Anointing of the Sick

Call the parish office at 702-228-8311 if you need to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at home or in a hospital. For assistance after hours or on Sundays, call the answering service at 702-388-9571. A priest will be notified and will contact you directly. The Sacrament is also offered communally within the Mass. Watch the bulletin for upcoming Anointing of the Sick Masses, scheduled on a quarterly basis.

Holy Communion for the Sick

If you are homebound, please call Tom & Patti Stava at 702-586-8093 and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will visit you. In case of hospitalization, inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and would like to receive Communion.

Funeral Ministry

In the event of a death of a loved one, please contact the Funeral Ministry at 702-403-8416 BEFORE making arrangements with any of the professional services. Pre-planning is also available.

Sacrament of Baptism

Baptisms for infants and children up to 7 years of age are celebrated on Sundays either during Mass or at 1:45pm. Parents and Godparents should attend the baptism class on the first Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall classrooms. Adults are baptized at the Easter Vigil after completing the stages of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Sacrament of Matrimony

A 6 month minimum time period is needed to complete the preparation required for the Sacrament of Matrimony. For more information, contact our Wedding Coordinator, Maureen Sisto at 702-804-8321.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Friends,

On Thursday, May 23, thirty-nine students from the SEAS School 8th grade class received their diplomas and turned their tassels during the 8th Grade Graduation Mass with Bishop Pepe. Many of these children have been students at our school since kindergarten. We are very proud of all they have achieved over the years. We congratulate them and wish them well as they continue their education. I would also like to congratulate all of the high school and college students who will graduate this spring. I hope your hard work and attention to your studies have served you well, and that you will have happiness and great success in your future endeavors.

Monday, May 27 is Memorial Day. Please note that daily Mass will be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. and the parish offices, gift shop, and chapel will be closed in observance of the holiday. As we spend time with our loved ones over this long weekend, enjoying warm weather and cookouts, please remember the men and women who died while serving in the U.S. Military. We owe them a debt of gratitude.

A Memorial Mass for those who lost their lives in the Easter Sunday bombings in Sri Lanka will be celebrated this Thursday, May 30 at 6:30 p.m. at our parish. Please join us in praying for those who died and their families, those who were injured, and also for peace in Sri Lanka.

Beginning this week through July 26, the parish offices and the Kairos Gift Shop will close at noon on Fridays. Other summer hours for our parish are published on page 18. Please make a note of the adjusted hours.

Over the next couple of months, many of us will be taking family trips and summer vacations. If you plan on traveling this summer, make sure to keep holy the Sabbath. Celebrate Mass wherever you go and stay nourished in the Word and in the Body and Blood of Christ.

And please remember to stay faithful to your weekly offertory giving to SEAS throughout the summer months. Although people take vacations, our church does not. Our parish will be busy with

Sixth Sunday of Easter

The Gift of Peace

"There arose no little dissension and debate." Did that happen at work this week? Most of us can recall run-ins with coworkers, even with the boss. Did it happen while socializing with friends? Go easy on politics, religion . . . even sports. At home? Even the most peaceful household experiences a little "give and take" now and then. So where was it that "there arose no little dissension and debate"? That tumultuous conflict occurred among our first Christian ancestors, disrupting the community life of the early Church. But today's Acts of the Apostles shows how beautifully the Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus in today's Gospel, helped the Church achieve a grace-filled resolution. What evolved was that "reconciled diversity," often encouraged by Pope Francis and even envisioned in today's Revelation passage; and a wondrous experience of Jesus' promised Gospel gift: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."

Treasures From Our Tradition

Why is it still Easter? The lilies have long since faded. The roots of our tradition of fifty days of rejoicing from Easter to Pentecost lie in the seven-day rhythm of the Jewish week, drawn from the six days of creation plus a Sabbath day. A favorite name for the Lord's Day among our ancestors in the faith was "The Eighth Day," meaning that in Christ a breakthrough to a new humanity was achieved. With that inner architecture, it makes sense to see Pentecost as a week of weeks, forty-nine days plus one, again signaling that a new age has begun in Christ and the outpouring of his Spirit. The Jewish appreciation for Pentecost gave rise to the Jubilee year, the fiftieth year, when debts were released and prisoners set free. Today, the character of our Easter Sundays is conveyed by joyful Alleluias and the rite of sprinkling at Mass. Long ago, people expressed this joy by suspending all rules of fasting and by never kneeling at liturgy.

