LIVE THE LITURGY

God invites us to take part in the mission of the Gospel. His investment is his Body and Blood, offered for our salvation. What return will it generate? Only we can decide what to do with this great gift.

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Abstinence, Explained

The virtue of abstinence describes the act of refusing, to any extent, food or types of food. On its own, this action does not produce grace within a soul. However, when regulated by reason and performed in pursuit of sanctification, it is a pious form of mortification of the flesh.

Abstinence is compelled by the fourth precept of the Catholic Church ("You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church.") This precept "ensures the times of ascesis and penance which prepare us for the liturgical feasts and help us acquire mastery over our instincts and freedom of heart," says the Catechism (CCC 2043).

St. Thomas writes that the virtuous act of fasting is ordered to three ends: first, to control the appetites of the flesh; second, "that the mind may arise more freely to the contemplation of heavenly things," as we see so often in Scripture; and third, in reparation for sin (II:II, 147, Art. 1).

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 25:14-30

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, "Let's have a great time." The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. "I don't want to lose it," he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father's invitation to share an experience together.

God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus' parable, a servant buries his master's talent and explains: "Master, I knew you were a demanding person...so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground" (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant's fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.

How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God's gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master's goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.

So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.

— Father John Muir

SEAS Hospital Ministry

Did you know that we have a dedicated group of parishioners who offer support and care to our Catholic parishioners at Mountain View Hospital? Every Sunday at 8:00 a.m. they bring Holy Communion, prayer, support, and a loving presence to our ill brothers and sisters … serving to tangibly connect them to our larger parish family. Those engaged in the ministry say it is a life-changing experience! Nothing feels better than being able to put a smile on the face of a patient who is in need of the healing presence of Jesus! We are currently in desperate need of additional Eucharistic Ministers for this important parish ministry. Some volunteers serve once a week, twice a month or even just monthly depending on your availability. We are more than happy to work with your schedule! The requirements are simple:

1) You are already a trained Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (or are willing to be trained)
2) You are an approved parish volunteer
3) You would need to watch a video about do's and don'ts of the Ministry.
4) You would get a letter of recommendation from SEAS to minister at Mountain View Hospital

For more information, contact our Hospital Coordinator Douglas Burch at 702-689-2560 or dougburch2007@yahoo.com. In addition, you receive a free lunch from the hospital cafeteria and it only takes 1-2 hours. Please consider joining our team!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Proverbs explains how a kind, wise, and loving wife is an invaluable treasure to a husband. What qualities do you think make for a healthy and life-giving marriage?

Second Reading: Paul urges the Thessalonians to remain focused on the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. Is there something that needs your urgent attention this week?

Gospel: In the Parable of the Talents, Jesus teaches the importance of investing in the gifts God has given each of us. What would others say are your God-given gifts?

The Archdiocese helps identify which parishes have the greatest need. If you would like to help Christ the King Church as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR CHRIST THE KING CHURCH and place it in any Sunday collection basket. GIVINGTUESDAY™

GivingTuesday, December 1: Meal for the Homeless

GivingTuesday was created in 2012 as a simple idea: a day that encourages people to do good. Over the past 12 years, this idea has grown into a year-round global movement that inspires hundreds of millions of people to give, collaborate, and celebrate generosity.

While GivingTuesday happens every Tuesday, this annual celebration of generosity happens the first Tuesday after Thanksgiving, this year on December 1st.

As in previous years, we will use the donations we receive through our GivingTuesday online appeal to pay for the annual community meal we provide and serve to the homeless at Catholic Charities every January in honor of our parish feast day and patroness, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. This year the Catholic Charities meal will be served on Thursday, January 7, 2027. Sign-ups to volunteer to serve the meal will be opening soon.

To help pay for the meal, give at www.seaslv.org between 12:00 a.m. and 11:59 p.m. on December 1, 2026. The link will only be live for 24 hours on December 1.
