MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends of SEAS,

WHAT'S THE SKULL? TELL ME WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT!

Many people have been asking why there is a skull at the base of the crucifix at the St. Carlo Acutis Shrine here at SEAS. First and foremost, it's biblical: Each of the four gospels mentions that Jesus was crucified at the "place of the skull" or Golgotha. In addition, the skull reminds us of our own mortality, that we, too, will one day die, but more importantly, that the sacrifice of Christ on the cross has redeemed us as he conquered sin and death. In that sense, the skull is also a reminder that death is not the end for us. We hope to one day share in the resurrected love of Christ in heaven!

A SERIOUS REMINDER: WALKERS WITH WHEELS ARE NOT WHEELCHAIRS!

I'm sure we've all seen those walkers with wheels. They're really a great support for those who might need a little more stability while walking. Some of them even come with a seat for a little rest on the journey.

The temptation, however, is to use it like a wheelchair when someone is seated. Walkers are simply not made for moving someone while seated! When someone is seated and not moving, there is safety and stability. When someone tries to move the walker with someone seated on it, the hazard of tipping over is much greater! For your own safety, please do not use walkers as wheelchairs! If you have a need for a wheelchair, please feel free to use one of our parish wheelchairs located in the Liturgical Ministers sign-in room. One of our ministers or office personnel will be more than happy to help you!

Please consider this a gentle reminder simply because we care!

AS ALWAYS, PLEASE CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR...

Bishop Emeritus Joseph Pepe and Fr. Shawn Dresden who continue their own health journeys as well. They appreciate your prayerful remembrance!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Equity, Explained

Our God is just — but our God is also merciful. Practicing the virtue of equity means striving to imitate God in both these important aspects.

Governments draft legislation and authorities enforce laws in an attempt to create a system of rules and regulations that will ensure the common good. But we live in a fallen world, and there will never be a perfect justice system. Following one law will demand much more of one man than it does another, just the same as breaking one law will be easier for one woman than it is for another — and exacting punishment for the sake of punishment is never justice.

The virtue of equity is practiced by those who attend to the letter of the law, but who do so using their God-given human faculties and the mercy required of a Christian. To practice equity is to look at the whole picture — especially the divinely crafted person at the center of it.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Ezekiel challenges people who complain, “the Lord’s way is not fair.” Can you think of a time you felt the need to defend God?

Second Reading: Paul urges believers to be humble and look out for one another’s needs. How might you help build up a friend or co-worker this week?

Gospel: In the parable of the two sons, Jesus warns the chief priests and elders to be open-minded and willing to change. What are you hoping will change in your life?

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 21:28-32

This Sunday, Jesus tells a short, uncomfortable story. A father asks two sons to go work in the vineyard. One says no, but later goes. The other says yes, but never shows up. It is a parable so simple, we almost miss how sharp it is. Jesus is clear about who it is for. This is not aimed at pagans or outsiders. It is aimed squarely at religious people, people who know the right words and sound obedient.

Jesus is not condemning unbelief so much as disobedience. The polite hypocrisy that says the right things while quietly resisting the Father's will. St. John Chrysostom put it bluntly, "Not words, but deeds, are what God requires. Nothing so exasperates Him as insincere obedience, while nothing so delights Him as repentance."

Every disciple must face that mirror. Do I publicly profess faith in Christ while privately resisting what He asks of me? It is easy to say, I believe in God in my heart. But if faith never becomes action, it slowly becomes an illusion.

Jesus does not expose hypocrisy to shame us. He reveals it to heal us. He wants our hearts and our deeds to speak the same word, to let our yes truly mean yes. Like the second son who initially refused but afterwards changed his mind and went, Jesus invites us to step into the Father's will, however late, however imperfectly.

Challenge: Where are your public faith and private obedience divided? Where do you say, I will go, but never enter the vineyard? Go, get to work, even if it is late. The Father's vineyard is still open.

— Father John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Who is St. Jerome, and why is he so significant that we honor him with a feast on September 30?

Answer: St. Jerome (345–420) was considered the greatest biblical scholar of his day, conversant with Latin, Greek, and Hebrew. He set about translating the books of the Bible from their original languages into Latin.

Much of Jerome’s correspondence has survived and gives us a powerful glimpse into the kind of person that he was, as well as the time in which he lived. Jerome eventually became Pope Damasus’ (366–384) personal secretary. In the West, Latin was overtaking Greek as the language of the common people. The pope desired a translation of the Bible that would be accurately translated from the original languages into the language and idiom of the people. Previous Latin translations existed, but they were poor in quality.

Jerome set about this task and spent the rest of his life meticulously translating. He is credited with the translation of the Bible known as the Vulgate, a Latin translation intended to address the needs of the common people. That translation became the standard and the only one used by Catholics until modern times. Catholics did not actively engage in a similar process until 1943, when Pius XII allowed Catholic scholars once again to go back to the original languages and translate an accurate and meticulous version of the Bible. We carry on that tradition to this very day.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The God of Changed Minds

I wonder what was so important. The man gave both his sons the same order: go out and work in the vineyard today. One son said yes. One refused.

