A Letter from Our Associate Pastor

Dear Friends,

I am Fr. José D. Unlayao, CJD, your new associate pastor. I was born on May 4, 1977, the youngest of seven children, to Mr. and Mrs. Sesinando Unlayao, a family of farmers in the humble town of Lucban, Quezon in the Philippines.

St. John Paul II was instrumental to my vocation. It was during World Youth Day in Manila in 1995 when he addressed the crowd of more than 5 million youth and asked the young men to heed the call to the priesthood. I said, "Yes."

In 1996, I entered St. Francis de Sales Major Seminary in Lipa City, Batangas in the Philippines, where I earned an AB in Philosophy in 2001. Afterward, I spent a year of spiritual formation under the Focolare Movement at Priest School for Asia in Tagaytay City, then continued my theological formation and studies at St. Alphonsus Regional Seminary in Lucena City. I completed my AB in Theology in 2008 and was invited once again by the Focolare Movement to continue my spiritual formation through the course, Spirituality of Unity in Florence, Italy.

I was so inspired by this experience that I postponed my plans of becoming a priest to teach in schools in Manila and Laguna until 2013. After further discernment, I joined the Order of Canons Regular of Jesus the Lord. Together with my fellow brothers Luis and Ferdinandus, we underwent the Canonical Novitiate in Vladivostok, Russia. Upon completion, Brother Luis and I were assigned to start a new community in the Diocese of Las Vegas.

In May 2016, my pastoral ministry in Las Vegas began under the guidance of Msgr. Gregory W. Gordon at St. Anne Catholic Church. On January 25, 2017, Brother Luis and I received the Holy Order of Deacons and the following May we were ordained to the Sacred Order of Priesthood by Bishop Joseph A. Pepe, DD, JCD. I was then assigned as one of the associate pastors at St. Joseph, Husband of Mary parish. I will always be grateful for my time there.

Knowing that obedience to the will of God unlocks valuable blessings, teachings, and surprises, I gladly obeyed when I was informed of my new assignment at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish. It has been a week since my arrival, and I have already encountered (especially last Sunday) many wonderful people from this faith-filled community—a friendly staff, cheerful volunteers, and joy-filled parishioners.

I have only been a priest for two years, so I ask you, my dear parishioners, to please pray for me as I journey with you so that I may deepen my knowledge and excel in all the talents and abilities God has blessed me with for this service and ministry. From the support you have already shown me, I am sure my time here will be a tremendous opportunity to grow and learn.

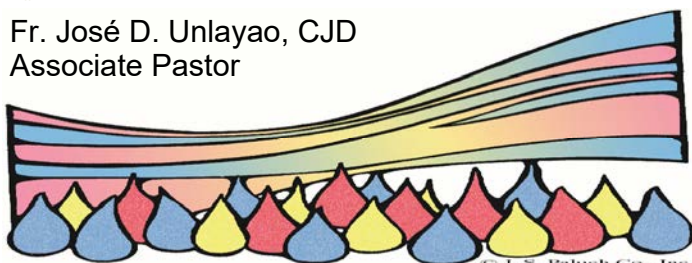

I am grateful to be Fr. Jim Jankowski's associate and to work alongside him. We will be your co-workers in the vineyard of the Lord. I will be his helper, and I know I will learn a lot from him. If anyone has any concern or need, I encourage you to go directly to Fr. Jim—our pastor and our brother.

I have no other desire but to bring God's message of hope, compassion, and truth as I try my best to grow in holiness and love through my ministry and service. May we help each other to advance in the grace and favor of God each day of our lives.

1 Corinthians 9:22 "To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some."

Your brother in Christ,

Fr. José D. Unlayao, CJD
Associate Pastor

The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

God Wants to be Known

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

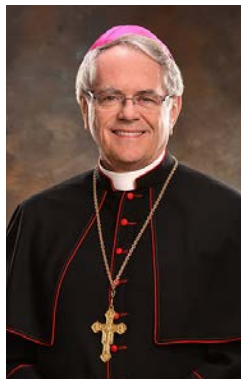

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE of LAS VEGAS

My Dear Parishioners,

One of the primary responsibilities of the Catholic Church is to provide parents with the opportunity to form and educate their children in a Catholic school environment.

Our Diocesan Catholic schools are established to meet this need and to offer a solid foundation both in academics and Catholic values. Our schools serve not only the parishes to which they are attached, but also all families in the diocese.

