Mercy flows... Love redeems

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

IT IS IN GIVING THAT WE RECEIVE

That's the title of our new program here at SEAS to assist our struggling parishes in the valley. This December we, as a parish, begin to model what it means to be good stewards of the gifts given to us by helping those in need. Households who would embrace the Concept of Christian Stewardship, would set aside 4% of their income to support charities close to their heart. Because of our own parish financial limitations due to the effects of the coronavirus, we have decided to begin by setting aside 2% of our weekly offertory collection to help some struggling parishes, for It is in Giving that we Receive!

Recently someone remarked to me what a beautiful idea this is as we support other parishes having a difficult time. They also said they were going to put a little more in the collection to help. That, my sisters and brothers, is the Holy Spirit in action!

Each month we will keep you informed as to which parish will be the recipient of our parish stewardship. It is our hope that some of our own parishioners may want to send an individual donation to the same parish as part of their own stewardship supporting charities close to their hearts. After all, It is in Giving that we Receive!

For the month of December, 2% of our weekly offertory collection will help

HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Thank you for your continued financial commitments which keep our parish going!

THE IMPORTANCE OF MAKING AND KEEPING YOUR MASS RESERVATIONS

It happens at just about every Mass. Someone has made a reservation, and then they don't show up! Now that we're at a smaller number of 50 allowed at Mass, when someone doesn't show up it really makes a difference. This past weekend we had one Mass where 13 people didn't show up after they had made reservations. That meant that 13 other people who sincerely wanted to come were not able.

PLEASE, PLEASE ONLY MAKE A RESERVATION IF YOU SINCERELY INTEND TO ATTEND! With over 5,000 households who are registered here at SEAS, you can see how frustrating it is for other parishioners who sincerely want to attend Mass only to find that the reservations are already full. At 50 people allowed for each of the 7 week-end Masses, that's only 350 individuals out of 5,000 households who can attend Mass.

And so I ask you: PLEASE DO NOT MAKE RESERVATIONS IF YOU ARE NOT GOING TO SHOW UP! It's just not fair to those who really want to come. Of course, if you're sick or simply not feeling well, you really need to stay at home. But, please, PLEASE don't be like those people who sign up and then don't show up for no reason.

PUT ON THOSE KIND CHRISTMAS HATS OF CHARITY AND PATIENCE THIS YEAR!

As you know, this whole coronavirus pandemic is beyond our control. The necessary protocols are there to protect us, not restrict us! Regardless of what you think about this whole situation, it ain't going to change anything. Therefore:

During this COVID Christmas,
please let the peace of the Christ-child lead you to be the most kind, charitable and patient reflection of God's love
when you come to Mass.

Together let's approach
these Holy Days with joy,
leaving all negativity
far from the house of the Lord!
That will be the best for ALL of us!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Feast of Faith

The Shape of the Mass

In the renewal of the liturgy that followed the Second Vatican Council, the full, conscious, and active participation of the assembly was the primary consideration. By participation, the Council Fathers did not mean just joining in the singing and the spoken responses, but active engagement and prayerful understanding of the rites. They envisioned a transparent liturgy, a worship that spoke so directly to the hearts and minds of the faithful that it would require no explanation at all.

The liturgy itself is the best possible catechesis on the liturgy. What does the liturgy teach us? It shows us the ministry of Jesus continuing in the present. He gathers a community. He calls us to prayer and repentance and praise. He teaches us with the very word of God. He does not send us away empty, but sets before us a marvelous banquet, feeding us with his very body and blood. Then he sends us forth to do what he has done — to give ourselves for others, not just in words, but in deeds. The Mass is the pattern of our Christian lives.

Third Sunday of Advent

Gaudete Sunday

What is special about the Third Sunday of Advent? For much of the Church's history, this Sunday had a special name: "Gaudete" Sunday. The traditions surrounding this Sunday go back as far as the fourth or fifth century, as does the season of Advent itself. Advent, our preparation for Christmas, was originally a forty-day penitential season like Lent. In fact, since it used to begin on November 12 (just after the Memorial of St. Martin of Tours), it was called "St. Martin's Lent." "Gaudete Sunday" was the Advent counterpart to "Laetare Sunday," which marks the mid-point in Lent.

