Mercy flows... Love redeems

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

2021 CATHOLIC STEWARDSHIP APPEAL (CSA)

This coming week you will receive your special 2021 CSA Appeal Letter from me in the mail. Since I would like all of you to give your attention to that letter you'll receive in the mail, I'll keep this bulletin letter short and sweet!

For this past year's goal, we came very close to meeting it. In the previous several years we surpassed our goals and were able to receive yearly rebates, but it doesn't look like that's going to happen this year. This was a particularly difficult year in many ways, so I'm grateful that we almost made our goal. By next weekend we will be able to give you the final results.

My hope is that we can increase the participation of our registered households in this year's CSA. Last year's 2020 CSA found only about 10% of our registered parishioners participating. I would LOVE to see 100% participation so we can greatly surpass our goal and get a substantial rebate! Remember, everything we contribute beyond our goal is 100% rebated back to us. We will continue to designate any refunds to the eventual renewal of our worship space which we had hoped to complete during 2020, our 25th Anniversary of the Dedication of our present worship space. If everyone gets on board this year we won't have to worry about taking anything from our savings to reach our goal.

Ok, that's enough. PLEASE read the letter you receive from me in the mail this week. "Mom" needs our help. You'll understand what I mean by that when you read my 2021 CSA Appeal Letter! Watch your mail!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

A Stewardship Moment

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first disciples of Jesus in today's Gospel left their work and their daily routines to follow him. They abandoned their livelihoods, familiar surroundings and the lives to which they had become accustomed to be closer to him. The good steward finds ways to be removed from what may be a comfortable existence or daily routine in order to serve the Lord more faithfully. All too often, out of fear, insecurity or even selfishness, we refuse to leave the safety of the little world we have created for ourselves in order to hear the Lord's call and be challenged by his Gospel. Perhaps we should reflect on what comforts we need to sacrifice in order to be better stewards of God's mercy, compassion and hospitality he planted within us.

Feast of Faith

The Sign of the Cross

At the beginning of our prayer, we make the sign of the cross together. This sign, simple and powerful, operates on many levels. We trace the sign of the cross over our bodies, reminding ourselves that the cross of Christ has become our source of resurrection, life and grace. With this sign, we also profess our faith in the Trinity: the presider does not say “in the names,” but “in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit”—three persons, one God. The sign of the cross is also a baptismal reminder, for every sign of the cross echoes the words spoken over us at our baptism, which marked our entry into the saving mystery of Christ. This many-layered sign is also our primary sign of blessing: the cross is traced over people, places and things upon which we ask God to impart divine benediction.

In blessing ourselves with the sign of the cross at the beginning of Mass, we acknowledge the mystery that has gathered us together: that Christ, the crucified and risen One, is living, and that we are members of his Body. Our response, our Amen, is our yes to all this, our first profession of faith.

Saint of the Week

Saint Paula

Dates: 347 - 404

Feast Day: January 26

The patron saint of widows, Paula was a wealthy Roman widowed with five children at age 32. Another widow introduced her to St. Jerome, a priest and papal secretary to St. Damasus. Jerome became her spiritual director, urging a life of asceticism and charity. When he learned she was fluent in Greek, he enlisted her help in translating Greek biblical texts for his new Latin version of the Bible. Paula had joined the circle of nobility-born Roman women in Jerome's orbit and followed him to the Holy Land when he left Rome. She taught herself Hebrew and exhausted her wealth building a monastery, three convents and a hospital in Bethlehem.

Who Me, Pray?...With Her?

Down to Earth Questions and Answers about Praying as a Couple

Q. Why bother?

A. As you probably know, 46-48% of marriages end in divorce.

But did you also know that: For couples who worship together each Sunday only about 20% divorce. For couples who also regularly pray together at home marital stability is even greater. Praying together can be divorce insurance, but it sounds kind of awkward. Sure it's fine for priests and nuns or really holy people, but what about normal married couples?

Q. But we go to church on Sunday and say grace before meals. Isn't that enough?

A. That's great! Of course these prayer times are important and valuable, but they are different from couple prayer. There is a certain intimacy and vulnerability that comes from opening your heart to God in the presence of your spouse.

Q. OK, we might give it a try, but where do we start?

A. There is no wrong way to pray and the desire to try is prayer in itself. First, some preliminary decisions:

Decide a time. Presumably both of you are very busy. Isn't everyone these days? So finding an agreeable, semi-reliable time is essential. After experimenting with several times of day my husband and I agreed on first thing in the morning (about 15 minutes before the first child is expected to awake). Since Jim is a morning person and I'm not, his job is to wake me and say it's time.

Decide a place. Anywhere will do, but it's nice to have a bible or whatever reading you plan to use handy. If clutter is endemic to your home at least find a place where you can cover it or turn your back on it. Personally, I like to have a window that I can look out of and see the sky. If it's dark, lighting a candle can be inspiring.

Decide how often. Ideally, daily is the way to go since there is a rhythm and regularity to it. In our own marriage, however, we have made peace with a less than ideal but workable goal. We commit to weekdays since that's more predictable than the weekends. We figure Mass takes care of Sunday. We also make exceptions for illness, being out of town, pregnancy (when almost any time felt nauseous) or unexpected interruptions like crying babies. It's not perfect, but we feel we're doing OK if we meet our bottom line of doing it more often than not. God wants our attention not our guilt.

