A Letter from Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

HAPPY ADVENT! HAPPY MISSION!

It's here! These four weeks of Advent help us to prepare our hearts for the celebration of Christmas as we also stay awake and prepare to meet Christ either at the end of our lives or the end of time.

Our Parish Mission with Fr. Richard Fragomeni will give us a unique opportunity to come together as a parish family and grow in our faith together. I hope you all will take the time to set aside these next three days for this purpose. See the schedule on page 8 in this bulletin. Hope to see you there!

ANNUAL PARISH FINANCIAL REPORT

Please accept my sincere apologies for publishing our Annual Parish Financial Report with such delay. Excuses for the delay can be blamed on me being new here, dealing with a capital campaign from my first moments in the door, trying to understand the fiduciary responsibilities of such a huge parish and school campus and getting to know all that makes this parish and school community "tick." Basically, it's been a huge learning curve for me.

Since I don't have a financial bone in my body, I rely upon those who have the expertise to help me understand all that is involved to be a good steward of the contributions you entrust to my care. I'm blessed to have Kristina Wood and Krystalyn Pagan in our parish finance office to be so meticulously organized and fiscally responsible in all our financial areas. Sandra Stahl of Swan & Gardiner, LLC, is our outside financial counsel to prepare our financial reports and help oversee our financial operations from an objective, external view. Margo Lamuraglia, chair of our parish Finance Council, and the other members of our Finance Council provide such great advice to me from the vast experience of their professional backgrounds. Margo has volunteered many hours to help me understand, as much as possible, the complexities of our financial operations and accountability. All of the above have been so very patient with me as, together, we now present our Annual Parish Financial Report.

If there are any questions about this report, please direct them to my assistant, Rosie Arellano and she will direct your questions appropriately. She can be reached at rarellano@seaslv.org or 702-804-8312.

TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATOR

As of November 20th, I have been appointed the temporary administrator of St. James the Apostle Roman Catholic Church near Lake Mead and Martin Luther King Blvd. The leadership of the Trinitarians in India have informed our Diocese that Fr. Lijo Abraham, O.S.S.T, former administrator, is in India and will not be returning to the United States. In his place, another member of the Trinitarians will be assigned as the new administrator of St. James the Apostle beginning in January, 2020. In the time being, and given my previous experience as the pastor of St. James the Apostle, I will assist the parish during this interim vacancy.

While this appointment is very temporary, I am happy to accompany them during this short time. This situation is a reminder to all of us of the continued need to pray for vocations to the ministerial priesthood. There's not many of us to go around, so we do what we can to help each other out. Thanks for your understanding as we all move forward to further the good work for the sake of the Kingdom of God!

Peace Always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski

The First Sunday of Advent

Fact of Faith

Happy New Year

The First Sunday in Advent marks the beginning of the Liturgical Year. It's a time of great anticipation as we await the arrival of Christ on Christmas morning. In fact, the word Advent comes from the Latin word ad-venire that means coming or arriving.

Just as in Lent, the liturgical color of Advent is purple. Both of the seasons prepare for great feast days in the Church year. The purple color also connotes the penitential dimension of the season as Advent is a time of preparing, quieting and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas. The altar is also meant to be decorated in a more restrained manner during this season.

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. Right in the middle of Advent, several Marian feasts are also celebrated. They are the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of Mary and the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas).

"At Christmas, we on earth receive Jesus, the bread from heaven. It is a bread that never grows stale, but enables us even now to have a foretaste of eternal life. . . I want to come to Bethlehem, Lord, because there you await me. I want to realize that you, lying in a manger, are the bread of my life. I need the tender fragrance of your love so that I, in turn, can be bread broken for the world." (Pope Francis, Homily, Dec. 24, 2019)

Saint of the Week

Francis Xavier

1506 - 1552

Feast Day - December 3

Known as the Apostle to the Indies and to Japan, Francis was born in Spanish Navarre, the youngest in a large family. He studied at the University of Paris, where he met St. Ignatius of Loyola, and was among the first seven Jesuits who vowed to be spiritual soldiers for Christ. They were ordained as a group in 1537. For 11 years, from 1541 until his untimely death after only two weeks on the Chinese coast, Francis evangelized in the East Indies, Mozambique, India, Malaysia, Sri Lanka, Indonesia and Japan. A missionary prone to seasickness who had trouble learning foreign languages, Francis is the patron saint of missionaries, Borneo, the East Indies, India, Pakistan, Japan and Outer Mongolia.

The First Sunday of Advent

Hopeful Expectation

Our liturgical year begins with the season of Advent—a time of hopeful expectation of the coming of the Lord. On the First Sunday of Advent we look forward to the end of time when we will awaken to the dawn of Christ's new day.

ward to the end of time when we will awaken to the dawn of Christ's new day.

Today we hear Isaiah speak of a day when God's power will have brought universal peace and God's Word will have instructed all people, radiating God's "light" (teachings) into all of human society. Only when humanity walks "in the light of the LORD" (Isaiah 2:5), when all people desire to be instructed "in [God's] ways" (Isaiah 2:3), will the world be set aright and our deepest longings fulfilled. The reading from Romans calls us to "awake from sleep" for this final "day is at hand" (Romans 13:11, 12). Together this Sunday's scriptures proclaim our Christian faith that Jesus is the One who will finally come to fulfill God's plan of salvation.

Bible Study on the Gospel of Matthew

2020 begins Year "A" in the Catholic Church's liturgical year. Most of the readings we will hear at Mass during this year come from the Gospel of Matthew. The word "gospel" means "good news" and refers to the entire message and ministry of Jesus ... his life, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. In his gospel, Matthew presents Jesus of Nazareth as the great teacher and fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies through whom the kingdom of God is breaking into the world. Join us for this 10 week study as we explore the unique and eternal message of the evangelist Matthew. Your Sunday experience of "hearing" the Gospel of Matthew will be enriched by this study of the "word" of Matthew. Classes begin the week of January 6, 2019, and will be offered on Monday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and repeated on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Each participant will receive a commentary and study guide. Cost: $25. All are welcome—newcomers and experienced Bible students alike! Please register in the Kairos Gift Shop. For more information, contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org or 702-804-8370. All sessions are held in the St. John XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall unless otherwise indicated in the parish bulletin.

The First Sunday of Advent

The Father Knows Best! Advent Mission

Join us for our 3-day Advent Mission, "The Father Knows Best!" on December 2, 3 and 4. Our guest presenter, Rev. Richard Fragomeni, will help us examine Gaudete et Exsultate, Pope Francis' Apostolic Exhortation on the Call to Holiness in Today's World. Pope Francis reminds us that, "We are all called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves"(14). But how can we be the models of holiness God wants us to be? Fr. Fragomeni will offer reflections and meditations that will help us and enhance our Advent journey. Each day will begin with morning Mass, followed by both a morning and an evening mission session. Each of the 6 sessions will be different in content:

- 8:00 a.m. Mass
- 8:45 a.m. Refreshments
- 9:00 a.m. Morning Meditations on Gaudete Et Exsultate (taken from chapters 1, 2 and 5). You can preview the entire document at www.seaslv.org.
- 6:00 p.m. Refreshments
- 7:00 p.m. Advent Reflections on God in our Midst. Each night will be different as we remember God's goodness in the past, discern God's goodness in the present, and wait in joyful hope for the fullness of God's goodness in the future.

For more information, contact Patty Janura at PattyJanura@seaslv.org (702-804-8326).