On Gaudete Sunday, the season of Advent shifts its focus. For the first two weeks of Advent, the focus can be summed up in the phrase, "The Lord is coming." But beginning with Gaudete Sunday, the summary might be, "The Lord is near." This shift is marked by a lighter mood and a heightened sense of joyous anticipation.

Liturgically, the colors lighten as well. The priest usually wears rose-colored vestments, a hue seen only on Gaudete Sunday and Laetare Sunday. On this day, we light the third candle of the Advent wreath, which is also rose-colored, or if you prefer, pink.

The word "Gaudete" is Latin for "Rejoice." In times when the focus of our anticipation is often on the negative and fearful, this celebration is a reminder that God who loves us is still in charge and that we await his coming not with fear, but with tremendous joy. Today's Second Reading, from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians, reflects this joy:

"Brothers and sisters: Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus."

Saint of the Week

Saint Virginia Centurione Bracelli

Dates: 1587 - 1651

Feast Day: December 15

Unable to persuade her parents that she had a religious vocation, Virginia was married at age 15 to the son of another notable Italian family. But he gambled, lived dissolutely and died after only five years. Virginia, despite her unhappiness in the marriage, nursed him at the end. She vowed to live celibately thereafter, bringing up her two daughters and caring for abandoned children, especially girls. She founded several schools and the Sisters of Our Lady of the Refuge on Mount Calvary. She was canonized in her hometown, Genoa, in 2003.

Third Sunday of Advent

Living the Faith

When Your Family's Advent Falls Apart (Blog Post)

Advent — real Advent — is full of silent prayer and dog-eared devotional books and thoughtfully-sourced gift buying and wrapping. It's less TV and more cribbage. It's candlelight in the long nights. It's post-card perfect photos on Christmas cards with individualized greetings to connect with friends and family.

"Advent," on the other hand, is what most of us experience in family life, and it's a far cry from the above. Maybe one day, when the kids are grown and out of the house, Stacey and I will sit and play cribbage by candlelight after spending an evening writing Christmas cards. It ain't this day, though, lemme tell ya.

Just last night, for example, a staff Christmas party, Oscar's senior band concert and Simon's basketball game all began within half an hour of one another. Or how about leaving for work when it's dark and getting home when it's dark in time to scarf down dinner before two cars depart to the four winds for dance lessons and parish meetings? Sound familiar?

It would be a challenge to implement Advent in normal circumstances but throw in everything else going on in the weeks between Thanksgiving and Christmas — parties, errands to buy gifts, school programs — and fahgedaboutit. We began with grand intentions — silent prayer every night — but those efforts barely lasted into the second candle. We made it to the parish reconciliation service and have been trying to just keep our heads above water since then.

So, our "Advent" this year has been more Survivor than Charlie Brown's Christmas Special. One remnant from Advent has remained, though, and I've found myself clinging to it like a life-preserver: the Advent wreath.

We have an Advent wreath in the middle of our dining table, nestled in greenery, and both Stacey and I have been committed to gathering around it. If we can't have everyone because someone's at practice or working late or at an evening meeting, so be it, but every night some of us eat food together and when we do, we light the candles and sing "O Come, O Come Emmanuel."

That 20 seconds of stillness and song is an anchor. We all gaze at the light and raise our voices and tune our lives to a different longing than the concerns that rush through our days. It's nothing grand — it's just a moment, after all — but it keeps me rooted and it reminds me that we're on a journey, we're walking together.

So, I think that's a piece of advice I'd like to remember for next year: It will all fall apart — just know that going in. Nice to begin with good intentions, but have a fallback position when the front lines get overrun. Cling to just one thing — that's enough. It doesn't have to be perfect. You don't have to achieve holiness or enlightenment or perfection in four weeks. You just have to walk together. God will meet you on the road.

