In order that we may better serve you, please register with the parish by visiting www.seaslv.org or downloading the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton App. Registration forms are also available in the gathering space of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if you need to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at home or in a hospital. For assistance after hours or on Sundays, call the answering service at 702-388-9571. A priest will be notified and will contact you directly. The Sacrament is also offered communally within the Mass. Watch the bulletin for upcoming Anointing of the Sick Masses, scheduled on a quarterly basis.

Holy Communion for the Sick

If you are homebound, please call Tom & Patti Stava at 702-586-8093 and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will visit you. In case of hospitalization, inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and would like to receive Communion.

Funeral Ministry

In the event of a death of a loved one, please contact the Funeral Ministry at 702-403-8416 BEFORE making arrangements with any of the professional services. Pre-planning is also available.

Sacrament of Baptism

Baptisms for infants and children up to 7 years of age are celebrated on Sundays either during Mass or at 1:45pm. Parents and Godparents should attend the baptism class on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall classrooms. Adults are baptized at the Easter Vigil after completing the stages of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A 6 month minimum time period is needed to complete the preparation required for the Sacrament of Matrimony. For more information, contact our Wedding Coordinator, Maureen Sisto at 702-804-8321.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends,

It's hard to believe we are already half way through the month of June. The days seem to be flying by as I prepare for my move to St. Thomas More Church in Henderson. There is much to do here at SEAS before I leave and much to plan ahead for as I learn more about my new church home. As busy as things are, I want to take the time to thank you and to wish you well.

I would like to thank those of you who already made a pledge to our Honoring our Past Embracing our Future Capital Campaign. As I write this letter, more than $700,000 has been pledged. I am overwhelmed by your generosity, but not surprised. As I have said many, many times, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish is an extremely generous community. Your commitment to our parish through the capital campaign as well as your support of our diocese through the Catholic Stewardship Appeal are to be commended. Thank you for all that you do to build up the kingdom of God here on earth. The possibilities that lie ahead for you are endless!

To all of our dads, grandfathers and godfathers, Happy Father's Day! Today we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families. If you haven't done so already, thank your father for all that he has done for you. Reconnect with your father and do not be afraid to say words such as, "I'm sorry" or "I forgive you". Whatever you do today to honor him, keep all fathers in your prayers. May the blessings of God and love of our Heavenly Father be theirs in abundance on this day and always.

This Wednesday, June 19, our parish will celebrate the 24th anniversary of the dedication of our church. Please join us at the 8:00 a.m. Mass and enjoy refreshments afterward to commemorate this special day. This time next year you will be celebrating 25 years! In honor of this milestone, various events have planned throughout the coming months building up to St. Elizabeth's Silver Anniversary! The original plan was to begin the year-long celebration this Friday, June 21 with a performance of the comedy, Bible Bingo, but the performance has been postponed in light of the whirlwind of clergy changes over the past few weeks. Keep an eye on the bulletin for details on the rescheduled date. You won't want to miss this entertaining show.

As we head into the first day of summer this Friday, I wish those of you vacationing away from home safe travels. Summertime is always a great time to reconnect with our loved ones. Enjoy the extra hours of daylight by doing the things you love with the people you love. Family is everything!

May God bless you and your family abundantly!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Bede Wevita

A Campaign for Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Capital Campaign Challenge to SEAS Parishioners

The challenge is on to have $2.25 million pledged to our Honoring our Past Embracing our Future Capital Campaign by July 1st as a send-off gift to Fr. Bede and welcoming gift to our new pastor, Fr. Jim Jankowski!

Can we do it? With $722,225 already pledged as of June 5, we are well on our way!

Thank you to the donors who have given so generously to date, and thank you to the volunteers who have worked so diligently to get us to this point.

If a campaign volunteer contacts you, please honor their request to meet with them.

If you received a pledge card inside your packet of materials, you will likely not be contacted by a campaign volunteer. Please discern your involvement in the campaign, fill out the pledge card, and return it in the envelope provided.

Thank you!

This is the Holy Trinity

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

Treasures From Our Tradition

Today's feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham's hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit.