These customs all point to our conviction that time is holy. There is an elegant balance to the Christian year: forty days of Lenten fast and discipline give way to fifty days of unrestrained rejoicing. That's why it is still Easter!

Father's Day Novena June 16-24

Our parish tradition is to pray for our fathers, both living and deceased, for nine Masses beginning on Father's Day. If you would like to honor your father, grandfather, or someone who has fulfilled the role of father in your life by including their name in the novena, fill out a novena offering envelope from the gathering space and return it to the collection basket or to the Kairos Gift Shop before June 16. The beautiful card is yours to keep.

Augustine of Canterbury

Died c. 604

Feast Day—May 27

This monk was prior of a monastery in Rome until 596, when Pope St. Gregory the Great sent him and 30 other monks to evangelize England. They landed in Kent where they got permission to preach because the king's wife had been a Christian before her marriage. Augustine's preaching won over King Ethelbert, who became a Christian and gave the monks a house and church in Canterbury. Augustine built England's first cathedral there; from this see missionaries and bishops were sent around England. He is known as "the apostle of England."

"No pilgrim knows in advance all the steps along the path. Saint Augustine of Canterbury set out from Rome with his band of monks for what was then a distant corner of the world. . . While we ourselves do not see a solution to this obstacle, we are confident that through our engagement with this matter our conversations will in fact help to deepen and enlarge our understanding. We have this confidence because Christ promised that the Holy Spirit, who is the Spirit of Truth, will remain with us forever (Cfr. Io. 14, 16-17)." —St. John Paul II, Common Declaration, October 1989

Living The Faith

Quo Vadis: Where Are You Going?

Why are you getting married? Why are you choosing to get married in the Church?

Let's face it, when you are twenty-something, in love, planning your wedding and honeymoon, etc...these may not be the first thoughts going through your mind. (But, note well: they could be the first questions the priest or marriage preparation couple asks you, though!) However, at some point before your wedding day, there will be a moment when you ask yourself, "why am I marrying this person?" You might even pause to think about those vows you will take: I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honor you all the days of my life. That's pretty serious...in today's society, it borders on the incredible.

Thinking back to those days when we were young, how we fell in love and wanted to spend every day of our lives together, we quickly came to realize that although these desires may have drawn us together, we didn't really know just how much we would grow to love each other over time. And, as is the reality of being a military family, we wouldn't spend every day together; actually, there would be many separations. To quote a classic Boston song, love and marriage is "More Than a Feeling." To love in marriage often takes effort, energy, and self-giving. It means that when marriage may not feel euphoric, we still need to make the choice to love. We have promised to help our beloved to heaven. That is our primary goal.

There are many ways of doing this: some are positive actions such as praying for your spouse; performing small acts of love—a note, flowers, a hug; sacrificing for each other in dozens of small and large ways; holding back that sharp comment when you are angry and instead keeping quiet or providing charitable feedback; doing what the other wants to do rather than what you want; letting go of selfishness and resentment.

On the other hand, there are fewer desirable ways of achieving the same goal such as being selfish, chiding your spouse, or harshly criticizing them. Even these actions on your part help the other get to heaven, but in a roundabout way...by providing opportunities of virtue for your spouse! As St Josemaria Escriva notes in The Way [173]: "Don't say, 'That person bothers me.' Think: 'That person sanctifies me.'" That may be one way to help your spouse get to heaven, but not the best or loving way.

The goal of our marriage or its success cannot be measured by the house we live in, the cars we drive, or where we vacation. Our main goal should be to help each other on our path to heaven, to holiness. We've been blessed to hear several inspiring (and challenging!) wedding homilies on this topic over the last few years. They beautifully reminded us that marriage is not just for mutual benefit or comfort; that each spouse has to put the other first, sacrifice for the other, and be a living example for those around us.

After thirty years of helping each other on the way to holiness, there isn't anyone else either of us would want on the journey. No one else with whom to share joy—the celebration of graduations, weddings, births, sacraments; and with whom to share sorrow—the bad health diagnosis, surgery, the late night call from a child in need, or tears when your baby leaves for college.