In past decades, our Catholic schools were beneficiaries of the Sisters, Brothers and Priests who staffed the teaching and administrative positions within the school. Today, we depend upon the many professional teachers, administrators and staff who are dedicated to continuing the Catholic education apostolate. This vitally important lay apostolate must also be accompanied by compensation that is worthy of this calling.

In recent years, our Catholic schools have faced rising operational costs and capital needs, resulting in a corresponding increase in tuition rates. We also realize that this financial burden presents an increased challenge to families hoping to have their children attend Catholic school.

The Diocese of Las Vegas designates a second collection each year for elementary school scholarships. An impartial assessment process is used to determine eligibility for scholarship assistance. I ask you to please be as generous as possible to this collection this weekend, July 13/14. Through your support, young minds and hearts will be given the opportunity to receive the Catholic faith and academic formation they deserve.

With gratitude for your continued generosity,
 I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ George Leo Thomas
 Bishop of Las Vegas

Treasures From Our Tradition

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the “baptism of the bells,” recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There's no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the Week

St. Bonaventure

1221 - 1274

Feast Day - July 15

Franciscan doctor of the church, Bonaventure is best known for writing on spirituality and theology. He stressed the importance of emotion in the search for God without denying human reason in examining divine revelation. He became minister general of the Franciscans and demonstrated that simplicity, poverty and imitation of Christ could be balanced with intellectual pursuits. In 1273 he was made cardinal. It is said he refused the traditional red hat and asked papal legates to leave it hanging from a tree.

Living the Faith

Creating and Maintaining Balance in Your Marriage

By Kathleen Billings

As a family, one of our favorite summer activities is swimming in our pool. Having an in-ground pool within a few steps of our backdoor has been a sweet blessing. We splash, play, relax, and bond. My husband, Troy, works hard to maintain the pool and preserve the appropriate chemical balance, often referring to it as one big chemistry experiment! Now and then, the chemical balance is lost due to external factors such as a large amount of rain in a short time.

For the first time in 13 years, we have had an issue with nitrates eating our chlorine. It is so serious that after numerous attempts and way too much money spent on chemicals, we must now empty all 23,000 gallons of water and refill it with fresh water to fix the problem.

As I was lamenting our pool situation today, I thought about it in relation to marriage. I reflected on how sometimes outside influences seep into marriages and cause them to get completely off balance. Other times, our own marital neglect shifts the “chemical balance.” Maintaining a healthy, holy marriage requires diligence and a daily investment of time.

The first step to creating and maintaining balance in your marriage is ensuring that you have your priorities correctly ordered: God first, marriage second, children third, and work fourth. Rearranging the order causes imbalance, which leads to disorder and then eventually to chaos.

Work is at the service of your family, while children find security in parents who have a strong marriage. A solid prayer life and a deep relationship with God are the foundations of a loving, stable marriage. As God is the source of the grace necessary to live the sacrament of marriage, maintaining this order is vital to the health of both your marriage and family life.

The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Life circumstances might require a temporary shift in your focus, but not a rearranging of your priorities.

Do you have order in your marriage? Perhaps you need to “readjust the chemicals,” to maintain the proper balance. Maybe you need a completely fresh start and must drain the entire “pool” to recalibrate.

To assess the pool water, Troy also uses test strips which tell him precisely where the chemicals are registering. Occasionally, when everything registers perfectly, but the pool water still looks off, he takes a sample to the local pool store to have it evaluated. This extra step usually uncovers the underlying issue that the test strip was not able to pick up. How do you gauge the health of your marriage? You can start by taking a good, clear look at it. Is your spouse happy? Are you happy? What is the tone of your home? Do you need outside intervention to honestly assess where you are? If this is necessary, do not be ashamed or embarrassed. Having the courage to seek help demonstrates strength of character and wisdom. Many couples are not fully equipped with the tools necessary to be in a life-giving marriage. Outside advice can help provide these essential tools.

On the other hand, if your marriage just needs some minor calculated changes to get back on track, then I encourage you to talk about it with your spouse. Come up with a game plan together to readjust your lifestyle to create stability in your marriage and peace in your home.

