A Letter from Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

THIS HOLY SEASON

Lent 2020 is off and running. This holy season has its ancient origin as the more serious time period of retreat for those catechumens (unbaptized individuals) as they prepare for their full incorporation into the Body of Christ at Easter through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. Our own catechumens use these 40 days in similar preparation for the great and solemn Easter Vigil when they begin their new life in Christ and their new life among us who are already full members of the Body of Christ.

Perhaps it would be a good thing for those of us already baptized to reflect upon: "What does it really mean to be fully incorporated as a member of the Body of Christ?" If we really stop and think about it, it carries with it a serious commitment for which we will all be held accountable to God when we finally are called from this world to our Eternal Home in Heaven.

To be a member of the Body of Christ means that we accept that we are not the head. Christ is the head, and we are the members that make up his body here on earth. It's really quite an awesome privilege to be an actual member of the Body of Christ. It means that we must stay connected to Christ the head in order for us to remain alive as an active member of his body.

Staying connected to Christ is shown most clearly when we are gathered together for Mass, the ultimate sacrament of unity and the greatest prayer anyone can ever offer. Let's face it: gathered together as one body with Christ as our head is most evident in our common worship. Our full, conscious and active participation gives evidence that we know our time together is not just about me and God, but about us and God. Our unity at the Eucharistic sacrifice in prayer, posture and procedures gives evidence that personal piety is not as important as is the supreme witness of our unity as members of the Body of Christ, fully conscious that Christ is the head, not us.

How important for us to witness that unity especially to our catechumens who, after their full incorporation as members of the Body of Christ at Easter, are fully united with us and watch us very carefully to learn from us. So, maybe we can spend some time during this Lenten season to examine our own liturgical practices and see how those practices witness our unity as members of the Body of Christ gathered with Christ as our head. So, here's some questions you might want to consider this Lent:

1. Do I adequately prepare myself before coming to the Church for Mass? Or do I think that I can only prepare myself when I come to Church before Mass?
2. Do I observe the Eucharistic fast of no food or drink one hour before receiving Holy Communion?

(Remember, only water is allowed... Starbucks is more than water! Medication is the legitimate exception.)

3. Do I acknowledge the presence of Christ in my sisters and brothers gathered with me, especially in the visitors and those who may be considered the outcasts of society? Do I participate in Name Tag Sunday so as to show others how proud I am to be a member of the Body of Christ and how much I want to know the other members of the Body of Christ?
4. Do I participate in all the responses, hymns and acclamations of the Mass or just let others do it for me?
5. Am I attentive to the Word of God proclaimed? Do I really need to read along?
6. Am I united with all the members of the Body of Christ in our common postures and procedures at various points during the Mass?
7. Do I show my sign of reverence before receiving the Eucharist as a simple bow of the head as the Church instructs us? (Genuflections have never been an approved sign of reverence before receiving Holy Communion and are quite dangerous during a procession.)
8. Do I receive the Eucharist while standing as directed by the Church? (Kneeling is not an option in the Ordinary Form of the Mass, though no one is to be denied Holy Communion if they choose to depart from the norm. However, in the Extraordinary Form of the Eucharist, [i.e., the Tridentine or Latin Mass] kneeling for Holy Communion is directed while standing is not.)
9. Do I remain in the Church until after Mass is totally completed and the ministers have exited the worship space and the hymn is completed?
10. Do I show by my actions and words after leaving Mass that I have just had an intimate and sacred encounter with Christ?

My brothers and sisters, may this Lent 2020 be a time of renewed commitment as members of the Body of Christ united as one, especially at Mass. May we witness that commitment and unity to our catechumens and those candidates who will join us from another Christian denomination at Easter. And may you continue to have a Happy Lent!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Strength Against Temptation

The first Sunday of the season of Lent always includes a Gospel account of the temptation of the Lord Jesus in the desert by the devil. This year, the story is set against the backdrop of the first reading from Genesis, which recounts the very first temptation by the devil. That story is set in a garden of delight. The Gospel story is set in the desert. As believers, we know that temptation comes our way in our own gardens of delight as well as the deserts of our lives. As Lent begins, our attention is drawn to that temptation within each of us to become like God—we want control, power and answers to all of life's difficult questions. As communities of faith, we are given this season of repentance so that we can join our hearts with others on the difficult journey of conversion. We look to God and to one another for strength against temptation.

Penance and Reconciliation

Reconciled to Right Relationship, Called to Heal and Restore

The new life in Christ that begins in Baptism may be weakened or lost through sin. Sin ruptures not only our relationship with God but also with our brothers and sisters.

By the nourishing light of the Holy Spirit, we are able to prepare for the Sacrament of Penance by examining our consciences to identify those ways in which we are not in right relationship with God and with others. This examination also challenges us to recognize our own participation in the “structures of sin” that degrade others’ lives and dignity.

