Anointing of the Sick

Call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if you need to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at home or in a hospital. For assistance after hours or on Sundays, call the answering service at 702-388-9571. A priest will be notified and will contact you directly. The Sacrament is also offered communally within the Mass. Watch the bulletin for upcoming Anointing of the Sick Masses, scheduled on a quarterly basis.

Holy Communion for the Sick

If you are homebound, please call Tom & Patti Stava at 702-586-8093 and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will visit you. In case of hospitalization, inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and would like to receive Communion.

Funeral Ministry

In the event of a death of a loved one, please contact the Funeral Ministry at 702-403-8416 BEFORE making arrangements with any of the professional services. Pre-planning is also available.

Sacrament of Baptism

Baptisms for infants and children up to 7 years of age are celebrated on Sundays either during Mass or at 1:45pm. Parents and Godparents should attend the baptism class on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall classrooms. Adults are baptized at the Easter Vigil after completing the stages of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A 6 month minimum time period is needed to complete the preparation required for the Sacrament of Matrimony. For more information, contact our Wedding Coordinator, Maureen Sisto at 702-804-8321.

A Letter from the Bishop

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE of LAS VEGAS

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On March 6th, our Diocese will take up the Annual Ash Wednesday Collection benefiting Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada.

Our faith calls us to place a special focus on prayer, fasting and almsgiving throughout the Lenten season. Through our stewardship, we are able to put the Corporal Works of Mercy into practice by supporting Catholic Charities' efforts to provide food, shelter and comprehensive services to each and every person created in the image and likeness of God.

To feed the hungry:

One in six seniors in Southern Nevada struggles with hunger. Catholic Charities' Meals on Wheels serves more than 2,100 isolated seniors daily. The St. Vincent Lied Dining Facility serves a free meal every day of the year to over 700 hungry men, women, and children. The Hands of Hope Community Food Pantry provides supplemental groceries to over 4,800 needy families each month.

To shelter the homeless:

Many of the hundreds of homeless individuals given shelter at Catholic Charities each day and night are dealing with mental health and/or addiction problems. Your donations provide the necessary funds to hire much needed case managers who provide one-on-one assistance to help over 200 men successfully transition from being homeless to becoming self-sufficient.

Whether people are struggling in poverty, homelessness, being homebound, or with adjusting to life as a refugee, your almsgiving makes it possible for Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada to provide help and hope to more than 4,200 men, women, and children every day.

Please be generous and prayerfully consider how you can support this collection.

Treasures From Our Tradition

Many Catholics who are not active in the Church will still seek out ashes this Wednesday. Likewise, many Jews who are not otherwise observant will follow the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, with great exactness, fasting and refraining from work and entertainment. People customarily dress in white as a symbol of purity and a reminder of God's promise that our sins will be made white as snow. While the overture to Ash Wednesday for Christians may be a festive Mardi Gras celebration, for Jews it is the New Year feast of Rosh Hashanah. Ten days before the Day of Atonement to God, people are expected to repair breaks in human life. These are days for offering forgiveness and seeking to repair harmed relationships with family, friends, or coworkers. Everyone is expected to seek out someone and "clear the air" by asking for understanding for any mean words or thoughtless deeds in the past year.

Perhaps the ashes you receive will be invested with deeper meaning if you follow a similar plan. This year, Rosh Hashanah will be September 29, and Yom Kippur October 8. A conversation with some Jewish friends or neighbors about their experience of a season of repentance may be a blessing on your Lent.

The Inside Shows

In this third Sunday of our reading from the Sermon on the Plain, Jesus speaks of the inner soul and its outer expression. He uses images as he teaches. He addresses all of us.

Jesus sees a plumb line connecting the soul with the soul's expression—words and actions. He uses exaggeration to drive home his point. We are urged to clear out the debris that blinds us. He knows that we have an uncanny ability to be blind to our own weaknesses, though they be as big as a board. He knows, too, how willingly we seem to ferret out others' smallest speck-like flaws.

And this, too, is for our general consumption; solid old goodness and solid old badness will show eventually. The old Latin saying, which echoes Jesus' images, is true: "What is bred in the bone will out in the flesh." By and by, the inside will show through.

The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Rite of Election

How strange this title sounds to us! While many of us would probably agree that our national, state and local elections are rituals of a special breed, we hardly expect to find a "rite of election" in church. But long before any of our ancestors thought of electing their leaders, God was electing a people, selecting Israel, a rag-tag clan in a tiny corner of the earth, to be special, holy, a chosen people. God did not choose them because they were noteworthy in any way; they were not powerful, strong or particularly clever. But once they were chosen, they were God's forever. Even when they strayed, looking to other gods for hope or help, God clung to them fiercely, calling them back again and again when anyone else would have gladly let them go.

