A Letter from Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

I could go on and on to list the things for which I am thankful, but let me just say that I'm grateful to God for allowing me to be here at SEAS. It's been good and challenging and rewarding all at the same time. I'm still not physically settled in my office or the rectory, but I feel that God has me in the right place. It's your support and prayers that help me most...so, THANKS for that!

Hope to see you at the 9AM Mass on Thanksgiving Day!

WHY THE WINE CHANGE?

Many have noticed that we have changed from a rosé wine to a white wine for our celebration of the Eucharist. Why? Well, the main reason is that it is much easier for those who clean and iron our liturgical linens each week. Red wine is difficult to remove, as many of you know. So, now all our dedicated liturgical linen launderers have to worry about is removing lipstick! Do you think we could come up with a white lipstick? (Just kidding, but it sure would make the laundering easier!)

The other erroneous belief is that the wine should be red because blood is red. Well, my response to that is that the bread which becomes the Body of Christ certainly doesn't look like flesh! In reality, the color of the wine doesn't make any difference at all. So, since it helps our volunteer launderers, it's certainly a welcome change!

A NOTE ABOUT SUPERSTITIOUS NOVENA PRAYERS

PLEASE AVOID ANY SUPERSTITIOUS NOVENAS LITTERING OUR CHURCH AND CHAPEL. You've seen these photocopies in our information racks and scattered in our pews. Anything that says you have to make several copies and leave them in churches is nothing but pure rubbish! As a matter of fact, any time I see these ridiculous pieces of litter around our property, they immediately go where they belong: IN THE TRASH, because that's what they are! These superstitious novenas are not of God! Period! They are mockeries of God's grace freely given, not earned through superstitious practices that these "novenas" promote.

Only things that I, as pastor, approve are allowed in our information racks or anywhere on our parish campus. Also, please do not leave on our property any other devotional literature or items you may have collected over the years. Those things are disposed of properly.

Sorry for the rant. I thought people were over these things, but I guess I was wrong. Nonetheless, I'm thankful to God for ALL of you who don't fall into the practice of this superstitious baloney!

Peace Always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

The Feast of Christ the King

Of Kings and Kingship

Americans have an uncomfortable relationship with kings. The American Revolution was fought for independence from King George, after all. Nonetheless, today every Catholic church around the world celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today's feast invites us to look beyond our national loyalties and rejoice in our primary identity. We are children of God in Jesus, Christ the King. Our readings help us consider what it's like to belong to God's kingdom. The book of Samuel captures the deep longing of the Israelites for a king to shepherd them. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians that we belong to the kingdom of Christ, whose power he praises in a beautiful hymn. Finally, Luke's Gospel calls to mind the kind of king Jesus chooses to be—a suffering servant, a man for others. By sacrificing his life for us, Jesus throws open the gates of Paradise.

Saint of the Week

St. Catherine of Alexandria
Feast Day - November 25

Catherine is thought to have been born to a noble family in Alexandria, Egypt. Through a vision, this scholarly young woman converted to Christianity and began evangelizing others, including the wife of the pagan emperor who was persecuting Christians. According to legend, after she defied the emperor and refuted philosophers brought in to test her faith, she was imprisoned and tortured. She was put on a rotating spiked wheel; when it broke, she was beheaded. She is venerated as the Great Martyr St. Catherine in the Orthodox tradition and her voice was among those heard by St. Joan of Arc. She is the patron saint of wheelwrights, and also a patron of jurists, philosophers, unmarried girls, students and teachers.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC
DIOCESE of LAS VEGAS

Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This weekend, on the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, our diocese will take up the national collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD). Your support in this collection brings change to people across the country who are living in poverty, transforming their communities into reflections of the Kingdom of God. We also assist those who live in poverty in our own diocese, as 25% of the CCHD funds we collect stay here.

With your contributions, our brothers and sisters across the country are breaking out of the cycle of poverty. Your support in this annual collection truly makes a difference for people in need across the United States and right here in Southern Nevada. Please prayerfully consider how you can be a part of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development this year.

As Thanksgiving draws near, let us express our heartfelt thanksgiving to God by works of mercy, and through our generosity in this year's Catholic Campaign for Human Development. I thank you for joining your sisters and brothers in Christ to work for those living on the margins.

May the Lord bless you and your families for your faithfulness and generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ George Leo Thomas
Bishop of Las Vegas

The Feast of Christ the King

Living the Faith

For I Was Hungry and You Gave Me Food

By Krisanne Vaillancourt Murphy

Every November, as we celebrate Thanksgiving, we are grateful for food, the ability to feed our own families and the need to ensure our entire human family has enough to eat.