Through the Sacrament of Penance, God offers mercy and forgiveness. In response to this gift, we are called to become vehicles of Christ’s love, making amends and restoring justice and the bonds that have been broken. Healed and forgiven, we are sent to work for peace, justice and love in our communities and world.

Sin damages our relationship with God and neighbor.

In the Gospels, Jesus teaches that love of God and love of neighbor are intimately connected (Mt 22:38-39; Mk 12:29-31). When we sin against those in need by failing to act compassionately toward them, we ignore Christ himself (Mt 25:31-46). In the words of Pope Benedict XVI, “Closing our eyes to our neighbor also blinds us to God” (Deus Caritas Est [God Is Love], no. 16). Sin ruptures our relationship with God and also with other members of the Body of Christ (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], no. 1440). Take a moment to consider ways that you have broken any of the Ten Commandments: Are there any false “gods” (e.g., material things, pleasure, etc.) that you place above God and other people? Have you treated family members or others with disrespect? Have you lied, gossiped, cheated or stolen?

Sin is never an individual affair.

Sin damages our relationships with others and all of creation. Thus, sin is never a purely individual affair and has social dimensions (Pope Benedict XVI, Sacramentum Caritatis [Sacrament of Charity], no. 20; Pope John Paul II, Reconciliatio et Paenitentia [Reconciliation and Penance], no. 15).

Sin becomes manifest in unjust structures.

The collective actions (or failures to act) of individuals create “structures of sin,” which “grow stronger, spread and become the source of other sins” (Pope John Paul II, Sollicitudo Rei Socialis [On Social Concern], no. 36). For example, widespread poverty, discrimination, denial of basic rights and violence result from many peoples’ actions (or failures to act) because of greed, racism, selfishness or indifference (Reconciliatio et Paenitentia, nos. 2, 16). We are all called to consider how we contribute to structures of sin in our personal, economic and public choices. For example, do we take into account the treatment of workers when we make purchases? How do our consumption choices contribute to environmental degradation? Are we aware and informed? Do we take the time to educate ourselves about issues that affect the community and advocate on behalf of those who are poor and vulnerable?

We are called to examine our consciences and admit our failings.

The Sacrament of Penance challenges us to examine our hearts inwardly and then express outwardly the ways we have failed to love God and neighbor—through both personal sin and social sin.

Examining our consciences teaches us how to “look squarely at our life” to see how well we are living the Gospel (Pope Benedict XVI, Address to participants in the Course on the Internal Forum organized by the Tribunal of the Apostolic Penitentiary, March 25, 2011). Only in recognizing our failings can our hearts be converted to God so that we can receive his forgiveness and allow his grace to heal us and our relationships.

We receive God’s forgiveness and mercy.

The Sacrament of Penance allows us to receive forgiveness of sins and be reconciled with God, self, the Church family and the human family—restoring our broken communion. Through Penance, we return to right relationships (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 20).

The First Sunday of Lent

We work to repair the harm we have done.

Reconciliation absolves us of our sin, but it does not repair the damage that was caused. We must do what is possible to repair the harm. The Catechism provides these examples: return stolen goods, restore the reputation of someone slandered and pay compensation for injuries (no. 1459). We must work to repair the relationships with God and our neighbors that sin has impaired. We must also consider how we can work to transform the structures of sin that threaten human life and dignity. By making amends and working to build a more just community, we can repair the damage and also restore our own spiritual health.

The whole Church community plays a role in reconciliation.

We do not engage in the act of reconciliation alone. While the priest is the minister of the Sacrament of Penance, the whole Church community participates in the work of reconciliation (Ordo Paenitentiae). When we gather each Sunday, we call to mind our sins and intercede for one another. We hear the Word of God, which challenges us to reflect Gospel values in our lives and relationships. As the Body of Christ, we also challenge one another to live lives of holiness, justice and love. The Church is an instrument of conversion, calling all its members to love and reconciliation with God and neighbor.

We are called to be forgivers and peacemakers.

Having received the undeserved gift of forgiveness, we are called to extend the same forgiveness and mercy to others. We take up the task of being instruments of reconciliation in our communities and world, working for peace, justice and love.

Questions for Reflection

Take a moment to reflect on how sin has damaged your relationship with others.

- What false “gods” do I place above God and people?
- After leaving Mass, do I continue to glorify God by the actions in my life?
- How have I failed to love others in my family, workplace or community?
- Do I hold any views that are prejudiced or biased or that perpetuate stereotypes?
- Have I responded to the needs of the poor and those whose rights are unfulfilled?
- Do my personal, economic and public choices reflect a genuine concern for others and the common good?
- Have I stood up to protect the dignity of others when it is being threatened?
- Am I aware of problems facing my local community and involved in efforts to find solutions?
- Do my purchasing choices take into account the well-being of those producing what I buy?
- How do I protect and care for God's creation?
- Are there ways I could reduce consumption?