It is the same with us. God chooses us, elects us, in Christ, to be a holy people, to be a church, to be signs of the reign of God on earth. The catechumens who have been preparing for baptism and those who have been working with them for months and years believe that God has chosen them to be one of us, the baptized. At the Rite of Election, their godparents, sponsors, catechists, pastors and friends will testify before the bishop, or his delegate, that God has chosen these people. They will offer the evidence of their lives among us, hearing and following God's word, praying with God's people and taking part in the work and the communal life of God's church. After listening to his testimony, the bishop will declare that they are elected for baptism, chosen to be God's own in Christ Jesus—not because they earned it, but because God wants it. And that is election by a landslide! —Copyright © 1997 Archdiocese of Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, 1800 North Hermitage Avenue, Chicago IL 60622-1101; 1-800-933-1800. Text by Victoria M. The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Catechetical Corner

Six Ways to Evangelize During Lent

Ash Wednesday

1. What's with that dirt on your head?

Who hasn't gotten that question on Ash Wednesday before? Do you feel silly when people ask you about your ashes? And is it hard to answer their questions? Having ashes on your forehead isn't just some weird Catholic thing: it's a tradition that finds its roots in the Old Testament. "I turned to the Lord God, to seek help, in prayer and petition, with fasting, sack-cloth, and ashes" (Daniel 9:3). When the ashes are placed on our foreheads in the sign of the Cross, it is a reminder of several things. First, it is a call to repentance: a physical sign that we are sinners in need of forgiveness, which is how the prophets used it in the Old Testament. Second, it is to remind us that God created us from the earth and when we die, we will return to it. But here's the best part: As Pope Benedict XVI has said, "Man is dust and to dust he shall return, but dust is precious in God's eyes because God created man, destining him to immortality." God so loves us that, even when our bodies return to the dust, our souls are meant to live forever with him. The ashes symbolize all of this. Not so silly anymore, is it?

Abstinence

2. So why aren't you eating pepperoni pizza on Friday?

You love pepperoni pizza. You eat it all the time. Suddenly, you can't have it on Fridays?! What could possibly be going on? It must be that Catholic thing, again. Absolutely! On Fridays during Lent, we particularly remember the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. In memory of this great sacrifice, we continue the tradition of penance and sacrifice—abstaining from meat on Fridays is an outward manifestation of an interior reality: the conversion of our hearts. As Pope John Paul II has said, "In fact, the external aspects of fasting, though important, do not convey the full measure of the practice. Joined to the practice should be a sincere desire for inner purification, readiness to obey the divine will and thoughtful solidarity with our brothers and sisters, especially the very poor." Christ himself fasted and prayed in the desert. Through fasting and praying, we unite ourselves with the sacrifice of Christ and offer him reparation for our sins and failings. It's a little thing to give him in the face of his ultimate sacrifice, but what a grace that our God accepts and loves little gifts!

Fasting

3. So why exactly are you not eating candy for the next month?

This is a very popular penance during Lent, and the questions about it are just as popular. Heaven forbid you should avoid the cake at the birthday party! You LOVE cake! But it's Lent—a time for penance and sacrifice. Christ has said, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23). Giving up something we enjoy strengthens our love for Christ and our resilience against temptation. As Pope Benedict XVI said in his Lenten address of 2009, "Through fasting and praying, we allow [Christ] to come and satisfy the deepest hunger that we experience in the depths of our being: the hunger and thirst for God." It unites us with Christ's own sacrifices and gives us a deeper appreciation of the blessings in our lives.

Conversion

4. I don't get it — All you do is give up candy?

Now, here is an interesting question. External sacrifices are the most obvious kind, so sometimes it does look like all we do is avoid chocolate. However, if you look closer, you'll realize that fasting and abstinence have always gone hand in hand with two of their best friends: prayer and almsgiving.

The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

External sacrifice is a manifestation of interior conversion: "...interior conversion urges expression in visible signs, gestures and works of penance" (CCC no. 1430). Interior conversion is where prayer and almsgiving come into play. In almsgiving, we show mercy and generosity to others, giving them a chance to experience the blessings we have. In prayer, we are communicating with God, asking him to bless and perfect our fasting and almsgiving: "... prayer is the living relationship of the children of God with their Father who is good beyond measure, with his Son Jesus Christ and with the Holy Spirit" (CCC no. 2565). It's not just avoiding sweets. It's glorifying God by growing in his Love.