Our holiday table reminds us of many other important tables: tables where families come together to share a special meal; tables where our nation's decision makers negotiate trade, aid and public policies that affect us all; and, the most sacred of tables—the altar where the church gathers to be nourished by communion. Let us enter this month remembering that each table calls us to act with faith and hope.

November is the anniversary month of the pastoral letter, "For I Was Hungry & You Gave Me Food: Catholic Reflections on Food, Farmers and Farmworkers," first issued in 2003. The letter seeks to highlight the issues of food and agriculture and their connection to our faith. The letter states, "We focus on how food and fiber are produced, how land is protected and how agriculture is structured, compensated and regulated to serve the 'common good.'"

The purpose of the bishop's letter was to address the concern that food and agriculture are "little seen and less understood" by a post-industrial society living increasingly technological lives. It is true we are further removed from food and agriculture than ever before. Yet what we eat, who grows and harvests that food and the state of the earth that produces these goods are the very things we need to consider as Christian disciples. It's a valuable consideration this harvest month, and every month. More than a decade since it was first published, the bishop's pastoral letter still serves as a poignant reminder that food and agriculture must be viewed from a deeply faith perspective.

November is also Native America Heritage month. Native Americans were once the most agriculturally prosperous group of people in the United States. Yet a snapshot of hunger and poverty today on reservations is nothing short of a banquet of scarcity. Sixty percent of the counties with majority Native Americans face dangerously high food insecurity rates, according to Feeding America. These statistics are a sobering reminder that many marginalized brothers and sisters are missing from our tables of plenty.

A broader overview of the state of hunger in our country reveals that 48 million Americans live in households that struggle to put food on the table, and that 1 in 5 kids live at risk of hunger. Unfortunately, Thanksgiving won't be a feast for everyone.

The bishop's pastoral letter addresses the complexities of our food system but it is also a profoundly hopeful document. "We know these are not easy times, but as believers we have hope for the days ahead: We have the capacity to overcome hunger in our nation and around the world," the letter said.

Through Bread for the World's Offering of Letters campaigns, churches across the country advocate to end hunger by putting food and agriculture into focus. These annual policy advocacy campaigns remind us that God intended for all to be fed.

This Thanksgiving, let us remember that ending hunger in our lifetime will only be a reality if we act with faith and hope at all the sacred tables in our lives.

The Feast of Christ the King

Christianity itself. This prayer recognizes God's goodness and our dependence of God's providence. Parents have taught their children this simple prayer for centuries, and when we give thanks in this way, we are connected with nearly 2000 years of Christian tradition.

Fact of Faith

Grace Before Meals

By Fr. Larry Rice, CSP

In most Catholic households, one important family tradition is a prayer of thanksgiving before meals. The practice of praying before eating is an ancient one, and certainly pre-dates Christianity. Still, for us Catholics, to pray in thanksgiving before meals recalls Jesus himself giving thanks to the Father before miraculous feeding of crowds. It also reminds us of the prayers of thanksgiving that are such an important part of our celebration of the Eucharist.

Although different families have different customs and prayers for this “grace” before meals, the most common example goes something like this: “Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts, which we are about to receive, through Christ our Lord. Amen.” Most of us can perceive the antiquity of this prayer through its archaic use of the word “thy” for “your.” But the original prayer pre-dates that Elizabethan English by several centuries.

According to the 1911 edition of the Catholic Encyclopedia, the text of the traditional Catholic grace before meals can be found in the Gelasian Sacramentary, a Catholic liturgical book believed by scholars to have been compiled around the year 750. It echoes phrases from, and may actually be derived from Didache, a liturgical text from the late first century.

So, when we give thanks to God before we eat, we are praying a prayer that is probably as old as

Bible Study on the Gospel of Matthew

2020 begins Year “A” in the Catholic Church’s liturgical year. Most of the readings we will hear at Mass during this year come from the Gospel of Matthew. The word “gospel” means “good news” and refers to the entire message and ministry of Jesus ... his life, passion, death, resurrection and ascension. In his gospel, Matthew presents Jesus of Nazareth as the great teacher and fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies through whom the kingdom of God is breaking into the world. Join us for this 10 week study as we explore the unique and eternal message of the evangelist Matthew. Your Sunday experience of “hearing” the Gospel of Matthew will be enriched by this study of the “word” of Matthew. Classes begin the week of January 6, 2019, and will be offered on Monday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and repeated on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Each participant will receive a commentary and study guide. Cost: $25. All are welcome—newcomers and experienced Bible students alike! Please register in the Kairos Gift Shop. For more information, contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org or 702-804-8370. All sessions are held in the St. John XXIII classroom in the Parish Hall unless otherwise indicated in the parish bulletin.

