MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

HAPPY 75TH BIRTHDAY ARCHBISHOP THOMAS!

This Monday, May 19, Archbishop George Leo Thomas will have completed 75 years of life! As is the common practice for all bishops, Archbishop must submit his letter of resignation to Pope Leo XIV on his 75th birthday. While this letter of resignation is submitted on the bishop's 75th birthday, it's up to the Holy Father as to when he will accept the resignation.

My prediction, for what it's worth, is that we hopefully will have Archbishop Thomas in ministry among us for some more years to come. After recently becoming an Archdiocese and he an Archbishop, I have great hope that this resignation will not be accepted quickly.

So, Happy Birthday, Archbishop Thomas! We look forward to many more years of life and ministry to come!

MY HEALTH UPDATE

Just to follow up on my video announcement of last weekend, here's my latest update:

After meeting with my oncologist, it was determined that the best course of action is to wait and watch for any future growth of the cancerous neuroendocrine tumor located within a cyst in my pancreas. It is very small at this moment, and the surgery to eliminate this tumor is very invasive. We don't know how long I have had this tumor, but now that we know I have it, we can watch it at 6-month intervals.

I'm very happy with this course of watchfulness. I don't have any painful symptoms, and my life continues to move forward. Therefore, don't look for any other updates from me unless there are any changes that have occurred.

THANKS SO MUCH for ALL YOUR PRAYERS AND SUPPORT!
I believe in the power of prayer, and yours are sincere and strong!
Thank you!

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Dear SEAS Parishioners,

I want to express my deepest thanks for your prayers, kind words, cards, and gifts on the occasion of my 50th Anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. I am so blessed to be able to assist here at SEAS and to have the opportunity to celebrate Mass with you regularly.

Many thanks to Fr. Bede Wevita for inviting me to help here at SEAS back in December of 2015 and to Fr. Jim Jankowski for continuing that invitation when he became pastor. The entire SEAS Staff is exceptional and it is a real joy to be able to minister with them here at SEAS. The SEAS staff along with many parish volunteers made my celebration a wonderful experience for me and for all who attended.

Thanks to all of you, SEAS parishioners, who are so strong in your faith, so prayerful, and so welcoming. You are an example of Christian love to me and to all who come here.

Please continue to keep me in your prayers and I will do the same for you.

In Christ,
Fr. Tom Gross

LIVE THE LITURGY

If you love like me, Jesus tells his disciples, they will know you are mine. We shouldn't leave any room for doubt in the minds of each and every person we encounter. Let the whole world know: we love like Christ, and we belong to Christ.

DEVOTIONS EXPLAINED

Hail Mary, Explained

The words of the Hail Mary — undoubtedly the most recognizable Catholic prayer after the Lord's Prayer — are deeply rooted in scripture. The opening lines of the prayer are taken from the words of the angel Gabriel at the Annunciation — “Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee.” This line is known as the Angelic Salutation. The following words — “Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus” — echo the sentiments expressed by Elizabeth at the Visitation.

The Angelic Salutation is regarded as the earliest devotional prayer to Mary, since it forms the very first words spoken to her as the Mother of God, but Catholics did not begin to utilize the Hail Mary prayer in its current form until around the 11th century.

An in-depth explanation of each line of this prayer is provided in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2676-2677.

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATION

5th Sunday of Easter: John 13:31-35

I've always found it amazing that Jesus never says to his disciples the straightforward and bumper stickery words "I love you" or "I will always love you" (a la Dolly Parton's song). Why doesn't Jesus say, "I love you"?

Well, actually he does, but in particular ways. He says, "As the Father loves me, so I love you" (John 15:9) thereby rooting his love for us in the space of the Holy Trinity. This week he commands, "Love another as I have loved you" (John 13:34). He presents his love for us as a completed action which continues into the present moment. How has he loved us? By becoming one of us, one with us, and finally giving his life for us in his suffering on the cross. We weren't there when he did that, but neither were his Apostles (except one). Still, that action is his great "I love you" to us.

His love is also hedged in a command: "Love one another." So how can we practically follow it? The great St. John XXIII wrote in his diary that each day he followed this rule: "Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it." The hidden nature of a good deed is a sign that it is truly loving. This week, take on St. John XXIII's practical method of following Jesus' great commandment of love. It's a splendid way to say, "I love you."

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Resembling Jesus

I once wrote an article about several women residents of a local nursing home. In researching the piece, I discovered that they had grown up in the same neighborhood as my grandmother, and that one of the women was, in fact, my grandmother's dearest childhood friend.

