Choice

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

that through Kujenga she traveled to Rome. She met Sr. Thea Bowman FSPA, Most Reverend Emerson Moore, who confirmed her, and twin priests Charles and Chester Smith as seminarians.

Begun in Chicago in the 1970s as the vision of Fr. Martin Carter SA (Franciscan Friar of the Atonement), today many desire to update and bring the Kujenga experience to a national platform. James Watts, Director of Black Catholic Ministry in Birmingham is proud of alums who became leaders in the movement and continue serving the diocese well. He beams as they pass the torch to the next generation.

Stepping outside comfort zones to spend days in a rustic environment, youth from different geographic areas meet at the intersection of Catholic Faith and African American culture. Here they enjoy enriching activities, impressive talks and bonding with other youth. The testimony of Kujenga is that emerging leaders gain confidence to accept new roles as servant leaders wherever they land. Think of Kujenga as Christ Kwanzaa year-round.

206. Ministry has to be synodal; it should involve a "journeying together" that values "the charisms that the Spirit bestows in accordance with the vocation and role of each of the Church's members, through a process of co-responsibility ... Motivated by this spirit, we can move towards a participatory and co-responsible Church, one capable of appreciating its own rich variety, gratefully accepting the contributions of the lay faithful, including young people and women, consecrated persons, as well as groups, associations and movements. No one should be excluded or exclude themselves." -Pope Francis, Christus Vivit

Kujenga Means to Build (Swahili)

By Donna Toliver-Grimes

Kujenga leadership retreats develop strong African American Catholic youth leaders in dioceses around the country. In the Diocese of Birmingham, Kujenga is incorporated into Confirmation formation during Lent. It has been instrumental for healing the young church in New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina. While some dioceses maintained a continuous program, others rebooted Kujenga after a hiatus through the commitment of Kujengans (alums) who went to college, established careers and families, but never forgot the transformative encounter they had as teenagers.

Several alums like Thomessia Moore-Lawson became seasoned youth ministers and leaders in their parishes and communities. As she recalled, "Kujenga was a magical once-in-a-lifetime experience. We participated in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Mass (with drums); wore African headdress, had African poetry and healthy conversation about the Church's positions on race relations. We also learned about influential African American Catholics. We were an elite group of proud Catholic African Americans who discussed how to defend our faith — armed with knowledge of who we were, where we came from and to whom we belonged."

Fact of Faith

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

By Fr. Larry Rice

In many Catholic parishes at this time of year, groups of people are gathering to begin the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). This is the formal process through which adults become members of the Catholic Church.

In most places, the majority of new Catholics are children born and raised in the faith. They learn about Catholic Christianity from their parents. But for someone interested in Catholicism later in life, the Church has a lengthy process of initiation that uses the initials RCIA, Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The RCIA process is much more than just a series of classes in Catholic belief and doctrine. It's more a journey of faith which asks its participants to pray, reflect and grow into a relationship with Christ and his Church.

After a period of inquiry, which may include formal classroom instruction, inquirers are formally recognized as people on the way to initiation and are accepted as catechumens. This process and terminology mirrors the initiation process used by the Church in its first few centuries.

The catechumens continue their study and reflection and are often "dismissed" from Sunday worship so that they can pray and reflect on the scriptures together. In the Spring, the season of Lent becomes a time of particularly intense formation for the catechumens, who are now called the "Elect." Their journey culminates in the celebration of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. Their integration into the community of faith continues after Easter, during a time that goes by the arcane name of "mystagogia."

Through all of this process, adults seeking initiation into the church are doing much more than classroom learning. They are developing in mind, heart and spirit, seeking God's presence in their lives, at the same time as he is calling them forward. For more information on the RCIA process and how you might become involved at SEAS, contact SEAS Pastoral Associate Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370).

