Saint of the Week

Bl. Stanley Rother

March 27, 1935 - July 28, 1981

Feast Day - July 28

An Oklahoma farm boy, Father Stanley Francis Rother was born in Okarche, Oklahoma. Ordained a priest for the Diocese of Oklahoma City and Tulsa in 1963, he served in the diocese's Guatemala mission for fourteen years, ministering to the native Tzutuhil tribe. Fr. Stan (or Padre Francisco, as he was affectionately known), learned the Tzutuhil language and became one with his poverty-stricken flock, ministering to his parishioners in their homes, eating with them, visiting the sick, aiding with medical problems and helping on their farms. While he served in Guatemala, a civil war raged between the militarist government forces and the guerillas and hundreds of thousands of Catholics were killed due to the Church's insistence on helping people. Eventually, Fr. Stan was targeted. For his safety, he returned to Oklahoma, but was not able to hold himself back from his people. After a short period that was akin to his own "Garden of Gethsemane" moment, he returned to his people, famously saying that "the shepherd cannot run." Within days of his return to Santiago Atitlan, three men entered the rectory and killed him. A true imitation of the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for his flock, Fr. Stan was declared a martyr and beatified in 2017.

Fact of Faith

The Role of the Commandments

God helps us in many different ways to live a moral life. He gives us grace, which awakens in us the desire to say no to temptation and sin and to choose only that which is good. He gives us the Theological and Cardinal Virtues and the grace to practice human virtues so that we can grow stronger in them. God gives us help and grace through the Church and through our reception of the Sacraments. He also teaches us how we should live. One way he does this is by giving us laws to guide our actions. The Ten Commandments are laws that God has revealed to us. Heeding the guidance God gives us in the Commandments will help us know how to serve God and how we should live with each other. It also helps us to be open to the grace of the Holy Spirit and what God can accomplish in us and through us by that grace.

Living the Faith

The Holiness of God in Daily Life

When God appeared to Moses on Mount Horeb, he said, “The place where you stand is holy ground” (Ex 3:5). The sixth chapter of Isaiah describes the prophet’s vision of God and hearing the angels sing, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord” (Is 6:3). Moses reacts to God’s holiness with awe, a deep reverence for the all-embracing majesty of God. Isaiah responds to God’s holiness with an awareness of the profound and infinite purity of God. Both men undergo a spiritual transformation that they attribute to their experience of God’s holiness.

The First Commandment is more than a reference to an abstract idea of God. It is an announcement of the presence of the most holy God, both in outward creation and within the human soul. His existence does call for our faith.

Our surrounding culture is filled with many distractions that shut out the majestic voice of our holy and glorious God. St. Augustine, commenting on his troubled youth, speaks of this experience with these words, “You were with me, but I was not with you. Created things kept me from you; yet if they had not been in you they would not have been at all.” But God was not simply a passive presence to Augustine, a diffident lover wondering what to do. Augustine tells us that God spoke with a vigorous voice. “You called, you shouted, and you broke through my deafness. You breathed your fragrance on me. . . I have tasted you, now I hunger and thirst for more (The Confessions, bk. 10, no. 27).

This is the best context for appreciating the importance of the First Commandment. As God did with Augustine, he does for us again—calling, shouting, trying to break through our deafness, breathing his fragrance upon us. Many, indeed, are listening. Numerous Catholics are seeking a deeper relationship with God through daily Mass, frequent reception of the sacraments, the prayerful reading of Scripture, retreats, spiritual direction, diverse forms of prayer, and devotional practices. With Augustine, they can say, “You touched me, and I burned for your peace.”

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Treasures From Our Tradition

The pilgrim experience of going by foot to Santiago de Compostella, the shrine of St. James, reached its high point this week at the feast of the Apostle, with tens of thousands of pilgrims on the road. Typically, they cover twelve to twenty miles a day through rough territory. The difficult journey and the often primitive lodging facilities are made bearable by the joy of the pilgrims, their songs and prayers. When their journey is documented properly, they receive the scallop shell, a reminder not only of James the fisherman, but also his call to fish for human beings and to baptize the nations. In the Middle Ages, those who wore this badge on their hats were granted lodging and hospitality wherever they went. Next to the palm, the sign of a Jerusalem pilgrim, the scallop shell was most highly prized.