Third Sunday of Advent

John the Baptist

At a school open house a woman could be overheard introducing her husband to some of the other parents. "Oh, Bill, I'd like you to meet Johnny's father. And over here, this is Marie's mom; you know, the little girl from our Ellen's soccer team."

With satisfied resignation Bill introduced himself not by name: "I'm Ellen's Dad."

It's good to know who you are. Be it someone's father or mother, son or daughter, husband or wife, it's important to embrace the full meaning of our various roles.

John the Baptist knows who he is. And who he is not. He is not the Christ. Nor Elijah. Nor like any other prophet God's people had ever seen. John the Baptist knows his mission is divine. He's more than satisfied to be the one to announce the coming of God's reign. The Christ is near. Make straight your paths.

Confession Times Added

As a consequence of the coronavirus, we are not able to accommodate a special Day of Confessions this Advent, similar to what we were unable to do during last Lent.

However; we have added 2 Saturdays this month to our regular confession schedule, especially for those who have difficulty in coming to confession on Monday mornings.

- Saturday, December 12
8:45 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
- Saturday, December 19
8:45 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
- Mondays (regular confession schedule)
8:45 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

All should remember, nonetheless, that if one cannot make it to confession, even if mortal sin is present, they still can approach to receive the Eucharist if they make an act of perfect contrition with the intention to go to Confession the next time that it is possible. Canon 916 states: "A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to celebrate Mass or receive the body of the Lord without previous sacramental confession unless there is a grave reason and there is no opportunity to confess; in this case the person is to remember the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition which includes the resolution of confessing as soon as possible."

Stewardship

Stewardship and Turning the World Upside Down

For women in the ancient world, motherhood was prized and desired above almost all else. Sacred scripture tells of many women who pleaded with God to let them conceive. From Sarah, the mother of Isaac, to Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, the Bible is replete with women who finally, in their old age, were granted the gift of motherhood for which they had begged God. How marvelously significant it is, then, that in the town of Nazareth those many years ago, a young girl named Mary, unmarried and probably feeling altogether unready for motherhood, was visited by an angel who delivered God's plea: would she give God a child? Mary's response is a model par excellence for all those who aspire to be good stewards: "Behold, I am the Lord's servant. Let it be done to me according to your word" (Lk. 1:38).

And so the real mystery and beauty of Christmas is delivered: God turns the world upside down. In the words of the Magnificat, Mary proclaims the hope of every good steward: "My soul magnifies the Lord" (Lk. 1:46). He has dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart, lifted up the lowly, filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. Here is a new understanding of the God who desires not our begging and our pleas, but our 'yes' to God's invitation to be active stewards in his plan of salvation. For the Christian steward, the consumerism, the gaudiness, the excesses of our cultural Christmas can be overcome by answering the call to live simpler lives, to use less, to feed the poor, to quiet ourselves in stillness rather than grow louder in frenzied activity.

In her book The Vigil: Keeping Watch in the Season of Christ's Coming, Professor Wendy Wright from Creighton University writes: "The ancient desert dwellers of our early Christian communities tell us that the surest way into the heart of God is to be still. In being still we learn to be attentive to the vast and hidden stillness that permeates all things."

In a world which prizes and desires wealth above so many things, the Christian steward finds in the stillness the true hope which lies at the heart of Christmas. Christ has come, and he comes again and again, and finally in the end, Christ comes. Once again, God implores us to receive this child in the stillness of our hearts, and respond to his call to transform the world's values – to turn the world upside down.

A Stewardship Moment

Third Sunday of Advent

In today's second reading Paul concludes his letter to the Christian community at Thessalonica by providing it with actions to take as they wait for the return of the Lord. The first action is to rejoice always and give thanks in all circumstances. This does not sound easy in a time of pandemic. The two words that make this task difficult are "always" and "all." This means giving thanks and rejoicing even when our circumstances are not always moments of joy and thanksgiving, or when we are confronted with a broken world. Prayerful stewards rejoice and give thanks in all circumstances, even during these uncertain and stressful times, because they are people of hope. A good reflection this week would be how the season of Advent can give you reason to hope.