Saints of the Week

Saints Francisco and Jacinta Marto

Jacinta: 1910—
Feb. 20, 1920

Francisco: 1908—
April 14, 1919

Two of the three Fatima visionaries, this sister and brother along with their cousin, Lucia dos Santos, had monthly visions of Mary at Fatima, Portugal, from May to October 1917. Mary asked the shepherd children to promote devotion to her Immaculate Heart and pray the rosary daily. Both Martos died of influenza, Francisco at age 10 in 1919, and Jacinta at age 9 in 1920. Their cousin, who became a Carmelite nun, died in 2005 at age 97. Fatima is among the world's great Marian shrines and pilgrimage sites. On May 13, 2000, both Francisco and Jacinta were beatified. Pope Francis canonized the siblings and on May 13, 2017, on the 100th Anniversary of Fatima, Francisco and Jacinta are the first child saints who are not martyrs in the history of the Church.

One night his father heard him sobbing and asked him why he was crying; his son answered: "I was thinking of Jesus who is so sad because of the sins that are committed against him." He was motivated by one desire—so expressive of how children think—"to console Jesus and make him happy."

Our Lady needs you all to console Jesus, who is sad because of the bad things done to him; he needs your prayers and your sacrifices for sinners." —Saint John Paul II, on his apostolic journey to Fatima, May 2000

The 2020 Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA)

A Silver Jubilee of Stewardship

Catholic Stewardship Appeal 2020
The 25th Anniversary of the CSA in the Diocese of Las Vegas

In this Year of Our Lord 2020, we celebrate the 25th Anniversary of our Diocese, our Silver Jubilee! Saint John Paul II established this particular Church on 21 March 1995, liturgically celebrated on 28 June, the Vigil of the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, two of our Diocese's patron saints.

In his letter to the Colossians, St. Paul writes:
"Whatever you do, do from the heart, as for the Lord,
and not for others, knowing that you will receive from the Lord due payment as an inheritance; be servants of the Lord Christ" (Col 3:23-24). Founded upon this scriptural stewardship principle, I invite you to participate generously in this Jubilee Year Catholic Stewardship Appeal as good and faithful Catholic stewards.

The stewardship which we practice in the Diocese assists the Church, her ministries and her apostolates in a variety of ways. Among our shared blessings are those apportioned as follows:

Vocations – 28% of Stewardship

Without the Priesthood there is no Eucharist; without the Eucharist there is no Church. This thought moves us to be generous stewards helping form and educate our seminarians for priestly service in our Diocese. With 10 men now in seminary formation (pictured below) and a growing number discerning the call, this is a great undertaking. Your stewardship is what makes it possible.

Continuing Education of Clergy and Priests Pension Assistance – 23% of Stewardship

Good stewardship helps our priests to continue to be fruitful in their ministry to us, and helps fund the diocesan priests' pensions for those spiritual Fathers who served us so faithfully.

Stewardship makes us a Holy Family. Stewardship makes us Apostolic Catholics.

The 2020 Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA)

Faith Formation – 18% of Stewardship

Forming new disciples in our Catholic Faith, together with Youth Ministry and Hispanic catechesis; our stewardship helps form catechists and faith leaders well, enabling them to bring Christ and his saving message to young and old.

Pastoral Outreach – 15% of Stewardship

Among the programs our Catholic stewardship assists in pastoral outreach are Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada, Saint Therese Center, Social Ministry Office, Victims' Assistance for safe environment and televised Mass for outreach to the homebound.

Campus Ministry – 10% of Stewardship

Bringing the truth, goodness and beauty of Christ's message to young adults at UNLV and on other college campuses is a crucial stewardship goal, confirming our future generations in the faith.

Catholic Education – 6% of Stewardship

Catholic schools are hidden treasures in our Diocese and its parishes; these schools help form our youth in the way of Christ. Our stewardship helps ensure the highest faith and education standards for our Catholic schools.

Last weekend through a video message, Bishop Thomas spoke of the importance of this stewardship appeal in the life of the Church, offering testimony to the power of faith in action.

There is a two-fold blessing in this stewardship. Once a parish has reached its goal, all funds raised above and beyond that goal are rebated to the parish, 100%, for parish projects. Thus, the entire Church is built up: your generous stewardship helps the particular Church of the Diocese of Las Vegas and also assists the parish, your spiritual family.

20/20 is the measure of perfect vision. It is our belief that with all families participating in this year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal, in our Silver Jubilee for the Diocese of Las Vegas, we may both obtain a more perfect spiritual vision in our own lives and offer that gift to others, and together be transformed into good stewards and servants of the Lord, Christ Jesus.