There are many ways to help each other but the following are just a few things that we have learned to do—and try to keep doing—in order to help each other on the path to holiness:

- Pray together every day and pray for each other. Even when we are apart due to travel or other reasons, we still know we are praying similar prayers and for each other.
- Don't talk bad about each other to other people. It doesn't help your marriage to do so and it doesn't help resolve the issues you are complaining about.
- Laugh a lot at yourselves and with each other at the numerous "inside jokes" you'll live and experience. Laughing at our own faults or tendencies is a good exercise in humility and a reminder to not always judge the other. There are dozens of phrases or little things that only the two of us know about that we laugh at, and sharing them reminds us of the countless reasons we love each other and are grateful to the Lord for bringing us together.

Where are you going? Where are you leading your spouse? Keep the faith on the way there.

Fact of Faith

The Madonna

One of the most common themes in Western art is that of the Madonna and Child—a serene painting of the Blessed Virgin Mary, holding the child Jesus in her arms. But this image, so familiar that it has appeared on US Postal Service Christmas stamps nearly every year since 1966, was not always a staple of Christian art.

For most of the first three centuries of Christianity, the Blessed Virgin was usually depicted as part of a group of apostles, or as part of a Nativity scene;

she was almost never alone or a central figure. But in the fifth century, the Council of Ephesus addressed the Nestorian heresy, which claimed that, when Christ died on the Cross, it was only his human nature that experienced suffering and death. By extension, the Nestorians claimed that Mary was the mother only of Christ's human nature and not the Mother of God. The Council of Ephesus reinforced the Church's long-held belief that Mary was the Mother of God and worthy of the Greek title "Theotokos." Shortly thereafter, the Empress Eudocia sent a painting of the Madonna and Child home from the Holy Land and had it placed in the Church of Constantinople. This is the first historical mention of the Madonna and Child as an artistic subject. That painting was taken to Venice in 1202, to the Cathedral of St. Mark.

In subsequent centuries, the Madonna and Child has become one of the most popular themes in Western art. This popularity reflects the Church's veneration of Mary for her role in our salvation and also for her place as an exemplar of the virtues of purity, humility, and faithful acceptance of God's grace.

Capital Campaign Update

HONORING
EMBRACING
our FUTURE

A Campaign for Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Dear Friends,

Our Honoring our Past Embracing our Future campaign is now underway, and the generosity of our St. Elizabeth Ann Seton community is clearly apparent. To date, our campaign has already raised $232,560 toward this critical effort to help sustain our church and school, address deferred maintenance, and enhance our worship space.

I would like to express my thanks to the volunteers who have worked so diligently to get us to this point. I would also like to thank the donors who have given so generously in the early stages of our campaign. While there is much to celebrate, there is also much work to be done.

In the coming weeks, volunteers will be reaching out individually to members of our parish. I ask that you please keep in mind the following:

Volunteers Contacting Families

The volunteers who are contacting some families are just that—volunteers. They have graciously agreed to donate their time and talent for the betterment of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church. They are serving in this role because they believe in our parish and are passionate about its future. Please treat them with respect and thank them for helping St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in this important capacity.

Personal Touch

I have instructed each of our campaign volunteers to personally meet with members of the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton community. If you receive a call, I kindly ask that you:

Take the call or return the message. Don't avoid talking to our volunteers. It makes their job more difficult and puts them in a position where they must keep calling to reach you.

Meet face-to-face. If you are asked to meet, please give our volunteers 10-15 minutes of your time. They are not trying to twist your arm, they just want to briefly explain the campaign goals, answer your questions, and receive a decision about your participation.

Mailed a Pledge Card? Please Return It!

If you received a pledge card inside your packet of materials, you will likely not be called by a campaign volunteer. Please discern your involvement in the campaign, fill out the card and return it in the envelope provided.

Your Gift Matters!

Remember, the letter you received from me includes a financial request. It is not an expectation. It is an invitation. I invite you to pray about this campaign and this parish. You may not be able to give what was asked. You may be able to give more than asked. Whatever that decision is, know that your commitment is deeply appreciated and a true blessing to our parish!

Thank you for your cooperation, your consideration, and your support of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church!