Symbolism

5. Why are you carrying around tree branches (on Palm Sunday)?

Sometimes, one of the hardest things to explain as a Catholic is our attachment to symbolism. Palm Sunday is a great example of that. We come home from Mass holding palm branches, and we tuck them behind a crucifix or next to the picture of the Last Supper. To anyone who does not know our faith, it looks as though we stuck a few weeds on the wall... imagine their questions! The truth behind this tradition, however, goes to the story of Palm Sunday, when the people heard that Christ was coming and "they took out palm branches and went out to meet him, and cried out 'Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, [even] the king of Israel.'" (John 12:13). It was a tradition to spread palms before a king as he processed into his city. It was a way to welcome him, to show him glory and homage. Thus, Christ, the true King, was welcomed into Jerusalem. This fulfilled the prophecy in the Old Testament, which declared, "Behold: your king is coming to you, a just savior is he, humble and riding on a donkey." (Zech. 9:9) It revealed that Christ was a great king, but also a humble king. The people greeted him with wild joy and cheers of Hosanna. But one short week later, they crucified him. We celebrate this feast and carry palm branches home with us to commemorate the great humility of Our Lord, who loved us so much that he chose the cross for our salvation.

The Journey to the Cross

6. Baseball opener on Friday?

In some years, Good Friday occurs on the same day major league baseball teams have their "opening day" celebrations with games usually starting at 3:05 p.m. While everyone else is heading to the stands, eager for hot dogs and home runs, all those Catholics are walking quietly towards churches. Why?? Because at three o'clock on a Friday, on a hillside called Calvary, the Savior of the world took his last breath. All for love of us. "It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last." (Luke 23:44-46) At 3:00 p.m. on Good Friday, we take the time to reflect on what Christ has done for us, not only by fasting, but also by the various devotions that our churches offer: veneration of the cross, the reading of the Passion and the Stations of the Cross. On Good Friday, we spend our afternoon walking with Christ to Calvary, immersed in his love and mercy... and that beats any baseball game, any time.

2019 Catholic Stewardship Appeal

*In Your light
we see light.*

Psalm 36:10

In this year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA), we are reminded of our call to reflect the light of Christ. The ministries the campaign funds allow us to reflect Christ's light in many ways...

Vocations and Education and Care of Priests (51% of the total CSA budget)

We see the light of Christ shine on those who are studying and discerning the call to become priests. This journey takes at least four years after completing a BA in college. In supporting CSA, you give 28 cents of every dollar to promote vocations and pay for seminary formation.

As those who are priests continue in ministry, the need to help with ongoing education as well as the need to assist with the funding of diocesan priests' pensions is another way in which the light of Christ shines through our stewardship. In supporting

CSA, you give 23 cents of every dollar to assist in the ongoing education of our priests and helping to fund retirement in their old age.

Faith Formation (18% of the total CSA budget)

In Faith Formation, Youth Ministry and Hispanic Catechesis the light of Christ is shown through the training and empowerment of religious education leaders throughout the diocese in both the English and Spanish languages. This includes leaders who serve all ages, from the very young, to those in youth ministry through adult faith formation. Eighteen cents of every dollar you give to CSA allows the light of Christ to shine through these efforts.

Campus Ministry at UNLV (10% of total CSA Budget)

Bringing the light of Christ to those who are involved at UNLV is a way in which the lives of those who are continuing higher education are served by the Catholic Church with campus ministry.

Pastoral Outreach (15% of the CSA Budget)

There are a host of programs that seek to bring the light of Christ into our community. Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada and the St. Therese Center provide direct service to the poor and needy; our Social Ministry brings to light Catholic teachings and opportunities for advocacy; Victim Assistance brings resources for healing to those who have been abused; the televised Catholic Mass on Sunday mornings brings the presence of the church and the light of the Gospel to those who are sick or homebound; our diocesan website serves the local community as well as tourists who visit the Las Vegas valley by connecting them to the activity of our local church.

Leadership and oversight of Catholic Education (6% of the CSA Budget)

In our Catholic schools, the Department of Catholic Education helps to ensure high standards are met in the education of students in this system. Six cents of every dollar you give to CSA helps the light of Christ to shine in our schools.

2019 Catholic Stewardship Appeal

The overall goal of CSA for 2019 remains at $2,700,000. Each parish shares in the goal, and once the individual parish goal has been reached 100% of the funds beyond that goal are rebated back to the parish. Please join us as a local church in realizing "In Your light we see light," by helping to fund these ways in which the light of Christ is shared.

Thank you for your generosity. You enable care for and ministry to people all over the Diocese of Las Vegas.

SEAS 3-Day Lenten Mission

March 11, 12 and 13

9:00 a.m. and repeated nightly at 7:00 in the church

Light refreshments will be served.