In the Middle Ages, some people so enjoyed the pilgrim road, although it was filled with discomfort and danger, that they spent most of their lives on the road. Today, some people take up the route for exercise, but are drawn gradually into the spirituality of the journey. As you make your summer travels, always fold in an element of pilgrimage: a long walk through beautiful countryside, a visit to a church, a prayer of gratitude for your journey through life's hills and valleys.

Asking for Help

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers.

Stewardship

Fifteen Random Stewardship Ideas for the Summer

1. Invite a single friend over for a meal.
2. Turn off the TV, phone, and computer, and spend an hour devoted to someone you love.
3. Attend an extra Mass on a weekday this month.
4. Abstain from something you like — meat, a latte, a cold drink — on Fridays and save the money for a charity.
5. Take your rosary with you for an early morning walk.
6. Recycle more.
7. Think of a charity which is amply blessed at Christmas. Remember it with a gift mid-year.
8. Each day, say a prayer for one of the world's trouble spots.
9. Surprise an old friend with a phone call.
10. Buy or pick a flower for someone without a reason.
11. Take your family to a farmers' market if in season.
12. Stop for a moment during your busy day and enjoy an ice cream cone or other favorite treat.
13. If you hear a great homily, tell the homilist.
14. Splurge on some produce and buy enough to share with someone in need.
15. On occasion, try turning your prayer before meals into a spontaneous prayer of thanks, using your own words.

A Stewardship Moment

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A prominent theme in today's Gospel parable is generosity. Late at night, a sleepy friend responds to his neighbor's request for food for an unexpected guest. Jesus suggests that it would be unthinkable for a friend to deny a friend in need. A friend would most certainly give what is asked and more. Through this story, Jesus illustrates God's generosity. Good stewards realize the extraordinary love and graciousness with which God shows us. We need never convince God to be generous. God is already that generous friend. His abundant love bathes us in goodness. This week, prayerfully reflect on God's generosity to us. What should our response be to that generosity?

Catholic Basics

Liturgy of the Hours: Sharing Your Day with God, is the topic of our next Catholic Basics class on Sunday, August 11 at 9:15 a.m. and repeated at 11:15 a.m. in the PP VI classroom in the Parish Hall. The Church's prayer—the Liturgy of the Hours—is prayed daily throughout the world in abbeys, convents, monasteries, parish churches and rectories. It's also a wonderful prayer for everyday Catholics who want to create a more regular rhythm of prayer in their busy lives. Whether an individual prays one, two, three or all seven hours it helps all who pray it to share their day with God. Classes are 30 minutes and are held the 2nd Sunday of the month. There is no commitment, come when you can. All are welcome! For more information, contact Marcie Wilske (702-804-8370) at mwilske@seaslv.org.

Capital Campaign Update

HONORING
our PAST
EMBRACING our FUTURE

A Campaign for Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Dear Parishioners,

I hope you're having a wonderful summer! As you enjoy the rest of the season, please remember that the parish's capital campaign is still underway. Volunteers are still working hard, and generous donors are still pledging.

If you haven't yet offered a gift, I hope I can count on your support. So far, we've received $1,502,048 in pledges to our HONORING our PAST EMBRACING our FUTURE Capital Campaign.

That amount, once fulfilled, will enable us to address a major priority of the campaign planning study — retiring the $828,000 construction debt from adding classrooms at our outstanding school. Eliminating that debt is crucial to the long-term sustainability of our church and school and helps us continue our mission of serving God's people.

But other steps are also essential. The parish needs additional generous gifts to accomplish the remaining priorities in our $4.5 million campaign goal. The campaign is focused on projects you identified as priorities in the planning study that led to this vital effort:

Deferred Maintenance:

- Replace the parish hall/gym floor
- Fix the playground
- Renovate our 20-year old kitchen
- Repair/replace damaged areas of the church and school roof
- Replace only as needed A/C units

School Sustainability:

- Smart Boards
- Technology upgrades
- Subsidizing tuition deficit

Church Enhancements:

- Replace altar and ambo to comply with liturgical standards
- Replace our pews with solid wood pews
- Replace/level the tile floor in the church
- Repaint/repair damaged walls and ceilings in the church and school

Our parish understands the power of stewardship and we have always responded when called upon for support. I hope that once again the parish can rely on the generosity of our entire faith community in making this capital campaign a success.

