and guide us in the present, and the many ways you call us to build up and serve your people in the future.

Through your grace and the goodness of so many generous and dedicated parishioners, we have become a vibrant community of faith. We celebrate the strong foundation of faith that has taken root in our parish, and through our capital campaign embrace the joys and challenges of growing into the future—a future filled with endless possibility. Gift us with the spirit of your peace, wisdom, and courage in all that we do, and in all that we will do. We accept our call to be builders of your kingdom and place our trust in your guiding hand as we pray, “Lord, give success to the work of our hands!” (Psalm 90:17)

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Registration Information

Why Register in the Parish?

If you would like to register with the parish, we encourage you to do so at www.seaslv.org or by completing the registration form found in the lobby. Registered parishioners of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church rightfully look to their parish for any number of services. Among these services are:

- Parishioner tuition rates in our Catholic Schools
- Certification as sponsors at Sacramental Celebrations
- Annual Contribution statements

If you are unable to participate actively or unable to contribute to the support of the parish because of your age, illness, or economic situation, please notify the parish office. Ministry to the homebound is available. Thank you.

SEAS Giving

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish is happy to offer these electronic giving options:

Online Giving is easy to set up and allows you to schedule recurring contributions and view your complete online giving history from anywhere you have internet access. Simply follow these easy steps:

- 1) Visit the church website at www.seaslv.org
- 2) Click on the Give Now button
- 3) Click on the Create Profile button, then
- 4) Follow the onscreen instructions to create an online profile and to schedule your recurring contributions. If you give by credit card and have recently received a new credit card, please be sure to update your account information. Thank you!

Scan our QR
(Quick Response) Code or visit
<https://is.gd/seaslv> to give now.

Giving by iPad Square is a convenient way to make a contribution with a swipe of a credit or debit card while at the church. Receipts can be sent to your email address. The Square is located in our Kairos Gift Shop.

Give by Text is a quick way to make a donation by using your smart phone to send a text message to 702-978-7462 with the amount you would like to give. Example: $25. Make sure to include the dollar sign before the amount and within seconds you'll receive a text with a link to register.

A Prayer for Healing Victims of Abuse

God of endless love,
ever caring, ever strong,
always present, always just:
You gave your only Son to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
join to your own suffering
the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit
by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters who have been gravely harmed,
and the cries of those who love them.
Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
steady their shaken spirits with faith.
Grant them justice for their cause,
enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts,
heal your people's wounds
and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Grant us the courage and wisdom, humility and grace,
to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse
may find peace in justice.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

SEAS 3rd Annual Women's Retreat

SEAS Pastoral Associate Marcie Wilske, M.A., M.S. will present, "The Parables of Jesus and Disney" on Saturday, June 15 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Cost is $25.00 which includes morning hospitality, lunch, and retreat materials. Walt Disney ... Jesus Christ ... you may wonder how they can be put in the same boat or even in the same sentence. Yet, they are both master story tellers who have timeless words of wisdom to share with us. Their wisdom lies, not necessarily in the words themselves, but in their ability to make us think...to change our perspective, our hearts, and our behavior. Join with other women of faith as we explore the timeless message and morals found in the stories (parables) of Jesus and Disney. Please register in the Kairos Gift Shop or in the parish office or contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370).

Caring for the Stranger: LMU Inter-faith Forum

As one of the oldest, Catholic institutions of higher learning in Los Angeles, Loyola Marymount University maintains an institutional commitment to interfaith dialogue, especially between Christians, Jews, and Muslims. With support from the Martin Gang Institute for Intergroup Relations, the Center for Religion and Spirituality invites you to this interfaith dialogue public forum. A panel of representatives of the Catholic, Jewish, and Muslim communities will talk about their own tradition's relationship to God, as well as the challenges and opportunities interfaith encounters present those working in pastoral ministry. These presentations will be followed by a public Q&A and discussion. Join us

Wednesday, May 1 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at Temple Beth Shalom, 10700 Havenwood Lane, Las Vegas. This event is free and open to the public. Register at <https://cal.lmu.edu/event/interfaithLV>.

For more information, visit extension.lmu.edu/crs or contact The Center for Religion & Spirituality at (310)-338-2799. This forum is free and open to the public, RSVP is requested online. Ministry Studies certificate program students are required to attend (no rsvp necessary). For additional information, please contact the center at 310-338-2799 or email crs@lmu.edu.