Freewill offering appreciated.

All are welcome!

Patient. Persistent. Pardoning. Who God Is. How God Loves.

The Scriptures of the Lenten season invite us to encounter God in a powerful way. Time and again, Jesus reveals the truth of who God is and how God loves. In these presentations, guest presenter Fr. Michael Renninger, who led our 2017 Lenten Mission and is back by popular demand, will focus on the Gospel readings for the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent, exploring how these powerful texts can help us to experience God's patient, persistent and pardoning love on a daily basis.

Born and raised in Pennsylvania, Fr. Renninger studied piano, voice, and guitar while in high school. He attended Ursinus College (PA), where he received degrees in philosophy and music history. In 1985, he began priestly formation as a member of the Norbertine Order at Daylesford Abbey (Paoli, PA). He later attended The Catholic University of America, where he received graduate degrees in theology and liturgy. He was ordained as priest for the Diocese of Richmond in 1993 and has served as Vicar for Vocations and Rector of the Cathedral. He currently serves as pastor of St. Mary's Church in Richmond, and travels throughout the U.S. giving presentations on spirituality, liturgy, music, and sacramental theology. Fr. Mike enjoys jogging, Oreo cookies, and Elvis. He is considered one of the top inspirational speakers in the country, and is one of the speakers at the Festival of Homilistics.

Help Save Lives in Las Vegas

Kick-off Rally:
Sunday, March 3 at 2:00 p.m.
First Choice Pregnancy Services
860 E. Sahara Ave. LV, 89104.

You can protect mothers and children by joining this worldwide mobilization to pray and fast for an end to abortion! Through prayer and fasting, peaceful vigils and community outreach, 40 Days for Life has inspired 750,000 volunteers!

With God's help, here are the proven results from 6,020 coordinated campaigns since 2007, in over 816 cities and 56 nations:

- 15,256 babies saved from abortion
- 186 abortion workers converted
- 99 abortion centers closed

Here's how to take part in 40 Days for Life in our community:

- Vigil location: Outside Birth Control Care Center, 872 E. Sahara (behind Tower of Jewels)
- Vigil hours: 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. daily.

Studying the Book of Genesis

Genesis contains some of our most familiar and enchanting biblical stories: creation, Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel, Noah, etc. Through these stories we see the spread of sin in the world that leads to a divine plan of salvation God initiates in the call of Abraham and the Patriarchs of Israel. Join us on this exciting journey as we glimpse the love of our God who calls us out of nothingness to be a special, chosen people! Invite a friend – all are welcome! Classes for this 11-session series begin March 4 and will be offered Mondays from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and repeated Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. in the Parish Hall classrooms. Each participant receives a commentary and study guide. Cost: $25. Questions? Contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370).

Adult Confirmation

Are you a baptized Catholic who has received the sacrament of Eucharist/Communion but not Confirmation? If so, we are here to help you complete your initiation into the Catholic Church. Our 7-session Welcome Home program is also designed to prepare adult Catholics to receive the sacrament of Confirmation. These sessions are offered Thursdays from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall classrooms. Our next group is set to begin on March 7. If interested, contact Marcie Wilske (702-804-8370) at mwilske@seaslv.org.

Baptism Prep Class

The next Baptism Preparation Class will be held Tuesday, March 5 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall. Parents and Godparents requesting the sacrament for infants and children up to 7 years old should attend. For more information, contact Marcie Wilske (702-804-8370) at mwilske@seaslv.org.

The Next Welcome Home Series Begins March 7

Do you know somebody who has been away from the Catholic Church? Often, all it takes is a word of invitation for them to take the first step in returning. Invite them to explore our Welcome Home Ministry. We offer a series of sessions designed to help seekers find answers to their questions, rediscover their Catholic roots, and gently return to the sacramental life of the Catholic Church. Our next 7-session series begins March 7 with classes on Thursday nights from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall classrooms. Please contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370) for more information.

GREAT REASONS to Patronize the Merchants in Our Church Bulletin!

1. They support the work of our church.

2. It keeps money in our community. For every $100 spent at a locally owned business, $68 goes back into the community and your tax base. For every $100 spent at a chain store, only $43 comes back. Online purchases bring nothing back to our local community.

3. Keeps our community unique. Where we shop, where we eat and have fun—all of it makes our community home. Our one-of-a-kind businesses are an integral part of the distinctive character of our community.

4. Creates more good jobs. Small local businesses are the largest employer nationally and in our community.

5. Get better service. Local businesses often hire people with a better understanding of the products they are selling and take more time to get to know customers.
