MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends of SEAS,

HAPPY FEAST DAY, ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI!

During this jubilee year of St. Francis of Assisi in which we commemorate the 800th Anniversary of his death, we also rejoice in what a gift he has been for the Church and world throughout these past eight centuries. Having the ability to see and honor God in all of creation, St. Francis reminds us of the respect we should have for ALL of God's creation including each human soul created in the image and likeness of God. His influence has been so vast that, to this day, his life and legacy have been embraced by many of God's people of 1) every faith tradition or no faith tradition, 2) every nation, 3) every color and ethnic heritage, 4) every sexual orientation or gender identity, 5) every political ideology, or, as Jesus would describe to us: everyone who is our "neighbor."

And so, on this Sunday, October 4th (the Feast Day of St. Francis) we remember the poor man from Assisi and ask God to help each one of us live God's all-inclusive and unconditional love for ALL of God's creation, especially ALL of our "neighbors."

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH!

We begin this weekend with Respect Life Sunday and renew our call as disciples to respect human life in all of its stages from the very beginning of conception until our final breath. We obviously remember our care and concern for those who are most vulnerable and have no voice: every child in the womb. In a secular world that deems the life in the womb to be considered private property, may we never forget that every life belongs to God first and foremost. And may we always remember the dignity and respect due to each human person through all stages of life, not just in the womb!

To that end, I would ask each of us to also consider our attitudes toward the smallest of God's children when we gather together for Mass. Please read on...

SEAS' EXPECTATIONS REGARDING CHILDREN AT MASS

Please be advised of our expectations at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Roman Catholic Church regarding children at Mass:

- Children are not the future of the Catholic Church. They are part of the Church right now with a future each of us can help nourish!
- If your kids are loud, please still come to Mass.
- If you're running late because getting everyone dressed and out the door was a battle, please still come to Mass.
- If your toddler won't sit still, please still come to Mass.
- If your baby needs to eat, please still come to Mass.
- If your child asks questions at the least convenient moment, please still come to Mass.
- If someone cries, drops a toy, or has to make their third trip to the bathroom, please still come to Mass.
- If your child doesn't know all the prayers, responses, or exactly when to sit, stand, and kneel, please still come to Mass.

- If you feel like you spent the entire Mass managing your children and heard approximately 12% of the homily, please still come to Mass.
- If Sunday morning feels messy instead of peaceful, please still come to Mass.
- If you're worried your children are distracting the people around you, please still come to Mass (If others have a problem with your children at Mass, it's their problem, not yours!).
- If your child has a disability or special needs, please still come to Mass.
- Children do not learn how to be part of the Church by staying home until they can sit quietly. They learn by being here.
- They learn the Sign of the Cross by watching us make it.
- They learn the prayers by hearing us pray them.
- They learn the Scriptures by hearing the Word of God proclaimed.
- They learn reverence by watching us stand, sit and kneel as the Church teaches and forms us (not as some internet sites claim they know!).
- They learn that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist by seeing the love and reverence with which we encounter Christ in our Holy Communion.
- They learn that the Church is their home because we make room for them here.
- The wiggles, whispers, crying babies, and little voices are not signs that children don't belong at Mass. They are signs that the Church is alive and well. A Church without children is a dying Church.
- So, bring the babies. Bring the toddlers. Bring the big kids too! Sit in the front so the little ones can see. Step out when you need to (you know, if they need a break and get too loud!)... but always come back in.
- At Baptism, these children became members of the Body of Christ. They belong here and have every right to be with us.
- They need the grace of the sacraments, the example of their parents, and the love and patience of the rest of us, their parish family.
- Children are not simply the future of the Catholic Church. They are part of the Church here and now! And we are blessed to have them with us: wiggles, giggles and all!

Remember: Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." (Matthew 19:14) Happy Respect Life Month!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY

Some build their lives on a foundation of wealth, some on a foundation of power. What do we choose for our cornerstone? What supports the weight of our souls? For the Christian life, there is only one foundation strong enough to hold. Choose wisely.

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Magnanimity, Explained

Magnanimity, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, describes “the stretching forth of the mind to great things.” (Sum. II-II, 129, Art. 1) This virtue protects souls from the temptation to do honorable things for intentions that fall short of honorability.

Magnanimity shares much with the virtue of humility, but unlike humility, it specifically seeks what is great — but never the distinction of being called great. A magnanimous person’s focus is solely on accomplishing as much good as possible, as effectively as possible.

When Joseph learned that Mary, his betrothed, was with child through the Holy Spirit, he had a chance to distinguish himself as a virtuous man. In calling for Mary’s punishment, he could have condemned immorality loudly and publicly, while distancing himself from what appeared to be sin.

