Saint of the Week

Saint Juliana of Falconieri

Dates: 1270 - 1341

Feast Day: June 19

Juliana was the only child of a wealthy couple in Florence, Italy, who had built the church of the Annunciation there. She refused to marry and was enrolled as a tertiary with the Servite order; her uncle, St. Alexis Falconieri, was one of the seven founders of the Servites. For nearly 20 years, Juliana lived a devout and useful life at home. In 1304, she formed a community of tertiary sisters who devoted themselves to prayer and good works in Florence. She is considered the foundress of the Servite community of nuns and was canonized in 1737.

God's Time

We either pay attention to or ignore "clock time" as we play in the summer sun and note the earth's tilt and the lengthening days. We live by time. We reckon time in seconds and minutes and hours, or we use broader chunks like supertime and summertime.

God keeps another sort of time. God speaks to us of "saving time," that is, the time of salvation. This sense of time is called kairos, and this time is always now, always present and available, always revealing, often surprising.

This Sunday's readings alert us to the reality and the import of God's time. Ezekiel and the Gospel of Mark remind us that our labor and our plotting and our planning rest in God. For God takes our smallest efforts and makes of them great works. Paul points us to the "harvest" time, urges us to be watchful for its coming, and calls us to recognize that we must spend our time pleasing God.

Feast of Faith

The Preparation of the Altar

The altar is the focal point of our churches. It is a sign of Christ in our midst; indeed, it has been said that "the altar is Christ" (Dedication of an Altar, 4). The altar is a table "on which the sacrifice of the cross is perpetuated in mystery throughout the ages until Christ comes"; but it is also the place for a festive meal: "a table at which the Church's children assemble to give thanks to God and receive the body and blood of Christ" (Dedication of an Altar, 4).

Both these functions of the altar are clear in the rites for the preparation of the altar that follow the general intercessions, which remind us of the preparations we make at home for a festive meal. The deacon or altar servers come forward and, bowing, place a cloth known as a corporal (from the Latin for "body") over the altar cloth. They place the chalice, the cup to be used in the celebration of the Eucharist, and the Sacramentary or Roman Missal, which contains the prayers of the Mass, on the altar. These reverent preparations help us to focus on what is about to happen: the sharing of a holy meal, a solemn sacrifice.

Stewardship

Do we ignore them? Talk around them? Look at them and say nothing? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile and extend a warm welcome?

Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward returning parishioners and new visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome others to our parish this summer. Welcoming gestures, however small, will not only have a positive impact on fellow parishioners and visitors, they will make us more hospitable ambassadors of Christ.

—ICSC June 2021 e-Bulletin

Welcoming People Back to Mass: A Key to Good Stewardship

The COVID pandemic may not be over yet, but there are many hopeful signs we see all around us for a return to some sense of normalcy. One indicator is that more people are returning to the weekend Masses. We could see a return of parishioners and visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies as people begin to relax and travel in the summer months. The creative way we greet and provide hospitality for our guests during these times of social distancing says a lot about our practice of good stewardship.

Providing hospitality to parishioners and strangers alike is a hallmark of Christian stewardship. In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: "I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matt. 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time.

There is significant anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a person to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ.

How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass?

A Stewardship Moment

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the beginning of God's kingdom to a mustard seed. This tiny seed, which fits in the palm of a hand, can grow to fifteen feet with sprawling branches. Like the mustard seed, the Christian community had a tiny, seemingly insignificant beginning. The church, which began with about 120 followers, added three thousand people on Pentecost Day following the descent of the Holy Spirit. Since then, the number of Christ's disciples has grown incalculably and continues to grow throughout the world. Good stewards go about God's business of "planting seeds" among all those they encounter. What will we do this week to "plant seeds" and add to God's kingdom?

"It Is In Giving That We Receive"
Month of June
Recipient:
Holy Family Church

Holy Family Roman Catholic Church will be the recipient of our parish stewardship program for the month of June. The program, "It Is In Giving That We Receive," was conceived through our parish pastoral council as a way to help parishes in the Diocese of Las Vegas who have suffered substantial financial hardship due to the pandemic. Each month the recipient is gifted 2% of our weekly offertory collections for that month.