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Children's Faith Formation (age 3 – grade 8)

We offer formation classes for children preparing for First Eucharist, Baptism (older than age 7), Continuing Formation (after receiving the sacraments), and the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program for children ages 3 to 5 (entering kindergarten).

The 2019-2020 season starts the week of September 17.

Classes: Tuesdays and Thursdays

Times: 4:30 p.m. to 5:40 p.m.
and 6:00 p.m. to 7:10 p.m.

Requirements:

- Parents or guardians are registered members of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish or a Catholic Parish in the Las Vegas Diocese. Regular attendance at Sunday Liturgy is part of the formation process.
- Registration fee is $150.00 per child. No child will be turned away due to financial difficulty.
- Families must provide a Birth and Baptism Certificate and deposit at the time of registration. Sacrament preparation at SEAS is a family preparation process that requires the participation of the child and the parent throughout the formation years.

Sacraments:

Rite of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC)

This is a two-year process for children who were not baptized as infants, who have attained the age of reason (7 years), are of catechetical age, and who will participate in the Rite of Christian Initiation at the Easter Vigil in their second year of preparation.

First Eucharist Initiation:

The two-year preparation process to celebrate First Eucharist teaches children about the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The child and the parent will participate in retreats in their second year.

Continuing Formation:

Children in 3rd grade and higher who are baptized and have received First Eucharist will continue their formation in age appropriate classes. It is the practice of our faith that formation is ongoing and is a life-long journey.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS):

This is a hands-on, interactive working environment where children are guided toward a greater understanding of God's love in their life. They encounter Jesus the Good Shepherd, who loves them, cares for them and knows them by name. Children are most sensitive to a relationship with God between the ages of 3-6. For this reason, we provide formal faith formation for young children.

Registration packets are available on the website <http://www.seaslv.org/faithformation.html>, in the Children's Faith Formation Office, and the SEAS Kairos Gift Shop.

For more information please contact our office at Faithformation@seaslv.org

SEAS Summer Bible Study Dates New Class Added

Using video from the acclaimed A&E television series Mysteries of the Bible, our Summer Bible Study classes will cover a variety of topics. Monday classes will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall. Classes will be repeated on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. No registration, books, or cost! Just show up and join other parishioners who want to “dig deeper” into God’s Holy Word. All are welcome!

The Dead Sea Scrolls Monday, August 5 and Wednesday, August 7

Between 1947 and 1956, over 800 documents were discovered in a series of caves along the northwest shore of the Dead Sea. Known collectively as the “Dead Sea Scrolls,” they have been called the greatest discovery of biblical and non-biblical manuscripts in the Western world. We’ll explore these intriguing documents that deepen our understanding of the Bible and shed light on the histories of Judaism and Christianity.

Scarlet Women of the Bible (newly added) Monday, August 19 and Wednesday, August 21

Although the Bible contains stories of righteous heroines like Ruth and Mary, it also covers tales of more infamous female characters — Jezebel, Delilah, Queen Athaliah and Salome. Their names have come to mean fallen women and cold deceit. Join us as we explore the truth and legend about these notorious women of the Bible.

SEAS Annual Backpack & School Supply Drive

Our annual Backpack & School Supply Drive will assist students in need in grades K-12. If you would like to help, please donate the following new items by Sunday, August 4. Place your donations in the church gathering space or in the Parish Hall donation bin.

- Standard Size Backpacks
- Notebooks
- 3 Ring Binders
- Notebook Paper
- Folders
- Pencils
- Pens
- Erasers
- Colored Pencils
- Pencil Cases
- Crayons
- Scissors
- Glue Sticks
- Markers
- Rulers

If you would like to help fill backpacks with school supplies, please stop by the Parish Hall on Sunday, August 4, after the:

- 10:00 a.m. Mass
- 12:00 p.m. Mass

Volunteering to fill backpacks is open to anyone who wants to be a part of making a child's school year start out great! Families and children are encouraged to volunteer. Please help us ensure that every child will begin the new school year with a brand new backpack and school supplies. Thank you!