Yours in Christ,

To. Bede

Stewardship

Twenty Stewardship Ideas for Spring

- Join a summer bible study group.
- Plan an outing with your family.
- Introduce yourself to a fellow parishioner with whom you are unfamiliar.
- Pray for peace on Memorial Day.
- Help a neighbor who is physically unable to clean their yard.
- Invite someone to attend a weekend liturgy with you.
- Make a blood donation.
- Show genuine hospitality to visitors at your church.
- Don't text when you drive.
- Reduce your stress by getting outside and getting some exercise.
- Drive courteously.
- Make contact with a relative you haven't seen in a long time.
- Take time to pray each day.
- Treat your family or loved one to a day at the museum.
- Volunteer to participate in a community cleanup effort.
- Make a gift to your diocesan annual appeal.
- Plant flowers, shrubs, or trees in a park or other location.
- Collect stuffed animals from friends and neighbors, write messages to tie or clip onto the animals and give them to a local police department to use in comforting children.
- Don't drive while impaired by alcohol.
- Donate gently used clothing.

A Stewardship Moment

Sixth Sunday of Easter

In today's Gospel we witness the last evening Jesus spends with his disciples before his death. He has already made it clear that his followers will show their love for him by serving others. To live that kind of love, they will need the active presence of God in their midst. Jesus tells his disciples that he and his Father will come and make their home with them. He also tells them that the Holy Spirit will be among them to teach them and remind them of all that Jesus had taught. Good stewards recognize that God is in their midst and that the Holy Spirit is guiding them. How often do we acknowledge God's presence in our lives? How often do we allow the Holy Spirit to guide us?

THE RESULTS ARE IN . . .

Dear SEAS Community,

I am thrilled to provide you with the results of Artesia 2019 Locked in Love!

Every year it takes commitment and contributions from our entire community to make Artesia successful. Of all our fundraising events, Artesia consistently earns the greatest amount of money for our parish school. I am forever thankful for your participation, support and generosity.

Although attendance at the event was lower than expected, the proceeds from Artesia 2019 totaled $80,360. Our costs and expenses amounted to $26,724.92. Resultantly, $53,635.08 was returned to our school.

This year's S.P.A.R.K.L.E. fund-a-need campaign goal was to raise enough money to purchase Smart boards for the classrooms. Our school currently utilizes Smart boards in the middle school math classroom, science lab, and the music room. Our ultimate goal is to place a Smart board in EVERY classroom. This is an expensive task and will take a significant amount of time to accomplish, but together I am confident we will make it happen! In this regard, I am delighted to announce that Mrs. Silva purchased three (3) Smart boards. The boards will be installed over the summer. Additionally, the classrooms that do not have Smart boards yet will be wired to accommodate the future upgrades.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at mhoff1977@yahoo.com or 702-540-1924.

Sincerely,
Mary A. Guido

Children's Faith Formation (age 3 – grade 8)

We offer formation classes for children preparing for First Eucharist, Baptism (older than age 7), Continuing Formation (after receiving the sacraments), and the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program for children ages 3 to 5 (entering kindergarten).

The 2019-2020 season starts the week of September 17.

Classes: Tuesdays and Thursdays

Times: 4:30 p.m. to 5:40 p.m.
and 6:00 p.m. to 7:10 p.m.

Requirements:

- Parents or guardians are registered members of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish or a Catholic Parish in the Las Vegas Diocese. Regular attendance at Sunday Liturgy is part of the formation process.
- Registration fee is $150.00 per child. No child will be turned away due to financial difficulty.
- Families must provide a Birth and Baptism Certificate and deposit at the time of registration. Sacrament preparation at SEAS is a family preparation process that requires the participation of the child and the parent throughout the formation years.

Sacraments:

Rite of Christian Initiation for Children (RCIC)

This is a two-year process for children who were not baptized as infants, who have attained the age of reason (7 years), are of catechetical age, and who will participate in the Rite of Christian Initiation at the Easter Vigil in their second year of preparation.

First Eucharist Initiation:

The two-year preparation process to celebrate First Eucharist teaches children about the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. The child and the parent will participate in retreats in their second year.

Continuing Formation:

Children in 3rd grade and higher who are baptized and have received First Eucharist will continue their formation in age appropriate classes. It is the practice of our faith that formation is ongoing and is a life-long journey.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS):

This is a hands-on, interactive working environment where children are guided toward a greater understanding of God's love in their life. They encounter Jesus the Good Shepherd, who loves them, cares for them and knows them by name. Children are most sensitive to a relationship with God between the ages of 3-6. For this reason, we provide formal faith formation for young children.

Registration packets are available on the website <http://www.seaslv.org/faithformation.html>, in the Children's Faith Formation Office, and the SEAS Kairos Gift Shop.