Q. So what do we do once we're sitting together?

A. There are many ways to pray depending on your style and preferences.

Here are a few:

- Memorized prayers
- Reflection on today or tomorrow
- Reading Scripture guided meditation (from a book)
- Writing in a journal
- Reading an inspirational book
- Rosary of devotions
- Meditation on a spiritual theme
- Liturgy of the Hours
- Your own creation

Rank the above styles from 1 to 10 and find the ways that appeal to both of you.

Q. Hey, we're not theologians. What do we do with the information above?

The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

A. Keep it simple. After trying to be creative and experimenting with a variety of styles my husband and I found that for regular couple prayer to work for us it had to be very simple. Eventually we settled on the following format:

One Model — 5 Easy Steps

One spouse find the Scripture reading of the day.
One opens the prayer with a phrase like, "Lord, we come before you at the start of our day."
Read the Scripture out loud.

Sit in silence for a while. (We may think about the scripture, the upcoming day and how we will live it out, or perhaps put some thoughts in a journal). Inevitably for me, some time is spent daydreaming. I'm not proud of this, but I would do you no favor to suggest that you fail when not fully concentrating. Sometimes I just offer up the distraction and figure I'm honoring God by the effort I made just to show up.

At the appointed ending time, each spouse makes a petition flowing from the silent prayer.

Q. Can you simplify "simple"?

A. How about after the alarm goes off (before you get out of bed) hold hands and offer a prayer for a good day, help with a particular problem or thanksgiving. Likewise, at night, after turning off the light, hold hands and offer a prayer of thanks for anything that day.

Q. What if my spouse just isn't into couple prayer? (S)he is a good person and we pray individually but we just aren't going to be able to do it together.

A. Don't beat yourself up over this. Sure couple prayer is good and can bring you closer together, but God's love is bigger than any prayer form. Pray for each other in your own way.

Q. How do we find the Scripture of the day or other books of the Bible?

A. To find the daily reading go to www.usccb.org/bible/readings.

A New Day Dawns

Today we hear how Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing "by their actions" how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, "The world in its present form is passing away" (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them — rather mysteriously — to live "as though" they aren't doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, "The kingdom of God is at hand!" (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets — and even their father — and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: the Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn't a new day dawn today for us as well?

Spots Still Available

If you would like to schedule a Presider's Mass Intention, please call the church office at 702-228-8311 and press (0) for the receptionist, Sandra. She can explain the guidelines for Mass Intentions here at SEAS and confirm whether or not there is availability for your requested date and Mass time. Because the Presider's Mass Intention is just as important as everyone else's personal Mass Intentions, we don't single out or announce the Presider's Mass Intention at Mass. The Presider's Mass Intention is listed in the bulletin as a simple courtesy. It is during the Universal Prayers when we pray for the Church's leadership, the world's leadership and the needs of the community along with "the personal Mass Intentions we each bring in the quiet of our hearts." God knows ALL the Mass Intentions offered at any particular Mass and hears each of them equally.

Why Register in the Parish?

If you would like to register with the parish, we encourage you to do so at www.seaslv.org. Registered parishioners of St. Elizabeth Ann

Seton Catholic Church rightfully look to their parish for any number of services. Among these services are:

- Parishioner tuition rates in our Catholic schools
- Certification as sponsors at sacramental celebrations
- Annual contribution statements

If you are unable to participate actively or unable to contribute to the support of the parish because of your age, illness or economic situation, please notify the parish office. Ministry to the homebound is available. Thank you.

Welcome Home:

Reconnect with Your Catholic Faith; Return to the Sacraments

There are many reasons why we Catholics sometimes take an extended leave of absence from our relationship with the Lord through the Catholic Church.

There are also many reasons why baptized Catholics sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church. If you are looking to "re-engage" with your faith or are an adult wishing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, let us know. Our parish community offers you a safe place to be listened to, a place to ask questions, a place for healing, a place to update your faith as an adult, and a place to help you return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. The 8-session course will be held in the St. Paul VI classroom in the parish hall on Thursday nights from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. beginning January 28, 2021. There is no cost. All are welcome. For more information, contact Pastoral Associate Helen Silva at 702-804-8351 or hsilva@seaslv.org.

Live-Streaming of Christ's Real Presence in the Tabernacle

We are live-streaming a view of our church's tabernacle which contains the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. At times when Masses or other events are not being conducted in our worship space, you can go to our parish website, www.seaslv.org, click on the "live-stream" icon on the homepage and pray before the live-streamed view of our tabernacle anytime of the day or night. You can also connect to the live stream by visiting our YouTube channel: St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Roman Catholic Church - Las Vegas. Be aware, however, that our parish life goes on, and there may be times you might see someone cleaning, or setting up for a service, or whatever. This live-streamed view is just another opportunity to be virtually close to the Eucharistic Presence of Christ in the tabernacle no matter where you are.

Finally, as we enter a new year, we are able to reflect upon our journey together. All of us walked by faith, not knowing how our path would unfold. We persevered and continued to stay connected the best ways we were able: live-streaming Masses, Zoom meetings, phone calls, emails, letters, coming together while always following safety guidelines.

SAFEVOICE Mobile App

Students, parents and faculty throughout Nevada now have access to SafeVoice, an anonymous reporting system used to report threats to the safety or well-being of students. SafeVoice was established by the Nevada Department of Education under SB 212 in 2017 to protect student wellness, prevent violence and save lives. In partnership with the Nevada Department of Public Safety, the SafeVoice program provides students a safe place to submit tips concerning their own safety or that of others. A fully trained professional team of experts responds in an appropriate manner 24/7/365. Tips always stay anonymous. Learn more at <http://safevoicenv.org>.
