ANNUAL PARISH REPORT
July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

I present to you our Annual Parish Report which briefly summarizes the life of our entire campus from both the pastoral and financial perspectives.

THE PASTORAL PERSPECTIVE

In the pastoral perspective, the Parish Statistics you see on the far-right column of the table are current as of June 30, 2026, the end of our previous fiscal year. The previous two years' statistics are included for reasons of comparison. Our number of parish households and individual members show continued growth as do our Baptisms and Sacraments. The number of Anointings is significantly lower for the past two years, but that was due to an issue of documentation not being submitted for recording.

The Faith Formation numbers of our children and adults remains steady, with an increase in the number of adults coming to the faith.

In reference to our Human Concerns Ministry, the number of families served is significantly higher since we are now reporting each instance of individual families seeking assistance rather than just the number of families registered. Nonetheless, the number of those seeking assistance continues to grow. Likewise, your support for this ministry grows in so many ways. Thank you for that!

These positive statistics give proof that we continue to embrace our Parish Mission Statement where we are "a loving, caring community of faith where all are welcome and belong."

THE FINANCIAL PERSPECTIVE

Our Parish and School Financial Reports cover the actuals from the two previous fiscal years and our new budget for the current 2026-27 fiscal year. We continue to remain in "the black" due to your contributions and the staff of our parish and school continuing to keep our spending under great control!

I do have an immediate concern that our weekly first collection does not always reach the amount we budgeted. We're presently over $40,000 behind in our regular weekly collections. In future bulletins, we will list our weekly budgeted first collection amount so everyone knows what we need (currently $48,500).

I believe, however, that some newer and maybe even some "seasoned" parishioners see our weekly first collection amount in excess of $40,000 and think we're "rolling in the dough!" Unfortunately, our bills are much higher than $40k per week!

And so, here's my challenge to us, myself included: Even though current financial times are difficult for all of us, can we each consider a sacrificial increase in our weekly first collection? If every household could give an extra $5 each week (or whatever amount is possible), we would be doing much better. To lead by example, I will increase my weekly giving from $50 to $55…after all, I'm a registered "household" as well!

Thank you for your understanding, consideration and cooperation. Together, as a family of faith, we can continue to do so many good things as we strive to Journey Together Joyfully!

Peace always, Fr. Jim

LIVE THE LITURGY

The Christian life is a life of waiting, for the Bridegroom is long delayed. We can grow too comfortable in the waiting that we forget what it's all for. So let us look to our lamps and always remember — the waiting will not last forever.

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Kindness, Explained

In the modern lexicon, the quality of "kindness" is often equated with politeness — but real, virtuous kindness is so much more. Virtuous kindness is a way of seeing others through the eyes of God.

God is not polite — God is kind, and His kindness is abundantly evident in all of creation. It was suspicion of this divine kindness that precipitated the fall of Adam and Eve (CCC 214), and it was this unfailing kindness that facilitated our own adoption as God's children, conformed to the image of His son (CCC 257).

Also known as benevolence or beneficence and derived from the theological virtue of charity, kindness is a fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22) and is a central theme in the famous parable of the Good Samaritan. In practicing kindness and seeking the good of another without prejudice or condition, the Samaritan reflects God's own plan of loving kindness for us.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 25:1-13

My first instinct upon waking is to grab my phone and start scrolling. Sometimes I do it for 20 or 30 minutes, and it makes me feel distracted and agitated. I feel guilty, too, for wasting my first moments of the day. So recently, I committed those minutes to reading a book that would focus my mind on Jesus. I enjoy the fact that I am not scattering my attention as much. I feel more peaceful and focused on God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks about attention. He contrasts wise and foolish virgins, and then sums up the teaching by saying, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" (Matthew 25:13). The basic currency of the human heart is attention. The foolish bridesmaids are not immoral or malicious; they are unfocused, distracted, and unprepared. They assume that borrowed oil will suffice, that someone else's readiness can make up for their own lack. But the attention which is love cannot be outsourced. A relationship with God requires personal attentiveness cultivated over time.

This Gospel leaves us with an honest question. What am I giving my attention to each day, and am I forming a heart that is awake, watchful, and ready to meet the Lord when He comes? How can I use key moments of my day to focus my attention where I need it to be?

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Outside the Wedding Feast

Every time my husband tells me he needs to take our car in for an oil change, I groan: "Didn't we just do that, like, six months ago?" "Yeah," he replies. "And like I told you six months ago, that's roughly how often it needs to be done."

If I didn't have him, I would forget to change that oil until the engine came to a grinding halt in the middle of the interstate. It's not that I'm incapable — I remember when we're about to run out of butter, when we need to scrub out the kitchen sink so it doesn't get nasty, when it's time to schedule the kids' annual doctor visits. I just don't even think about the oil. Why would I? My husband's on top of it.

Our brains reflexively prioritize certain tasks, delegating the rest to the care of others we trust. I do it with the oil in the car. My husband does it with the groceries. Sometimes — too often, in fact — we do it with our spiritual lives. We let it go. We don't think about it. We trust. God's got us. We'll focus on that tomorrow.

It's beautiful to have a relationship with God based in confidence, not in anxiety. But do we sometimes take this further than is healthy? In trusting that God loves us unconditionally, do we slip into the habit of de-prioritizing him? Do we linger too long outside the wedding feast, trimming our neglected lamps, forgetting that once the door closes, it also locks?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: According to our Jewish sage, wisdom is a virtue that desires to be known by those who seek her. How does anyone know they have found wisdom?

Second Reading: Paul offers hope in the bodily resurrection of the dead for the Thessalonians who are grieving the death of a loved one. How does your faith in Jesus sustain you in times of grief and distress?

Gospel: In the Parable of the Ten Virgins, Jesus teaches his disciples the importance of planning ahead for the unknown. Do you consider yourself a pre-planner?

SEAS Human Concerns Ministry: Justice, Peace and Respect Life

RESPECT LIFE

In our service of charity, we must be inspired and distinguished by a specific attitude: we must care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to become neighbors to everyone (cf. Lk 10:29-37), and to show special favor to those who are poorest, most alone and most in need. In helping the hungry, the thirsty, the foreigner, the naked, the sick, the imprisoned — as well as the child in the womb and the old person who is suffering or near death — we have the opportunity to serve Jesus. He himself said: "As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40).

A Letter from Archbishop Thomas Regarding the November 14/15 Second Collection

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On November 14 and 15, we observe the Tenth World Day of the Poor and take up the national collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

Through CCHD, the Church supports communities and organizations working to overcome poverty and build a more just and dignified future centered on Catholic Social Teaching. Twenty-five percent of the funds collected remain in our local community, helping those in need here in Southern Nevada.

Pope Leo XIV reminds us on this World Day of the Poor that "The Lord is the refuge of the poor." As followers of Jesus, we are called not only to recognize those living on the margins, but to accompany them through prayer, compassion and concrete works of mercy.

I ask you to prayerfully consider making a generous gift to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development second collection. Your support helps our brothers and sisters break the cycle of poverty and strengthens communities both here at home and throughout our nation.

As Thanksgiving approaches, may our gratitude to God be reflected in our generosity toward those most in need.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+George Leo Thomas