The first son doesn’t show up. The second son changes his mind, and does what his father asked. I wonder what was so important, that it kept the first from fulfilling his word. I wonder what was so important, that it prevented the second from committing wholeheartedly. I have an image in my head of the sun setting on the vineyard. The second son pauses for a moment to catch his breath while his father sits at the gate, anxiously scanning the horizon. “Any sign?” the son asks the father, who instead of answering drops his gaze into his lap.

With this parable, Jesus acknowledges that few of his disciples can anticipate a straight path to Heaven. Most of us are destined for a few bends in the road. Most of us will suffer failures of will and strength. We will become distracted. We will become preoccupied. We will doubt ourselves. There will be so many things that seem important, and it will take us too long to realize they aren’t. Once we have, we may be too proud to change course.

The shadows grow long in the vineyard. Any moment and they will give way to darkness. With its dying breath, the sun illuminates the contours of a figure making his way toward the father and son. When the figure cries out, it is a voice they recognize. “Am I too late?” We worship the God of second chances. The God of changed minds. The God of never-too-late.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Catholic social teaching is based on and inseparable from our understanding of human life and human dignity. Every human being is created in the image of God and redeemed by Jesus Christ and therefore is invaluable and worthy of respect as a member of the human family. Every person, from the moment of conception to natural death, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Human dignity comes from God, not from any human quality or accomplishment.

Beginning the week of October 5, sessions will be offered on Mondays (6:30-8 p.m.) and repeated and also live-streamed on Wednesdays (9:30-11 a.m.) in the parish hall. The cost is $30 and includes 2 commentaries. Register at www.seaslv.org under Faith Formation or at the reception desk inside the Sursum Corda Gift Shop. Questions? Contact Marcie Wilske at mwilske@seaslv.org or 702-804-8370. The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of the spread of the Gospel and the growth of the early church following the Ascension of Jesus. In this 10-week study we'll witness the bold preaching of Peter, courageous travels of Paul, and heroic witness of the disciples as they follow the command of Jesus to spread the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

Boo Bash
Hidden Gems
Talent Showcase

Saturday, October 17 from 4 - 5 p.m.

If you sing, dance, play an instrument, juggle, or have another talent or skill you are good at, consider auditioning for the Talent Showcase.

Acts of ALL AGES are Welcome – solo, duo, groups – all welcome!

Contact Patty ASAP at PattyJanura@seaslv.org or 702-804-8326.

All Ages Welcome!

Ways to Participate!

Get ready! Our 14th Annual Boo Bash & International Food Festival is right around the corner! It's a fun time for our parish and community with proceeds benefiting our parish school! Read on to see how you can be involved!

Boo Bash Volunteers Needed

We're always in need of helpers before, during, and after the event! Contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321 to find out in what ways you can start helping!

Run Your Own Food Booth or Help Sponsor One

Filipino, Mexican, Polish, Italian, Sri Lankan, and Down Home Southern Cookin' have been some of the delicious cuisines prepared by our very own parishioners at past Boo Bashes. If you have some favorite recipes you would like to share, consider running your own food booth or help sponsor one with a financial contribution. Your sponsorship will help purchase the ingredients for someone who loves to cook and run the booth. Check the food sponsorship on the next page. What other nationalities can we represent from our diverse parish? I bet quite a few! For more information or to save your spot in the Boo Bash Food Court, contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321.

Boo Bash Hidden Gems Talent Showcase

If you are an individual, duo, or group of ANY age, with a talent or skill you would like to share, don't be shy about it! Contact Patty Janura asap at PattyJanura@seaslv.org or 702-804-8326 to audition for a spot in the talent showcase on Saturday, October 17, at 4 p.m.

Sponsors and Donors Appreciated!

When putting on an event such as Boo Bash, financial gifts are so very important. Please consider helping with a donation or sponsorship listed on the next page. Fill out the form and submit it, or if you have questions, contact Maureen at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321.

Donate Candy or Host a Trunk-and-Treat Station

New this year — Trunk-and-Treat on Friday night of Boo Bash! Instead of trick-or-treat stations in the school, this year participants can reserve a parking spot in the tippy-top church parking lot, decorate your vehicle or spot, and give out candy to the hundreds of candy lovers who come through on Friday, October 16, from 6 - 7 p.m. This will replace trick-or-treating in the school on Saturday night. Trunk-and-Treat only on Friday, October 16, from 6 - 7 p.m. Spaces are limited so reserve your spot now at: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/fridaytrunkortreat/> or contact April at april@elvisfreak.com. If you would like to donate candy, leave pre-packaged candy in the gathering space of the church or parish hall and it will be used to supplement the candy provided by those hosting Trunk-and-Treat stations. Around 600 to 700 people come to Trick-or-Treat so donated candy is greatly appreciated!
