

Youth Group

Core Team Responsibilities

As a Core Team member, you are committing to continue in your faith as a strong and empowered leader amongst your peers. Together with the Director of Youth Ministry you will develop and plan how to enlighten the youth in order to live out the mission of the Church.

Overall

- Commit to providing an environment of faith and fun throughout all meetings, youth group activities and other Church related activities.
- Continue to grow in your faith and help others along their faith journeys
- Be a leader. Your attitude, actions and mood reflect your behavior and therefore reflect you as a leader and as a member of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Role of Core Team

- Brainstorm and assist in implementation of improvements for youth group
- Ensure acceptance of new members. No one should feel left out and it is your responsibility to include others. Also do not leave yourself out of any activities. Everyone plays an important role in God's eyes
- Willing to communicate with all youth group members. Communication is key! Communication can also be negative and no negative comments or language will be tolerated.

Objectives and Key Tasks

- As a Core Team leader, you will be asked to attend Core Team meetings, youth groups and other events throughout the year. Be punctual to meetings!
- Come with an open heart
- Outreach to those in need.
- Smile ☺
- Bring energy to the group. Your high spirits will be contagious!
- If a problem is to occur, quietly acknowledge the situation and report the problem to Meghan Hernandez. Types of situations would include attitude problems, inappropriate behavior, home or parental problems, money problems, etc.

I agree to these terms and will participate fully in the High School Core Team starting now until May 31, 2013. I understand Meghan has the authority to ask me to step down at any time should I violate my agreement.