Saint of the Week

Aloysius Gonzaga

1568 - 1591

Feast Day - June 21

Born to a noble Italian family, Aloysius served as a page in Spain and Italy. His father opposed a religious vocation, planning instead a military career for his oldest son. But Aloysius joined the Jesuits in Rome in 1585, taking his vows two years later. His health had been compromised by kidney disease, but he served in a Jesuit hospital opened in Rome when plague struck the city. He died of plague while ministering to the sick. St. Robert Bellarmine, his spiritual director, said the young Jesuit's austere religious practices and penances were so extreme that others should not follow them. Canonized in 1726, Aloysius later was declared protector of young students and patron saint of Catholic youth.

The Sacrament of the Holy Spirit

Confirmation, together with Baptism and Eucharist, form the Sacraments of Initiation that are all intimately connected. In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the baptized person is “sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit” and is strengthened for service to the Body of Christ.

The prophets of the Old Testament foretold that God’s Spirit would rest upon the Messiah to sustain his mission. Their prophecy was fulfilled when Jesus the Messiah was conceived by the Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus on the occasion of his baptism by John. Jesus’ entire mission occurred in communion with the Spirit. Before he died, Jesus promised that the Spirit would be given to the Apostles and to the entire Church. After his death, he was raised by the Father in the power of the Spirit.

The New Testament reports many manifestations of the Holy Spirit, two of which we note here.

St. John’s Gospel describes an outpouring of the Spirit on Easter night when Jesus breathed on the Apostles and said, “Receive the holy Spirit” (Jn 20:22).

St. Luke’s Acts of the Apostles gives another account of the sending of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, fifty days after the Resurrection of Christ (cf. Acts 2). Filled with the Holy Spirit, the Apostles proclaimed God’s mighty deeds. Peter preached that this coming of the Spirit fulfilled the prophecy of Joel: “In the last days . . . I will pour out a portion of my spirit / upon all flesh” (Acts 2:17; cf. Jl 3:1).

Those who believed in the Apostles’ preaching were baptized and received the Holy Spirit through the laying on of hands. The Apostles baptized believers in water and the Spirit. Then they imparted the special gift of the Spirit through the laying on of hands. “The imposition of hands is rightly recognized by the Catholic tradition as the origin of the sacrament of Confirmations, which in a certain way perpetuates the grace of Pentecost in the Church” (CCC, no. 1288, citing Pope Paul VI, Divinae Consortium Naturae, no. 659).

By the second century, Confirmation was also conferred by anointing with holy oil, which came to be called sacred Chrism. “This anointing highlights the name ‘Christian,’ which means ‘anointed’ and derives from that of Christ himself whom God ‘anointed with the Holy Spirit’” (CCC, no. 1289, citing Acts 10:38).

Supporting a Friend When She's Unexpectedly Expecting

I had been brought up to believe that life is always a gift, but it certainly didn't feel like one when I gazed in shock at a positive pregnancy test. As a mom who had my first baby in college, I know that an unexpected pregnancy can sometimes bring fear, shame, and doubt.

However, I also know that an unexpected pregnancy can bring joy, excitement, awe, gratitude, and deeper love than I knew was possible. About nine months after looking at that pregnancy test, I received the very best gift I have ever been given: my daughter, Maria.* An unexpected pregnancy might be confusing along the way, but life—though at times difficult—is ultimately beautiful.

Perhaps one of your friends has become pregnant unexpectedly. As someone who has been there, I encourage you to support her in her new journey of being a mother; it's important that she knows you are thinking of her and supporting her.

An unexpected pregnancy can send a woman into crisis mode. If your friend just found out she is pregnant, she may not be thinking clearly, and she may feel she has no control over anything at the moment. When a woman experiencing challenging circumstances confides she is pregnant, the reaction of the first person she tells tends to set the tone for her decision making.

Avoid responding with shock or alarm, and be calm and understanding. Be aware of how she is responding to you. Listen to her and let her know you love her, you are there for her, and it's going to be okay. Pay close attention to her emotional state, and act accordingly.

