MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends of SEAS,

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY!

Every Fourth Sunday of Easter is known as Good Shepherd Sunday. This year we hear Jesus identify himself simply as: "I am the good shepherd." (John 10:11) There's a difference between a "good" shepherd and someone who is hired to simply do a job. The latter has no investment in or concern for the sheep. If a wolf threatens the flock, the hired hand runs away because he's only concerned with his own life, not the flock of sheep.

Jesus is just the opposite. We recently experienced how he suffered and died for ALL of us created in God's image and likeness, when we journeyed through Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum. That suffering was endured out of Jesus' great love for ALL of us, without condition, without exception!

ALL of us? Yepper! He also said in today's Gospel: "I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd." (John 10:16)

Consider the words "there will be one flock, one shepherd" (emphasis added). Perhaps Jesus is referring to the future life in eternity where there will be one flock, one shepherd. Nonetheless, for us as Catholic Christians, we strive to live, right here and right now, as one flock with one shepherd. Sometimes we do a good job, sometimes not.

Even in the midst of our differences, we can't deny the simple fact that ALL souls are created in the image and likeness of God by God. And God gave us a free will to accept or reject his offer of love. Whether each soul believes in God or not, no matter what faith tradition they follow or don't, ALL of us will eventually meet God face to face and give an accounting of our lives and how we have or have not let the love of God shine through us. When we have cleansed our hearts from anything that keeps us from loving God and loving ALL souls (through that beautiful experience of cleansing in Purgatory), God, whose justice is God's mercy, will open to us the gates of eternal life where there IS one flock, one shepherd!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

When we hear the word "vocations" in the church, we think of those who are ordained or those in consecrated religious life. On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, we remember to "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Matthew 9:38). It's important to pray that the hearts of young people may be open to consider if God is calling them to a life of ministry as one who is ordained or a vowed religious person.

While those vocations are the primary focus on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let's also remember to pray that hearts may be opened to the vocations of the married life and the single life as well. Those are also "vocations" in the Church. The world is presently downplaying the importance of married life, so it's important we pray that our young people see the value and dignity of the sacramental married life as a sincere vocational response to God's call. Likewise, living a single life can afford individuals a variety of opportunities to be of service to share their lives for others.

So many times we hear all the negative talk about a lack of "priests" or "religious women and men." That the numbers of those specific "vocations" has decreased in recent decades is a verifiable fact. But, what we rarely hear mentioned is that there has been a tremendous INCREASE in the numbers of very dedicated lay women and men who have pursued advanced religious formation and degrees to provide valuable leadership and ministries in the church! I couldn't be a pastor of such an active and vibrant parish without the dedication and collaboration of our valued employees! Unlike secular businesses, the Church NEEDS these competent lay leaders who invest their lives beyond the limits of a typical business "clock-in, clock-out" work week. (And, thanks to your financial support that allows us to justly compensate them as well!)

And, let's not forget the vast INCREASE in the numbers of lay faithful who give of their time and talent in volunteer service to the various liturgical and ministerial opportunities that keep our vibrant parish operations going! MOST of those increases have happened as a direct result of the Second Vatican Council and our understanding that the Church IS the People of God. The hundreds who have wholeheartedly responded to their baptismal call to live as active disciples of the Lord through our various volunteer opportunities show that our people understand how important they are as the Church!

Nonetheless, please continue to pray for our seminarians and those who are discerning a possible call to the ministerial priesthood. Our Archdiocese is growing, but the number of newly ordained ministers is not keeping up. Encourage young men to consider if God is calling them to ordained ministry, and support them if God is calling them. Pray for my eventual replacement!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus the Good Shepherd knows that real love is an action, not an idea. His sacrifice is the proof of his love for his flock. Let us remember to love one another as the Good Shepherd loves us: not just in words but in actions, in choices, in deeds.

EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Paschal Baylón

St. Paschal Baylón (1540-1592) was born in Spain to impoverished Catholic parents. He worked alongside his father as a shepherd from his childhood until his 20's. He often prayed while working in the fields, listening daily for the church bells that would ring at the point of Elevation of the Eucharist during Mass to remind him to spend time with the Lord. He was known for his work ethic and honesty among his neighbors and desired a religious life from a young age.