Stewardship

Be a Good Steward of the Lenten Season

The Lenten season prepares us for the celebration of Easter. It is a time for Christians to embrace prayer, fasting and almsgiving in a more concerted way. For some it is a time of healing, an opportunity to repair their spiritual brokenness. For others it is simply a good time to cultivate their spiritual lives in a more disciplined manner. The goal of Lenten practices: to prepare ourselves to enter into the paschal mystery of Holy Week with a more humble spirit and determination to follow Jesus Christ. This ancient triad of prayer, fasting and almsgiving offers wonderful spiritual benefits. Being a good steward of these gifts by planning ahead and following through is essential to having a fruitful Lenten experience.

Prayer: What greater gift could we give ourselves during Lent than the gift of prayer? The fruits of developing a disciplined time of prayer are bountiful. Make plans for a prayer time each day. Do not wait until you “find time” but make a time of prayer your priority. This will involve sacrifice on your part – perhaps giving up some television viewing time, using part of your lunch hour or getting up in the morning earlier than usual. Along the way, spend some time in extra prayer with the community: a weekday Mass, Stations of the Cross — whatever you decide, resolve to spend more time with the Lord.

Fasting: Christian stewards understand that all they receive, including the bountiful food and drink that is often taken for granted, ultimately comes from the Lord. By denying ourselves food for a time, we are reminded in physical and emotional ways of the Lord's generosity. As we fast, thoughtlessness is replaced by gratitude and mindfulness of the needs of others. The ancient practice of fasting also conditions us for greater spiritual practices. Incorporate some aspect of fasting from food or drink into your Lenten practice, something in addition to the sacrifices we make on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent.

Almsgiving: This spiritual discipline heightens our sense of generosity. Just as an increase in prayer and fasting leads us to be more grateful for the gifts we've received and promotes a greater awareness of others, almsgiving helps us to reach out to others in gratitude. Just as we don't “squeeze in” time to pray during Lent, we also don't scrutinize our checkbook when being generous with others. Again, make a plan and let a meaningful sense of sacrifice be your guide.

Saint of the Week

Saint Casimir

Dates: 1458 - 1484

Feast Day: March 4

Born in Krakow, Casimir was the son of Caimir IV, king of Poland and grand duke of Lithuannia, and Elizabeth of Austria. From a young age, he was concerned with the integrity and justice of his father's rule. He worked to ensure the fair treatment and aid of the poor and less fortunate. He was called the Patron of the Poor because of his love for others and charitable works. Casimir was known to be a humble and approachable man, traits that were not always synonymous with rulers at the time. Known for his refusal to take up arms, personal piety, generosity to the poor and devotion to the Blessed Mother, he rejected the idea of marrying in favor of voluntary chastity. During a visit to Lithuania, he fell ill, died from tuberculosis at the age of 25 and was buried in the cathedral in Vilnius. Canonized in 1521, he is the patron of Poland and Lithuania.

♦ Water, Light and Life

a congregational meditation based on the Gospels of the scrutinies

Friday: March 13 at 7:00 p.m.

Three of the most important stories in the Gospels serve as a basis for the scrutinies – a final process for candidates preparing for initiation into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. The readings, all from the Gospel of John, are the woman at the well, the healing of a blind man, and the raising of Lazarus from the dead. We will encounter the love and mercy of Christ in a powerful way as we spend time reflecting on these readings with music to emphasize their significance.

♦ Living Stations of the Cross

featuring our youth group and our children's choir

Friday: April 3 at 7:00 p.m.

The Stations of the Cross come alive as our young people portray the emotion felt at each station along the journey of the Cross. Music will be added by the Celestial Voices Choir to make this a truly memorable evening of prayer and reflection.

Welcome Home: Returning to the Sacramental Life of the Catholic Church

There are many reasons why we Catholics sometimes take an extended leave-of-absence from our relationship with the Lord through the Catholic Church. There are also many reasons why baptized Catholics sometimes do not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church. If you are looking to "re-engage" with your faith or are an adult wishing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, let us know. Our parish community offers you a safe place to be listened to, a place to ask questions, a place for healing, a place to update your faith as an adult and a place to help you return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. The next 9-week Welcome Home series begins March 5 with classes held on Thursday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the PP VI classroom in the Parish Hall. For more information, contact SEAS Pastoral Associate Marcie Wilske (702-804-8370) at mwilske@seaslv.org.

Are you giving your heart and soul to your marriage? Sometimes the distance between a husband and a wife can seem so wide that it cannot be repaired. For more information about our upcoming March 27-29 Retrouvaille Weekend program, contact registration team Josh & Alma at retrouvaillelasvegas@gmail.com (702-812-8873) or visit HelpOurMarriage.com.