Depending on where she is emotionally, it may or may not be helpful to congratulate her at that time. However, it is always important to affirm that every person's life—including her child's and her own—is precious and beautiful no matter the circumstances.

Pay attention to what might make her feel most loved. One person might appreciate encouraging words, while another might feel more supported if you help with specific tasks. Don't be afraid to ask her if she needs help with anything or to make specific offers to help. For example, you might offer to help with cleaning, finding a good doctor, or running to the store to pick up the one food that won't make her feel sick. (But remember to read her cues, and make sure you're not being overbearing.) Simple things—letting her know that you care and are always ready to listen, that you are available to help her, that you are praying for her—can give hope and courage when she might otherwise feel alone.

The most important thing, though, is to pray; it is the most effective way we can help. Pray for her, for her child, and for guidance in how you can give her the best possible support.

Your support might be the only support she receives. Even if we never know how, the smallest things we do can change someone's life. You can make a difference in her life. Will you?

The Most Holy Trinity

In the face of our country's challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone.

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

Stewardship

Ten Commandments for Welcoming Visitors at Mass

Welcoming newcomers to your parish is not just the job of the pastoral staff, ushers, ministers of hospitality or greeters. It is everyone's responsibility. Here are ten things you can do to provide better hospitality in your parish.

- Cultivate the virtue of hospitality at Mass.
Many Mass attendees tend to gather into little cliques and ignore those who are not members of their particular clique. They are not really inhospitable, just heedless of the need for hospitality. Make hospitality a new habit when you go to Mass.
- Come early, leave late.
Instead of rushing to Mass to be there on time, and then rushing out at its conclusion, make time to come a little early and linger just a bit later. Make room in your busy life to greet and spend time with others at Mass.
- Go in peace to greet someone!
Seek out someone you've not met before. Shake their hand, introduce yourself, and take a few moments to welcome them to your parish home, God's house.
- Welcome everyone.
Not only do visitors need your warm welcome, regular Mass attendees also need a friendly greeting. Develop a good handshake and be enthusiastic about your parish. You are greeting others in the name of Christ.
- Help newcomers connect.
While you are getting to know visitors, introduce them to other parishioners as the opportunity presents itself. Feel free to invite visitors to sit next to you.
- Say goodbye with genuine warmth.
After Mass, bid farewell to visitors, inviting them to return next week. Introduce them to the pastor if the opportunity arises.
- Avoid parish business.
Avoid conducting parish business with others immediately before or after Mass. Focus on visitors.
- Give visitors information about the parish.
Ensure that a visitor has a bulletin and other information about the parish before they leave. If there is a social gathering after Mass, invite them.

- Be part of a greeting ministry team.
Parishes are always in need of greeters to serve regularly, and provide ongoing formation to new greeters. Help out, be a greeter. If your parish doesn't have greeters, now is a good time to start!
- Greet those who already minister in the area of hospitality.
It isn't necessary to neglect the people who are already ministers of hospitality in order to make visitors feel at home. A simple wave and a smile go a long way.

For many individuals and families alike, summer means travel. And summer travel may mean new visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies. Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship.

In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: "I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matthew 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time.

There is a lot of anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a first-time visitor to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ.

How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile, extend a warm handshake? Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome visitors to our parish this summer. Welcoming gestures, however small, will not only have a positive impact on visitors, they will make us more hospitable ambassadors of Christ.

SEAS Summer Bible Study Dates and Topics

Using video from the acclaimed A&E television series Mysteries of the Bible, our Summer Bible Study classes will cover a variety of topics. Monday classes will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall. Classes will be repeated on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. No registration, books, or cost! Just show up and join other parishioners who want to “dig deeper” into God’s Holy Word. All are welcome!

Heaven and Hell

Monday, June 17 and Wednesday, June 19

Every Sunday Catholics profess belief in “one Lord, Jesus Christ ... who will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.” From the beginning of recorded history, people all over the world have also believed in an afterlife. But what does the Bible itself tell us? We’ll explore the images and understanding of eternal punishment and eternal happiness found in Sacred Scripture.