Baylón taught himself to read so he could pray the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin, a prayer popular in his time. He would give parts of his dinner away to those in need when it was brought to him as he was shepherding in the field. He also had great compassion for the sick.

At age 24, Baylón joined the Friars Minor and although invited to study to be a priest, he chose to be a brother. In this vocation he served his brothers in many ways, including as a chef, door man, gardener, and official beggar. As a Franciscan lay brother, he took a vow of poverty but remained generous to those poor who came begging at the monastery — to the point that the other friars sometimes tried to limit his giving.

St. Paschal found particular solace while praying before the Blessed Sacrament. His devotion to Christ in the Eucharist was tangible as he was known to spend most of his free time in adoration and would occasionally experience visions after all-night prayer. Because of this devotion, he is the Patron Saint of Eucharistic Congresses and Societies. He was also known widely for his spiritual council. People all over the region would visit him to talk about faith and life. St. Paschal Baylón, pray for us!

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATION

4th Sunday of Easter

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week he says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.

The Good Shepherd and the Wolf

I remember very clearly the first movie I watched during my pregnancy with my eldest child. In this film, there is a scene where a young boy is kidnapped and shoved into the back of a van guarded by vicious dogs. His mother persists in trying to free him, even as the dogs snap at her. Their bared teeth and full-throated snarls don't slow her efforts in the slightest.

It wasn't a great movie or even a particularly great scene, but I'll never forget this scene. I'll never forget those dogs.

I had just learned that I was a mother a few days ago. The life growing deep within seemed to me as frail as a whispered secret, but I loved it powerfully. I worried constantly if the baby was safe and healthy. I agonized over signs — real or imagined — that could tell me if the poppyseed-sized child was thriving or failing.

I understood, for the first time in my life, why a woman would charge a pack of attack dogs without hesitation — not because she should, but because she has to.

She could choose not to fight, certainly. She could walk away. But why would she? A future without her son is so much more painful than any physical wound. She may fear for her life, but she fears a life without her child so much more.

The Good Shepherd discourse reveals to us the motivation behind God's actions throughout all of salvation history. From Adam to Noah to Abraham, all the way down to the time of the Messiah and beyond, He keeps trying to get us back. He keeps braving the attack dogs, time after time. He never stops. He never grows weary. And it baffles us: what's in it for Him? we wonder, because we are quicker to give up on ourselves than He is. Why does He keep trying?

He could choose not to fight, sure. But why would He? He doesn't want a future without us.

"I will lay down my life for the sheep." — John 10:11

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Peter bore witness to the Sanhedrin that it was the crucified and risen Jesus who healed the crippled man and through whom we are saved. Have you ever told someone else about your faith in Jesus?

Second Reading: John tells us that as believers we are destined one day to be like the resurrected and glorified Jesus. How do you think we can best prepare for such a future?

Gospel: As the "Good Shepherd," Jesus speaks of the power given to him by the Father to lay down his life for his sheep. What could you do this week for the benefit of another?

Las Vegas Catholic Worker — April Recipient of Our Parish Stewardship Program

Las Vegas Catholic Worker will be the April 2024 recipient of our parish stewardship program, "It Is in Giving that We Receive." The organization has been serving the poor and homeless in Las Vegas since 1986 with "to go" meals and lunches, clean clothing and hygiene supplies. They also partner with other organizations and businesses to help provide showers, haircuts, and medical attention to the homeless. If you would like to help Las Vegas Catholic Worker as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR LAS VEGAS CATHOLIC WORKER and drop it in any Sunday collection basket. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of April. This program was conceived by our Parish Pastoral Council to help the charitable organization, Las Vegas Catholic Worker, and fellow parishes in our archdiocese that are experiencing financial challenges. Each month a different parish or charitable organization is gifted 2% of our weekly offertory collections for that month.