O Holy Family of Nazareth,
O Glorious Princes of the Apostles, help make us good Stewards of the Faith.

Our 25th Anniversary Silver Jubilee goal for 2020 is $3,200,000. Every parish in the Diocese shares in this goal based on its offertory income.

Stewardship: Living the Beatitudes

Three weekends in our February liturgical calendar will turn our attention to Jesus' teachings in the Gospel of Matthew explaining what is to be expected of those who choose to follow him. This is the familiar Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5:1 – 7:29), the most quoted part of the Bible. Jesus' sermon begins with messages of comfort, the Beatitudes (Matt. 5:3-12).

- Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted.
- Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land.
- Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
- Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
- Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.
- Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
- Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you (falsely) because of me.
- Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

The word "Beatitude" refers to a state of deep happiness or joy. But these sayings are paradoxes. They turn our normal expectations upside down. Jesus is bringing us a new law, new expectations on how to live. He is bringing forth the Kingdom of God. As the United States bishops write in their pastoral letter, "Jesus does not waste time proposing lofty but unrealistic ideals; he tells his followers how they are expected to live. The Beatitudes and the rest of the Sermon on the Mount prescribe the lifestyle of a Christian disciple."

Each of these "blesseds" is a statement about an important aspect in how we exercise stewardship of our lives. Each of them offers us an ideal of how to live and how we find God living within us. Learn the Beatitudes, memorize them, make them part of your daily prayer life, and ask the Lord for the wisdom and strength to follow this stewardship way of life, a path that follows in the footsteps of Jesus.

A Stewardship Moment

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, part of his Sermon on the Mount, Jesus does not speak of replacing the law of the Old Testament. He goes beyond it. He obliges his followers to work at being holier than even the strictest of Pharisees. But the work is not accomplished by following a religious "law", it requires growing in love for other human beings. Followers of Jesus know they are required to be good stewards of others. In what way will you exercise good stewardship over other people this week?

REFLEC IONS

in prayer & song

♦ Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Every Friday of Lent, come rest with the Lord in silence in the main Church. During this time, when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the church, the Mater Dei Chapel will be closed.

Fridays: February 28, March 6, March 20 and March 27 beginning at 3:00 p.m. till the final Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the end of the Scriptural Way of the Cross.

Fridays: March 13 and April 3 beginning at 3:00 p.m. till 6:45 p.m. followed by Water, Light and Life and the Living Stations of the Cross respectively.

♦ Scriptural Way of the Cross

with Taizé style refrains and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament

Fridays: February 28, March 6, March 20 and March 27 at 7:00 p.m.

This unique approach to the Way of the Cross is based on the stations written by St. John Paul II which incorporates Taizé music as well as other refrains sung in a Taizé style. These evenings conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

♦ Water, Light and Life

a congregational meditation based on the Gospels of the scrutinies

Friday: March 13 at 7:00 p.m.

Three of the most important stories in the Gospels serve as a basis for the scrutinies – a final process for candidates preparing for initiation into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. The readings, all from the Gospel of John, are the woman at the well, the healing of a blind man, and the raising of Lazarus from the dead. We will encounter the love and mercy of Christ in a powerful way as we spend time reflecting on these readings with music to emphasize their significance.

♦ Living Stations of the Cross

featuring our youth group and our children's choir

Friday: April 3 at 7:00 p.m.

The Stations of the Cross come alive with pictures created by our young people in silhouette. Music will be added by the Celestial Voices choir to make this a truly memorable evening of prayer and reflection.

Welcome Home: Returning to the Sacramental Life of the Catholic Church

There are many reasons why we Catholics sometimes take an extended leave-of-absence from our relationship with the Lord through the Catholic Church. There are also many reasons why baptized Catholics sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church. If you are looking to "re-engage" with your faith or are an adult wishing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, let us know. Our parish community offers you a safe place to be listened to, a place to ask questions, a place for healing, a place to update your faith as an adult and a place to help you return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. The next 9-week Welcome Home series begins March 5 with classes held on Thursday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the PP VI classroom in the Parish Hall. For more information, contact SEAS Pastoral Associate Marcie Wilske (702-804-8370) at mwilske@seaslv.org.