Even if your entire pool needs to be dumped, do not lose hope. At first, we tried band-aids on our pool problem, thinking we could avoid a costly refill. We didn’t want to deal with the underlying issue quite yet; but now we can no longer avoid it. When it comes to marriage, don’t do the same thing. Covering up your marital issues with band-aids and avoiding the underlying problems only wastes time. Be bold and brave. Empty yourself and allow Christ to completely refill you, so you can create and maintain balance in your life and in your marriage. Are you ready to dive in and discover the joy that comes from living a well-ordered, Christ-centered life?

Fact of Faith

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

Celebrated July 16

Mount Carmel, which juts out into the Mediterranean near Haifa, Israel, has been considered a sacred place since the prophet Elijah built an altar there in his contest with the prophets of Baal. The Carmel headland is traditionally associated with the beginnings of the Carmelite order around 1195, when a group of lay hermits formed a community there.

Mary had been honored there as early as the fifth century, and by the 12th century Mount Carmel had become a site of Marian devotion. The Carmelites chose Mary as their protectress and dedicated their oratory on Mount Carmel to her. Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the patron of Bolivia and Chile. This Marian feast became an optional memorial in the Revised Roman Calendar of 1969. “The Carmelites have spread among the Christian people devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, holding her up as a model of prayer, contemplation and dedication to God.

Indeed, Mary was the first, in a way which can never be equaled, to believe and experience that Jesus, the Incarnate Word, is the summit, the peak of man’s encounter with God. By fully accepting the Word, she “was blessedly brought to the holy Mountain” (cf. Opening Prayer of the Memorial), and lives forever with the Lord in body and soul.” —Pope Benedict XVI, Angelus, July 16, 2006.

Stewardship

Be a Good Steward of Your Leisure Time

The air in July seems to be filled with the music of birds and the hum of insects. We hear the happy sounds of picnickers, boaters, golfers, fireworks, kids splashing in the pool, and concerts in the park. It's a celebratory time, a time when many people take vacation or welcome visitors from afar or young adults home from college. We think of July as a fun time, a time for rest and relaxation, a time for leisure.

It's important to be a good steward of the wonders of summer, a good steward of our time of rest and renewal, a good steward of leisure. A time to recharge our batteries is all part of leading a healthy, balanced life. After all, we recall that Jesus directed his disciples to "...go off to a secluded place and rest" (Mark 6:31).

Stewardship calls us to nurture and care for God's gifts which include taking care of the gift that is ourselves. So, make leisure a priority this month. Simplify your activities and focus on relationships, resting, recreating, and enjoying the beauty of God's world. Ease up on planning the perfect party or barbecue and instead focus on the fun of everyone chipping in to spend time together. Give yourself space to be alone in the midst of summer's fun.

Be healthy in eating and drinking. Long walks at dawn or dusk and plenty of exercise will aid both your body and your spirit, as will enjoying the wealth of summer's bounty and the produce of our gardens and farmers' markets. Consider activities that add variety to our lives and relationships.

Make time for those books piling up on the bookshelf. Do something out of the ordinary. Plan a long lunch with an old friend, or enjoy jazz "on the green." But don't add heavy burdens of preparation and commitment.

Scale down. Relax. Let go. Be spontaneous. Be a good steward of your leisure time. Bask in the glory of summer's long days. This will not only prove restorative but will reveal more acutely the blessings of God's creation and help us discover in new ways the wonder of our loved ones and ourselves.

A Stewardship Moment

The Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel turns our attention to one of Jesus' most familiar stories, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. It is about living how God intended us to live: to acknowledge God's divine love and compassion lavished upon us, and to extend that love and compassion upon others without reservation. We can find a lot of reasons for not stopping to help someone. We can talk ourselves out of being Good Samaritans. Strangers are not our responsibility, or are they? Good stewards understand that God's mercy is a gift that must be shared, and that doing the right thing, acting as Jesus would act toward others, is the only course of action for one who lives according to the demands of the Gospel. How might you be a Good Samaritan this week?

Capital Campaign Update

A Campaign for Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Dear Parishioners,

As of July 9th, $1,321,595 has already been pledged to our HONORING our PAST EMBRACING our FUTURE Capital Campaign. Thank you to the donors who have given so generously to date, and thank you to our volunteers who have worked so diligently to get us to this point.

With the amount that has been pledged so far, we will be able to retire the $828,000 loan which was a major priority in the planning study.