Rite of Acceptance and Welcome

On Tuesday, December 15 at 6:00 p.m., we will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance of Catechumens and the Rite of Welcome of Candidates. In these ancient rituals, we accept the desire of unbaptized adults to become baptized members of the Catholic Church. With our support, these inquirers now enter the "Order of Catechumens" - those seeking instruction as they continue on their journey to the Easter sacraments. At the same time, we welcome those who have been baptized in another Christian faith or baptized Catholic as a child, but never catechized in the Catholic faith. During this ceremony, we affirm their desire to continue on the path to full reception in the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. Please keep all of our RCIA catechumens and candidates in your prayers as they continue on their journey of faith:

Angel Tree Donations Due

Sunday, December 13, is the final day to make a donation to our annual Angel Tree Drive.

This year, due to COVID, we are requesting financial donations only. Please do not purchase any gift cards. With the money we receive, we will purchase gift cards in bulk and give these cards out as the Angel Tree gifts. That means no gift cards from you and no toys, clothes or socks for the homeless. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

At all Masses, we will have "Angel Tree 2020" envelopes available to take home and return with a check or cash contribution. On the envelope you may choose how you want your contribution distributed:

- A child in need
- A senior citizen in need
- Catholic Charities
- Seminarians
- Where this contribution is needed most

You will also have the ability to make a contribution on the church website, www.seaslv.org, with your credit/debit card or bank account. You will have the same 5 distribution options as above. You can also mail a check to the church. Make sure to put "Angel Tree" on the memo line of your check and, please, do not send cash in the mail.

Please return your financial donations by Sunday, December 13. Thank you for your generosity and continued support!

2020 Catholic Stewardship Appeal Update

The Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA) for the Diocese of Las Vegas is still underway. Our parish has come a long way toward reaching our parish assessment over these past few difficult months, but we still have a ways to go.

Diocesan Assessment for SEAS	$311,758.00
Amount pledged as of Dec. 6	$293,766.50
Number of pledges so far	559
Amount needed to reach assessment	$ 17,991.50

Thank you to all who have contributed so far!

Your support will help our diocese continue programs that are very much in need now more than ever, and contributions received above and beyond our parish assessment will be refunded back to SEAS. If you have not made a pledge to this year's CSA, please prayerfully consider a contribution. Pledge cards were mailed to all registered parishioners in February.

To learn more about the programs supported through CSA and to contribute online, follow these simple steps:

1. Go to www.dioceseoflasvegas.org
2. Under the Stewardship & Development drop down menu tab, click on Catholic Stewardship Appeal
3. Click on Donate Now
4. In the "Parish" field, make sure to put in St. Elizabeth Ann Seton to ensure your contribution is credited to our parish and is applied to our assessment. Once our parish assessment is reached, all additional contributions come back to our parish.

For additional assistance, contact SEAS Pastoral Associate for Stewardship & Communications Patty Janura at PattyJanura@seaslv.org (702-804-8326).

Start Date Changed to Week of January 11

The shortest of the four gospels, Mark is the earliest account of Jesus' life and the primary source for the other synoptic Gospels: Matthew and Luke. Mark asks everyone to answer Jesus' question, 'Who do you say that I am?' and challenges believers in every generation to accept the harsh reality of the cross. Beginning in December, 2020, most of the readings we will hear at Mass during the coming year come from the Gospel of Mark ... so what a perfect time to join this 10-session study as we explore Mark's theological portrait of the person and mission of Jesus Christ.

Beginning on Monday, January 11, 2021, in-person classes will be offered in the church on Monday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and repeated on Wednesdays (beginning January 13) from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. The Wednesday morning session will also be live-streamed for those who prefer to participate from the comfort of their homes. Safety protocols will be in place each session: masks, hand-sanitizing and social distancing. Each participant will receive a commentary and study guide. Cost: $25. All are welcome — newcomers and experienced Bible students alike!

Register on the church website, www.seaslv.org, or in the Kairos Gift Shop. For more information, contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org or 702-804-8370.