Instead, he did the opposite. He did what he knew to be right. He exhibited magnanimity, and the world was never the same.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 21:33-43

Have you ever felt like your attempts at prayer are a waste of time? I have. Early in my priesthood, I noticed that my prayer life was weakening. Awe and eager expectancy of contact with God had given way to routine. I gradually spent less and less time praying. Nothing dramatic had happened, but my attitude toward God had changed, and I was losing the desire to pray.

Jesus' parable of the insane vineyard tenants speaks into this kind of experience. He says the landowner "leased it to tenants and went on a journey" (Matthew 21:33). The key to this message is that the vineyard does not belong to those who work it — they are entrusted with it. But little by little, they view it as their possession, and ungrateful entitlement follows. The servants sent by the owner are treated as intrusions. Even the owner's son becomes a means to their delusional self-will. The central tragedy is not violence but the forgetfulness that spawns it. They need reminding how lucky they are to be given so much.

Eventually, God sent friends to remind me that my relationship with Him and my prayer time are not my possessions, but rather God's tremendous gifts to me. Perhaps you are feeling discouraged for some reason or other these days in your walk with God. Ponder this parable and let it be a gentle reminder that you and I are fortunate stewards, and God is the generous giver. This allows us to rediscover the beauty of the vineyards in our lives and to remain energetic in cultivating his gifts.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Hoarding the Harvest

I've always thought the Parable of the Tenants could be a storyline on one of those "world's dumbest criminals" shows. Serial murder seems like an absolutely insane course of action simply to hoard the profits of a harvest you don't legally own. In what world did the tenants think they would get away with that? Furthermore, they must have had a contract with their landowner ensuring payment for their labor. Why, all of a sudden, is this payment not enough? It's easy to dismiss the tenants as paranoid. Selfish. Greedy.

But then I think of my soul — my own little vineyard. Who owns it? Who bought it at great cost? You see, the Parable of the Tenants isn't a story about greed. It's a story about trust. The tenants don't trust the landowner to give them their payment, to honor his promises. They're scared. They're resentful. They're angry.

And I get it. Around my vineyard, there is a hedge, a protective barrier of grace shielding the fruit within from the toxic fumes of a fallen world. There is a wine press, so that the harvest of my vineyard can fulfill its ultimate purpose instead of withering, forgotten, on the branch. And there is a tower, tall and sturdy, built by capable hands. From its summit, I can see predators — animals, thieves — a long time before they reach me.

But I can see something else from the tower, too. I can see the landowner's Son, making his way to the gates of my vineyard. He is coming to claim the harvest. He is coming to give me what is promised. Do I trust him? Do I let him in?

Baptism Ministry Seeking Volunteers

Baptism Ministry is seeking volunteers who are Catholic and over the age of 18 who would like to assist the deacons with Sunday afternoon group baptisms for infants and children up to 7 years old. Responsibilities are minimal but would include greeting the families, preparing the pews, candles and chrism, and cleaning up after the ceremony. Good communication skills and a friendly personality are a must! If interested, please contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Isaiah speaks of God's frustration over the people of Judah (the Lord's "cherished plant") who have not yielded a good crop. How do you encourage family or friends to live up to their potential?

Second Reading: Paul teaches the Philippians that prayer and positive thoughts are key to avoiding anxiety and experiencing the peace of God. What are some positive thoughts you focus on when you are stressed or anxious?

Gospel: Jesus harshly criticizes the chief priests and Pharisees in the Parable of the Tenants. How do you deliver legitimate criticism to someone you care about?

CARE OF CREATION

The values that take shape and mature within the family undoubtedly provide the fertile soil from which the life of society springs forth. Families are therefore essential for nurturing and transmitting the value of caring for our common home and for every person. Indeed, many families already live this vocation with open hearts and hope that is Christ Jesus. Within the family, its members learn self-giving, patience and dedication; the welcoming and protection of life, so that it may flourish fully - Pope Francis, Encyclical, Laudate Si.

Jr. and Sr. High Youth Group (Grades 6-12)

All youth in grades 6 through 12 are invited to our next Youth Group get-together on Wednesday, October 14, from 5 - 7 p.m. in Emmaus Central Youth Ministry building. Questions about Youth Group? Contact Kathy Williams at 702-804-8372 or kwilliams@seaslv.org.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why do Catholics give the sign of peace to one another at Mass?

Answer: The sign of peace is a part of the Mass that takes place immediately after we offer the Lord's Prayer. Inspired by the Jesus' words to his first followers, we stand together in a spirit of communion to pray as Jesus taught us: "Our Father who art in heaven..." In this prayer, we call for the coming of God's kingdom in all its fullness and ask that God provides for our needs — "Give us, this day, our daily bread" — to forgive our sins and to bring us to the joy of heaven.

It is almost natural, then, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ's peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, and the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace (usually a hug or a handshake) as a symbol of the communion that we experience now and will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus' teachings that if we are at prayer and remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, then we are to go and seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Matthew 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion — united in love and peace — with God and one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you're at Mass and the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ's peace that each of us has received from God and to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, "Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."