Moses: The Great Lawgiver

Monday, July 1 and Wednesday, July 3

Born of Hebrew slaves and raised in Pharaoh’s household, Moses performed some of the Old Testament’s greatest miracles. Yet, the man who freed his people from bondage and received the 10 Commandments from God was often beset by self-doubt. Who was this complex man and reluctant prophet? We’ll explore the heroic yet human life of Moses, the great lawgiver of Israel.

Joshua and the Conquest of the Promised Land

Monday, July 15 and Wednesday, July 17

The Book of Joshua is a religious epic which tells the story of the conquest, division, and initial settlement of the Promised Land. No story could be more sacred nor more treasured in the eyes of the Israelites. And central to this story is the heroic figure of Joshua. We’ll explore this intriguing personality who is often considered the ideal leader of Israel.

The Dead Sea Scrolls

Monday, July 29 and Wednesday, July 31

Between 1947 and 1956, over 800 documents were discovered in a series of caves along the northwest shore of the Dead Sea. Known collectively as the “Dead Sea Scrolls,” they have been called the greatest discovery of biblical and non-biblical manuscripts in the Western world. We’ll explore these intriguing documents that deepen our understanding of the Bible and shed light on the histories of Judaism and Christianity.

Columbian Squires

Calling all young Catholic men age 9 to 18 who are interested in developing leadership skills and participating in community service and group activities such as sports, hiking, and camping. The Columbian Squires may be a good fit for you! We manage our own organization and volunteer in support of our church, seminarians, and other charitable causes. Our next meeting will be held Sunday, June 23 at 1:30 p.m. in the SEAS School Library. We meet every 3rd Sunday of the month. For more information, contact Don Woods (702-682-8658) at donwoods1501@gmail.com.

Knights of Columbus & Columbian Squires Fireworks Booth

Our SEAS Knights of Columbus and Columbian Squires will be selling TNT Fireworks at the Shell Gas Station located at 8601 W. Charleston Blvd., LV 89117 and at the 7-11 located at 920 N. Buffalo Dr., LV 89128 from June 28 through July 4. Proceeds will go toward various community services, seminarian support, and the SEAS Youth Group summer travel expenses. When shopping for fireworks this year, please help the Knights and Squires support these great causes! Credit cards accepted.

Volunteer and Earn Money for SEAS School

We will donate $$$ to your cause for each qualified hour that you volunteer! What does this mean for you?

If you volunteer at our Knights of Columbus TNT Fireworks Booths, for each qualified hour that you volunteer we will donate $8.00 per hour in your name to your cause! In 2018, we paid out almost $3,000! What happens to the money raised? It's solely up to your cause's administration. But if it's for "Band" it's usually given to the Band/Music Instructor; for a "Team" - to the coach; for "Tuition" - to accounting with credit to your name; for a specific "Trip" - the trip organizer with credit to your name, etc. Who can volunteer? What ages? Do I need to provide anything? What does the above "qualified" mean? Great Questions! These and many more are answered at KofC11029.org then click on Projects.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT! SPEND $100+ AND 10% WILL BE DONATED TO

Children's Faith Formation (age 3 – grade 8)

We offer formation classes for children preparing for First Eucharist, Baptism (older than age 7), Continuing Formation (after receiving the sacraments), and the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program for children ages 3 to 5 (entering kindergarten).

The 2019-2020 season starts the week of September 17.

Classes: Tuesdays and Thursdays

Times: 4:30 p.m. to 5:40 p.m.
and 6:00 p.m. to 7:10 p.m.

Requirements:

- Parents or guardians are registered members of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish or a Catholic Parish in the Las Vegas Diocese. Regular attendance at Sunday Liturgy is part of the formation process.
- Registration fee is $150.00 per child. No child will be turned away due to financial difficulty.
- Families must provide a Birth and Baptism Certificate and deposit at the time of registration. Sacrament preparation at SEAS is a family preparation process that requires the participation of the child and the parent throughout the formation years.