We still have a long way to go to accomplish our other objectives in our $4.5 million goal, and we need everyone's participation so we can sustain our church and school for the future. Our next priorities are:

Deferred Maintenance:

- Replace the parish hall / gym floor
- Fix the playground
- Renovate our 20-year old kitchen
- Repair / replace damaged areas of the church and school roofs
- Replace AC units when needed

School Sustainability:

- Smart Boards
- Technology upgrades
- Subsidizing tuition deficit

Church Enhancements:

- Replace altar and ambo to comply with liturgical standards
- Replace our pews with solid wood pews
- Replace / level tile floor in the church
- Repaint / repair damaged walls and ceilings in the church

My vision for our future is aligned with Fr. Bede's—continuing to build the Kingdom of God at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. We are all stewards of God's gifts that are to be used for his work. The SEAS parishioners have been good stewards for the past 24 years and have addressed important needs. We must now do the same with our church and school buildings so they can continue to provide us with space to foster and grow our vibrant ministries.

I ask all of you to join me in supporting this effort by making a sacrificial gift and praying for our campaign's success.

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Clergy Farewell—June 28th

Good Luck Fr. Lourdes, Fr. Bede, and Fr. David

Children's Faith Formation (age 3 – grade 8)

We offer formation classes for children preparing for First Eucharist, Baptism (older than age 7), Continuing Formation (after receiving the sacraments), and the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program for children ages 3 to 5 (entering kindergarten).

The 2019-2020 season starts the week of September 17.

Classes: Tuesdays and Thursdays

Times: 4:30 p.m. to 5:40 p.m.
and 6:00 p.m. to 7:10 p.m.

Requirements:

- Parents or guardians are registered members of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish or a Catholic Parish in the Las Vegas Diocese. Regular attendance at Sunday Liturgy is part of the formation process.
- Registration fee is $150.00 per child. No child will be turned away due to financial difficulty.
- Families must provide a Birth and Baptism Certificate and deposit at the time of registration. Sacrament preparation at SEAS is a family preparation process that requires the participation of the child and the parent throughout the formation years.

Sacraments:

Rite of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC)

This is a two-year process for children who were not baptized as infants, who have attained the age of reason (7 years), are of catechetical age, and who will participate in the Rite of Christian Initiation at the Easter Vigil in their second year of preparation.

First Eucharist Initiation:

The two-year preparation process to celebrate First Eucharist teaches children about the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The child and the parent will participate in retreats in their second year.

Continuing Formation:

Children in 3rd grade and higher who are baptized and have received First Eucharist will continue their formation in age appropriate classes. It is the practice of our faith that formation is ongoing and is a life-long journey.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS):

This is a hands-on, interactive working environment where children are guided toward a greater understanding of God's love in their life. They encounter Jesus the Good Shepherd, who loves them, cares for them and knows them by name. Children are most sensitive to a relationship with God between the ages of 3-6. For this reason, we provide formal faith formation for young children.

Registration packets are available on the website <http://www.seaslv.org/faithformation.html>, in the Children's Faith Formation Office, and the SEAS Kairos Gift Shop.

For more information please contact our office at Faithformation@seaslv.org

Las Vegas Diocesan Conference September 6-7 Guest Speaker Dr. Jo Ann Paradise

The 2019 Las Vegas Diocesan Conference is excited to present Dr. Jo Ann Paradise as one of our featured presenters. Jo Ann is a national consultant with Our Sunday Visitor Curriculum Division and has served as a catechetical leader in the Diocese of Pittsburgh for over 32 years. She has taught in both elementary and high school level Catholic schools and has served as an adjunct faculty member of several universities. Jo Ann will be presenting two workshops for our conference. "Entering the Mystery, Pondering the Trinity," will be presented Friday afternoon, September 6 and will explore our understanding of the Trinity as the very nature of God and the source of all relationship in creation. We will consider ways to share this truth with people of all ages. Her second workshop, "Celebrating our Catholic Identity: Understanding the 'Heart' of our Faith," will ponder the question raised by many people in the world today, "Why be Catholic?" Whether that question comes from a child or an office co-worker, we sometimes find ourselves ill equipped to respond. Join us as we reclaim what is at the heart of our faith and celebrate its joy and beauty as we seek to be Christ in the world today. Register for the conference today at www.lasvegasdiocesanconference.org.

GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.

2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.

3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.

4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.

5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