If you would like to make a donation to Holy Family Catholic Church as part of your own personal stewardship, send your donation to SEAS, 1811 Pueblo Vista Dr., LV, NV 89128. Make sure to clearly indicate that your donation is for HOLY FAMILY CHURCH. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of the month.

Father's Day Novena of Masses June 20-28

Our parish tradition is to pray for our fathers, both living and deceased, for nine Masses beginning on Father's Day, June 20. If you would like to honor your father, grandfather, or someone who has fulfilled the role of father in your life by including their name in the novena, fill out a novena envelope from the gathering space and return it in the designated collection baskets in the gathering space, or log on to the church website at www.seaslv.org and click on the Father's Day Novena tab at the bottom of the menu. On the Father's Day Novena page you can fill out and submit a form with the name(s) of the loved one(s) you would like included. You can also make a contribution to honor your loved one.

Employment Opportunity at St. Francis de Sales

St. Francis de Sales Catholic Church is looking to fill a maintenance position with the following requirements: Three years experience in property maintenance, basic knowledge in plumbing, electrical, carpentry, painting, air conditioning and heating units. Licensing in any of these areas would be excellent. This position is responsible for all routine maintenance of the entire property and reports directly to the pastor. Bilingual is a plus. Must be flexible for special parish events. If interested please call the St. Francis de Sales parish office at 702-647-3440.

Training for New Altar Servers

If you are in the 4th grade or older and would like to become an Altar Server, please attend one of these two orientations for NEW Altar Servers:

- Monday, June 14 from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
- Friday, April 18 from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Boys, girls, adults and families are all welcome. If you have questions, please contact Terry Biles at bznt@cox.net (702-672-4933).

Why Register in the Parish?

If you would like to register with the parish, we encourage you to do so at www.seaslv.org.

Registered parishioners of St. Elizabeth Ann

Seton Catholic Church rightfully look to their parish for any number of services. Among these services are:

→ Certification as sponsors at sacramental celebrations

→ Annual contribution statements

If you are unable to participate actively or unable to contribute to the support of the parish because of your age, illness or economic situation, please notify the parish office. Ministry to the homebound is available. Thank you.

Parish News

Utah Shakespeare Festival

This summer we will happily resume our annual day-trip to the Utah Shakespeare Festival in Cedar City, Utah, on Wednesday, July 21.

Pricing:

- $160 per person includes round-trip bus transportation (leaving immediately after the 8am daily Mass), a sack lunch with snacks on the bus, tickets for 2 shows and dinner at Milt's Stage Stop Steak & Seafood Restaurant in between shows. Liability forms for each guest are required.
- $140 for priests or clergy

Only 50 tickets are available. Sign up, pay and complete the liability form in the SEAS Gift Shop. Questions? Contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

The Shows:

Pirates of Penzance at 2:00 p.m. (in the Randall L. Jones Theatre) — A shipload of sentimental pirates, a gaggle of giggling maidens, and a band of bumbling policemen bring fun and sparkle to one of the most charmingly silly operettas ever to grace the stage. Frederic, our hero, is bound by duty and must abandon his new-found love, Mabel, to join the pirate trade. Alas and alack! Must he truly lose Mabel, or can he find a way out of this frivolous conundrum?

A Comedy of Errors at 8:00 p.m. (out-door Engelstad Shakespeare Theatre) — Antipholus and Dromio are bewildered. Everywhere they go they seem to have already been there, and everyone they meet seems to know all about them. The more they try to unravel the lunatic events around them, the more farcical their lives become. It's double the laughter and twice the fun in Shakespeare's youthful comedy of twins and mistaken identities.

Face masks are currently required in the Randall L. Jones Theatre. Please visit www.bard.org before the trip to check for updated Covid safety protocols.

Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Join us for an evening at the Las Vegas Ballpark to root for the Las Vegas Aviators against the El Paso Chihuahuas on Friday, July 16, at 7:05 p.m. Our SEAS group will be seated on the 3rd base party deck which is in the shade of the Red Rock Hotel.

- $45 for guests 22 and older
- $35 for guests 21 and younger

Price includes ticket to the game and all-you-can-eat buffet dinner and dessert with canned beverage and bottled water. Alcohol is NOT included in the price. Liability forms for each guest are required. Sign-up, pay and complete the liability form in the SEAS Gift Shop. Questions? Contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321).

The Aviators website currently states that face masks are required and that all guests will be asked to conduct a self-evaluation of their health status before entering the ballpark. Please visit www.milb.com/las-vegas prior to the game to check on updated Covid safety protocols.

We Need YOU For Children's Faith Formation

Would you like to take part in the great privilege of forming the hearts and minds of future generations in the Catholic faith? Our Parish Faith Formation Program relies on the dedicated and generous service of volunteers who serve as parish catechists and assistants. Each year we are in need of catechists to support the ongoing formation of our children. We provide support and education for all new catechists. If you wish to inquire about the ministry of Catechist click on the application link below or at www.seaslv.org under the Faith Formation tab - children age 3 through grade 8, and we will be in touch with you.

Fill out and submit:

2021-2022 New Catechist /Assistant Application

For more information contact our office at Faithformation@seaslv.org (702-804-8306).

The ministry of catechist is one of the oldest ministries of the Church. A "catechist" is one who teaches the principles of Christian dogma, discipline, and ethics to prepare people for participation in Christian life. The word "catechesis" means to echo or to resound, an appropriate meaning for what a catechist does in passing of the faith tradition to the children of our parish.

To be a catechist, you must:

- Be a practicing Catholic
- Be in communion with the Church
- Complete a ministry application
- Be fingerprinted and attend the Protecting God's Children Program
- Continue your own faith formation

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

Catholicism is a way of life, and becoming a Catholic is a life long journey in faith. The RCIA is primarily a journey of faith. It is a process which educates in the Catholic faith, and, if so desired, prepares adults to receive the sacraments of the Church. More than that, it involves entering into a relationship with the risen Christ and a community of God's people.

Our next RCIA sessions begin the week of September 23, 2021. For more information, please fill out the Adult Faith Formation Registration form at www.seaslv.org under the FAITH FORMATION FOR ALL AGES tab. You may also contact Helen Silva at hsilva@seaslv.org (702-804-8351).

Welcome Home: For Adults in Need of the Sacrament of Confirmation

If you know someone who has fallen away from the Catholic Church and would like to return, or if you are age 19 or older and are in need of the Sacrament of Confirmation to complete your initiation into the Catholic Church, our Welcome Home program can help. There are many reasons why baptized Catholics who have received the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church by receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. Regardless of your situation, we invite you to grow in your faith and complete your sacramental initiation into the Church. Welcome Home sessions begin the week of October 4, 2021. For more information, fill out the Adult Faith Formation Registration form at www.seaslv.org under the FAITH FORMATION FOR ALL AGES tab. You may also contact Helen Silva at hsilva@seaslv.org (702-804-8351).

We are currently taking registrations for the 2021-2022 year for Children's Faith Formation age 3 through grade 8. Register here or on our website, www.seaslv.org under the Faith Formation tab - children age 3 through grade 8. Contact our office for more information, Faithformation@seaslv.org (702-804-8306).

Living the Beatitudes

In the Sermon on the Mount found in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus presents a series of basic attitudes his followers should have in relationship to God and to one another. Join us as we "break open" these Beatitudes using movie clips, discussion, prayer and song. With the exception of the first evening class being held on Tuesday, July 6, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., all other evening classes in this 6 week study will be held on specific Mondays, and classes will be repeated on specific Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. View the complete schedule at www.seaslv.org. All sessions will be held in the St. John XXIII classroom in the parish hall. No fee ... no registration ... invite a friend and just pop in ... ALL ARE WELCOME!