Sacraments:

Rite of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC)

This is a two-year process for children who were not baptized as infants, who have attained the age of reason (7 years), are of catechetical age, and who will participate in the Rite of Christian Initiation at the Easter Vigil in their second year of preparation.

First Eucharist Initiation:

The two-year preparation process to celebrate First Eucharist teaches children about the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The child and the parent will participate in retreats in their second year.

Continuing Formation:

Children in 3rd grade and higher who are baptized and have received First Eucharist will continue their formation in age appropriate classes. It is the practice of our faith that formation is ongoing and is a life-long journey.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS):

This is a hands-on, interactive working environment where children are guided toward a greater understanding of God's love in their life. They encounter Jesus the Good Shepherd, who loves them, cares for them and knows them by name. Children are most sensitive to a relationship with God between the ages of 3-6. For this reason, we provide formal faith formation for young children.

Registration packets are available on the website <http://www.seaslv.org/faithformation.html>, in the Children's Faith Formation Office, and the SEAS Kairos Gift Shop.

For more information please contact our office at Faithformation@seaslv.org

Parish News

It's time once again for our annual day trip to beautiful Cedar City for the Utah Shakespeare Festival! Tickets can be purchased in the Kairos Gift Shop and at the parish offices. Limited seating is available so get your tickets NOW! Contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org (702-804-8321) for more information.

Join us! Thursday, July 18, 2019!

- ♦ 8:30 a.m. - chartered bus departs SEAS
- ♦ 2:00 p.m. - Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (performed indoors in the Randall L. Jones Theatre)
- ♦ 5:30 p.m. - Dinner
- ♦ 8:00 p.m. - The Book of Will (performed outdoors in the Engelstad Theatre)
- ♦ 11:00 p.m. - Depart Cedar City

Cost is $175 per person and includes tickets for both shows, a bagged lunch on the chartered bus, roundtrip transportation, and dinner.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

It's bright! It's loud! It's technicolor! It's Joseph's new coat! And it sets the tone for a frolicking Biblical satire filled with vaudevillian tunes, country and western swings, calypso, and good old rock and roll.

This classic musical has been going strong for fifty years and guarantees to leave everyone in the family humming for days.

About the Shakespeare Festival

The Utah Shakespeare Festival is a Tony Award-winning, professional theatre located on the campus of Southern Utah University that presents Shakespeare and plays from other playwrights every June through October in three theatres.

What should I wear?

There is no dress code. Many choose to wear casual attire. Cedar City temperatures in July average a high of 88° and a low of 57°. Consider bringing a sweater for the air conditioned Randall L. Jones Theatre.

Where can I find festival souvenirs?

Take home lasting souvenirs of your festival experience by picking up cards, books, souvenir programs, jewelry, clothing, and many other items at the Randall Gift and Gallery in the lobby of the Randall L. Jones Theatre or in the Gift Shoppe located near the Adams Shakespearean Theatre.

The Book of Will

Without William Shakespeare, we wouldn't have the world's most memorable plays—and without his friends, we wouldn't know he wrote them. After the Bard's death, his fellow actors realize that the plays they love are being muddled and even lost; they know they need to publish a collection of his plays. Thus, they launch a seemingly impossible mission to print "the book" of his plays and save his legacy.

Las Vegas Diocesan Conference September 6-7

Friday Night Keynote Speaker

The 2019 Las Vegas Diocesan Conference is excited to present Vallimar Jansen, a composer, singer, storyteller, inspirational speaker, and evangelizer. Vallimar will draw participants deeper into God's abiding presence through her presentations. Her Friday night Keynote address, That We May Be One in Christ, will focus on how it is God's desire that we become one with the Holy Trinity, one with all humankind, and one with the Earth. Vallimar will use her unique blend of Holy Scripture, dramatic storytelling, musical prayer, and reflection to ignite the passion within us to become more "United in Christ/Unidos en Cristo!" She will also present the 11:00 a.m. Saturday morning workshop "Missionary Discipleship and the Arts" where she will again use storytelling, music, and inspirational messages to guide participants through a journey where they will meet people of Holy Scripture and the Roman Catholic Tradition.