Low Gluten Hosts

Whether you become an individual member or a member of our council, you will find that a Knights of Columbus membership brings Catholic men together in a powerful way. ## Our Next Bible Study

Bible Study on a "Panorama of the New Testament" will begin the week of April 22. This 5-week study picks up the great story of salvation begun before the creation of the world and brings it to completion in the person of Jesus Christ. Rather than focus in-depth on individual books, we'll use a wide angle to witness the birth and growth of Christianity. For newcomers to bible study, this is a wonderful place to familiarize yourself with some of the people and events of the New Testament. For seasoned bible students, this study identifies major themes that punctuate the entire New Testament and provides a comprehensive framework to "put the pieces" together. Sessions will be held Mondays (6:30-8 p.m.) and repeated and also live-streamed on Wednesdays (9:30-11 a.m.) in the St. John XXIII conference room in the parish hall. Each participant will receive a commentary. Cost:$25. Register in the Sursum Corda Gift Shop or at:

A Letter from Archbishop Thomas Regarding the April 27/28 Second Collection for Catholic Home and Black and Indian Missions

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On the weekend of April 27 and 28, our Archdiocese will take up the national collection for the Catholic Home Missions and the Black and Indian Missions.

Our Catholic faith is one of beauty and hope, mercy and joy. But for too many people across the country, there are few opportunities to learn about and deepen that faith. Even the most basic programs are out of reach because of fragile financial situations, tough terrain, or small populations of Catholics. One does not need to go far to find mission territory: it is right here at home.

Nearly half of our country is considered home mission territory. This appeal strengthens the Catholic Church in the United States and its territories where resources are thin and priests are few. Proceeds are distributed as grants to dioceses supporting and strengthening evangelization programs which would otherwise be in danger of disappearing among the Black and American Indian communities.

Your support helps these Mission Dioceses form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the Church at home. Monies are used for a wide range of pastoral services including evangelization, religious education, and maintenance of mission parishes, the training of seminarians and lay ministers, and ministry with ethnic groups. I can speak to this personally, having written extensively about the missions during my doctoral studies and wrote my dissertation titled "Catholics and the Missions of the Pacific Northwest." My time in Helena, Montana as Bishop further solidified this understanding, serving in a Mission Diocese before coming to serve the vibrant community here in Las Vegas.

Please be generous, and prayerfully consider how you can support this collection.

Asking the Lord's continued blessings upon you and your families, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.
Archbishop of Las Vegas

We are happy to share that Archbishop George Leo Thomas, a Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus, will be joining us to celebrate Mass and attend the dinner. This is a significant moment in history as it will be the first time an archbishop appointed by the pope has ever attended a Knight of Columbus State Convention. This makes the occasion extra special! All parishioners, family, and friends are invited to purchase a Dinner/Mass ticket.

Making the commitment to spend one hour a week in Adoration can be the first step in growing your prayer life and growing closer to Christ. Detailed directions on how to register can be found at www.seaslv.org under Adoration Chapel.

SEAS Women — Mark Your Calendars!

Our Women of Joy (WOJ) ministry invites all women of the parish to join us for our next meeting on Saturday, May 18, from 9:30 - 11 a.m. We'll gather in the parish hall for hospitality and socializing and then move to the church for a WALK THROUGH OF THE MASS/TOUR OF CHURCH by our pastor, Fr. Jim! The Sunday Eucharist is the source and summit of our Catholic life. The other sacraments, our private prayer and devotion, and the good works that flow from our faith are all essentially connected and oriented to the Eucharist. The Mass, or celebration of the Eucharist, is the fundamental liturgical ritual in the Roman Catholic Church and the primary way in which we Catholics worship God as a community. Yet, do we really know what we are doing ... Or do we simply go through the motions? Have you ever wondered why we do what we do at Mass? Have you ever considered how every ritual movement, prayer, song, environment is meant to enhance our worship of God? You won't want to miss this opportunity to deepen your understanding of and appreciation of the Eucharist! All are welcome! For more information on how can become a member of our Women of Joy, please contact Bianca at biancas3381@gmail.com