Stewardship

Be a Good Steward of Thanksgiving Day

Your Thanksgiving Day can be more than just enjoying a great meal and turning on the television to search for the traditional parades and football games. How about expressing your stewardship of this day in a more meaningful way? Here are some suggestions for making Thanksgiving an opportunity for expressing our gratitude to the Lord in creative ways:

- Write “I’m thankful for you” cards and give them out or e-mail them on Thanksgiving (or mail them beforehand).
- Share your Thanksgiving meal with someone who is alone this Thanksgiving. Look for someone, such as a neighbor, co-worker, fellow parishioner, college student or armed services personnel who may be separated from family and ask them to join in your Thanksgiving dinner.
- Volunteer your time at a soup kitchen to help prepare and serve Thanksgiving dinners to others.
- Visit the sick. Check with hospitals, assisted living facilities or nursing homes in the area to see if there are volunteer opportunities to visit with patients or residents on that day.
- Practice ecumenism! Many parishes make Thanksgiving an opportune time to join in ecumenical services with other Christian worshiping communities, or inter-faith activities. Find one nearby and experience something new and enriching.

- Help someone if you can. Extend your generosity and blessings beyond your own family. Be part of an adopt-a-family effort, help distribute food baskets, or bring canned foods or clothing to St. Vincent de Paul centers.
- Take a walk. Find a place to enjoy God’s gift of creation. Head out the door for a refreshing walk. Invite family, friends or others to share the experience too.
- Most important! Take advantage of the Thanksgiving holidays to focus on what you’re grateful for and the things you appreciate about yourself and others. It is an ideal time to remember and to celebrate the many blessings in our lives.

A Stewardship Moment

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

In today’s Gospel we hear of the rulers who sneered at Jesus, the soldiers who jeered at him, the criminal who reviled him and the people who just stood by. At our own parish church the cross stands high. Yet, every Sunday there are those who sit in front of it and are not moved by it. There are people who walk right by the cross, unmoved by it. Perhaps they’ve walked by it so many times they no longer give it a second thought. Could it be they are unmoved because the heart of this unbelieving thief is in them? Good stewards walk by the cross, notice it and ask themselves: “All this you did for me, what have I done for you?”

A Word of Thanks from Two Grateful Organizations

Both the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic War Veterans Post 1947 would like to thank our parishioners for supporting their recent fundraising efforts. Once again, our SEAS family answered the call to help those in need. Thank you! Please read their updates below.

Tootsie Roll Drive Update

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank everyone who donated to the annual Tootsie Roll Drive. It was a very successful campaign raising over $2800 for the Nevada Special Olympics and the Down Syndrome Organization of Southern Nevada. One hundred percent of the profits will be passed on to these organizations. The Knights of Columbus keeps no money for administrative purposes, unlike many charities. Thank you for your generous support!

Poppy Drive Update

The Catholic War Veterans Post 1947 would like to thank the generous parishioners who donated to the annual Poppy Drive. A record breaking $4,171.05 was raised at SEAS to help support Veterans and their families. A special thank you to Fr. Jim for allowing us to fundraise and to both Fr. Jim and Fr. Jose for their words of support. We are forever grateful!

SEAS 3-Day Advent Mission

Rev. Richard Fragomeni will be the guest presenter at our Parish Advent Mission on December 2, 3 and 4. Two different sessions will be held daily. A morning session will be held in the Parish Hall at 9:00 a.m., and a different session will be held nightly in the church at 7:00. Refreshments will be served.

Rev. Fragomeni is a presbyter of the Diocese of Albany, New York, and has been a member of the Catholic Theological Union faculty in Chicago since 1990. His teaching involves him in Roman Catholic theology, interpretation theory, and poetry. His current work is in the field of word and sacrament: the intersection of symbolic activity and language as it creates insights into the Christian proclamation of grace. Central to this work is a fascination with the power of liturgy and preaching in the transformation of the human heart.

Richard is an adjunct faculty member in the Department of Religious Studies at DePaul University. He also serves as the Rector of The Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii, an Italian-American spiritual center in Chicago's historic Little Italy. In addition to his teaching duties he is a preacher of parish missions and gives presentations nationally and internationally on liturgical, sacramental and catechetical topics.

Jesse Tree Ceremony

Thursday, December 5 at 2:00 p.m. in the church.

Day of Reconciliation

Confessions will be heard in the church 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.