24th Anniversary of the Dedication of SEAS

A Catholic church is not merely an assembly room for the faithful, but a place that is set apart permanently and with great seriousness as a special place of God's presence, like the Temple in Jerusalem during the old covenant. That is why the commemoration of a church dedication day is celebrated as a solemnity, outranking most Sundays, even the parish's patron saint feast day. Join us Wednesday, June 19 at the 8:00 a.m. Mass as we celebrate the 24th anniversary of the dedication of our church. Afterward, refreshments will be served.

Friday, June 21 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall

Tickets are $25; Free Admission for children 10 and under

Get your tickets today in the Kairos Gift Shop

SEAS is excited to begin the countdown to our 25th anniversary! In honor of this momentous occasion, fun and exciting activities and events are being planned over the next year working our way toward our silver anniversary in June 2020. The first event in this year-long celebration will be Bible Bingo on Friday, June 21 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. In this interactive comedy, the parish needs money and Mrs. O'Brien, a former nun who now heads a fictitious archdiocese fundraising department is ready to help! The night will be full of bible trivia, audience interaction, improvised moments, and the funniest quiz about the Holy Family you've ever seen. Add to that a box of wacky prizes, fun bingo cards, and a lot of Catholic humor. In this interactive bingo show, you'll actually play bingo and still learn a little something about what it means to be Catholic! The show is so much fun you'll have to confess it!

Natural Family Planning

Natural Family Planning classes will be held at SEAS on these Fridays this summer: May 31, June 14, and July 12. Classes will run from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall Conference Room. The cost is $30 per couple—cash or check will be accepted at the class. Class size is limited so schedule your appointment today by calling 725-722-1073 or emailing 41stfertilitycare77@gmail.com. More dates coming this fall.

SEAS 3rd Annual Women's Retreat

SEAS Pastoral Associate Marcie Wilske, M.A., M.S. will present, "The Parables of Jesus and Disney" on Saturday, June 15, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Cost is $25.00 which includes morning hospitality, lunch, and retreat materials. Walt Disney ... Jesus Christ ... you may wonder how they can be put in the same boat or even in the same sentence. Yet, they are both master story tellers who have timeless words of wisdom to share with us. Their wisdom lies, not necessarily in the words themselves, but in their ability to make us think...to change our perspective, our hearts, and our behavior. Join with other women of faith as we explore the timeless message and morals found in the stories (parables) of Jesus and Disney. Please register in the Kairos Gift Shop or in the parish office or contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org (702-804-8370).

SEAS Summer Bible Study

Join us for the following Summer Bible Study classes:

Biblical Angels
Monday, June 3 and
Wednesday, June 5

For centuries artists have portrayed angels as beautiful beings with wings and glowing light, complete with halos (and perfectly sculpted bodies). While the existence and work of angels has long stirred popular imagination, the details of their holy purpose are clouded by wonder and debate. Using video from the acclaimed A&E television series "Mysteries of the Bible," we'll explore what the Scriptures have to tell us about angels.

Heaven and Hell

Monday, June 17 and Wednesday, June 19

Every Sunday Catholics profess belief in "one Lord, Jesus Christ ... who will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end." From the beginning of recorded history, people all over the world have also believed in an afterlife. But what does the Bible itself tell us? Using video from the acclaimed A&E television series "Mysteries of the Bible," we'll explore the images and understanding of eternal punishment and eternal happiness found in Sacred Scripture.

Monday classes will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the SJ XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall. Classes will be repeated on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. No registration, books, or cost! Just show up and join other parishioners who want to "dig deeper" into God's Holy Word. All are welcome!

Catholic Daughters of the Americas

We invite the young women of our diocese to join Catholic Daughters of the Americas (CDA). Young women who join

CDA usually feel called to prayer and service. Joining gives members a chance to work with others who feel the same way and who share the same beliefs and values. Come join us and serve God in charitable works. Let's see what God is asking you to do. CDA offers leadership and membership opportunities that will help you learn how to step out in faith to do God's work. There is a lot to choose from throughout the year and you can also join our prayer team. We are Court Ave Maria at St. Anne's Catholic Church, 1901 S. Maryland Parkway; Court Our Lady of the Rosary at Holy Family Catholic Church, 4490 Mountain Vista St.; Court Our Lady of the Valley at St. Viator Catholic Community, 2461 E. Flamingo Rd. For more information visit www.catholicdaughters.org or contact Member Chair Eileen Quinn by sending a text to 702-917-1277 or email to oloffski@yahoo.com.