If your child needs assistance this year with a backpack and school supplies, please contact Patti McGuire at pmcguire@seaslv.org (702-804 - 8311) to sign up.

Televised Mass For the Sick & Homebound

Televised Masses for the sick and homebound will be celebrated and taped at SEAS on Thursday, August 8. Mass times are 8:30 a.m., 9:15 a.m., 10:00 a.m., 10:45 a.m., and 11:30 a.m. For those who are interested in viewing our televised Mass to the homebound or might know someone who would be comforted by this outreach, these Masses can be viewed online at www.seaslv.org and on the CW Network every Sunday morning. Check your local listings.

Knights of Columbus

The next Knights of Columbus meeting will be held Thursday, August 8 at 7:00 p.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall. If you have a calling to serve the church or those less fortunate than yourself, the Knights of Columbus are looking for a few good men to support our churches, bishops, priests, seminarians, communities and charitable causes through volunteer hours and fundraising activities. For more information, contact Grand Knight Fred Smith at info@kofc11029.org (702-983-4145) and our webpage: www.kofc11029.org.

Farmers' Market

Our next Farmers' Market will be held Saturday, August 31 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. in the church parking lot.

The line will begin at the bell tower. All food is complimentary. Please bring your own bags and helpers to carry them.

Bible Study on The Book of Exodus

The Exodus is without a doubt the foundational event of the entire Old Testament. The Book of Exodus provides a thrilling account of this event—Israel's departure (exodus) from bondage in Egypt — and their preparation to inherit the Promised Land as the Lord's covenant people.

It contains stories of enslavement and liberation, of revelation and wanderings, of belief and disbelief, as well as the 10 Commandments and general guidelines for life with God and one another in a covenant community. Join us as we explore how a powerless group of people were shaped into a privileged people through the work of a powerful and loving God. Classes will begin the week of September 9 and will be offered on Monday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and will be repeated on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall. Each participant will receive a commentary and guide. Cost: $25. All are welcome — newcomers and experienced Bible students alike! Please register in the Kairos Gift Shop. Welcome Home Ministry

Do You Know Somebody Who has Fallen Away from the Catholic Church?

Statistics show that most people who have drifted away from the Catholic Church still identify themselves as Catholics — it's engrained into their very being. Many want to return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church, but don't know where to start. Do you know somebody who has been away from the Catholic Church? Often, all it takes is a word of invitation. Invite them to explore our Welcome Home Ministry. We offer a series of sessions designed to help seekers find answers to their questions, rediscover their Catholic roots, and gently return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. Our next session will begin on September 12. For more information, contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370).

Are You an Adult (Over 19) in Need of the Sacrament of Confirmation?

There are many reasons why baptized Catholics who have received the sacrament of Holy Eucharist sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church by receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Regardless of your situation, we invite you to grow in your faith and complete your sacramental initiation into the Catholic Church. Our Welcome Home Ministry offers a 7-week series of sessions designed to accompany you through this process. For more information, contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370). Our next series is set to begin on Thursday, September 12, 2019.

What is RCIA?

Have your travels taken you near and far? Is there a deep longing within you for something more? Catholicism is a way of life and becoming a Catholic is a life long journey in faith.

If you are not Catholic and are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith...

If you were never baptized and want to explore a relationship with Christ and Christ's Church ...

If you are a baptized Catholic who never completed initiation by receiving the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation ...

If you are a Catholic who simply wants to learn more about your faith and share the journey...

...then this invitation to the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is for you. The RCIA is primarily a journey of faith. It is a process which educates in the Catholic faith and, if so desired, prepares adults to receive the sacraments of the Church. More than that, it involves entering into a relationship with the risen Christ and a community of God's people. Our RCIA begins on Tuesday, September 10 with an introductory session from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom located in the Parish Hall. This session will be repeated on Saturday, September 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. in the same location. For more information or to register, please contact Marcie Wilske (702-804-8370) at mwilske@seaslv.org or Deacon Steve (702-804-8303) at sdoucet@seaslv.org.

We have all been created to love, serve and share our gifts and talents in some work that was given to no one else. Come explore what all of this means as John takes us through Scripture, music, visuals and reflection.

5 GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.

2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.

3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.

4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.

5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