When I visited this woman to take her photograph, she took a long look at my face, and I could see in her eyes that she was reaching back in her memory across the years. She said: "You resemble her." I wept on the way home.

My grandmother died when I was nine, and for the last several years of her life she suffered from Alzheimer's disease. I have always deeply grieved the time we lost, the relationship we could have had. I have hazy fragments of memory from before her illness that lead me to believe we loved each other very much. Being told I look like my grandmother by someone who knew her well — being identified as belonging to her in some way — was one of the more beautiful things to happen to me.

When we love someone, we want to be associated with them. We want to be recognized as theirs somehow. And if we love Christ, we should want to be known as belonging to him. We should want those who see us to know we are his. The only way we can resemble Jesus is through love. It is his most recognizable quality, his most famous trait. This is how all will know that you are my disciples.

As Catholics, we are always talking about finding ways to live our faith boldly, unapologetically, publicly. Good — we should! But if we want people to know we are Catholic, we should love them. Bravely. Recklessly. Sacrificially. As he loves us.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK...Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Despite facing many hardships, Paul and Barnabas succeeded in preaching the good news of Jesus crucified and risen from the dead. How do you work through personal setbacks?

Second Reading: At the start of his final vision, John sees the age to come in which God comes to dwell with his people on earth and all tears, pain and even death itself is gone. Who in your life needs to hear this incredible message of hope?

Gospel: Jesus modeled for his disciples how to love one another. Do you have friends or co-workers who show you how to love others?

Our Parish Stewardship Program

Because of your generosity to the Sunday offertory collections during the month of April, we were able to gift Our Lady of the Valley Roman Catholic Church in Pahrump $4,382 through our parish stewardship program, "In Giving, We Receive."

Christ the King Roman Catholic Church will be the May recipient.

To help Christ the King Church as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR CHRIST THE KING, and drop it in any Sunday collection basket. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of May.

Through this program, we give 2% of our offertory collections for the month to a struggling parish or charitable organization within the Archdiocese of Las Vegas. The Archdiocese helps identify which parishes have the greatest need.

Have you ever felt like your spiritual life was in a slump or maybe your relationship with the Lord just didn't excite you anymore? Perhaps you don't feel as connected to God as you once were? Well, there's a cure for that – and we call it PRAYER! Yet, for many, prayer is an optional activity ... something we do on occasion rather than something that is vital to our spiritual growth and well-being. Just like eating and breathing, love and friendship, are essential for a happy and healthy human life, so prayer is essential for a happy, healthy, and holy life. Without these things we die ... either physically, emotionally, or spiritually. To come to God in prayer, to be still, to know God deeply and intimately isn't just for saints and mystics; priests and nuns – it's for everyone! Join us as we explore the importance of prayer and experience it through fellowship, discussion, music, movement, and art.

Day Trip to Cedar City

Come with us to Cedar City, Utah, on Tuesday, July 22, for the Shakespeare Festival. Cost is $185 per person which includes tickets to 2 shows (listed below), round-trip charter bus, sack lunch on the bus, and dinner at Milt's Steak Stop at 5 p.m. in between shows. The bus will depart from SEAS around 8:30 a.m. after daily Mass and return after midnight. Limited tickets are available. Purchase tickets and complete liability waivers at the parish office reception desk inside the Sursum Corda Gift Shop.

Steel Magnolias: 2 p.m. in the indoor Randall L. Jones Theatre

The women of Chinquapin, Louisiana, gather each week in wise-cracking Truvy Jones' popular beauty salon where she does the hair of such locals as the rich curmudgeon Ouiser, the eccentric millionaire Miss Clairee, and the socialite M'Lynn whose daughter Shelby is about to get married. As these women make their way over life's many ups and downs together, they find comfort, love, friendship—and a fair amount of verbal ribbing—in one another's company.

Antony and Cleopatra: 8 p.m. in the outdoor Shakespeare Theatre

A man of great vision, dedication, and purpose, Marc Antony is still no match for the passionate and irresistible Queen of the Nile. Will this great military hero face catastrophic defeat with his vision clouded and his purpose blunted? Reason battles emotion in this epic and seldom-produced portrayal of love, leaving us wondering until the very end: which will win, or will all be lost?

First Holy Communion

Congratulations to our children named below and pictured on pages 10 and 11, who received Holy Communion for the very first time last week on Saturday, May 10th. We also welcome to the banquet table of the Lord our First Communicants who received Jesus in Holy Communion for the very first time this past weekend on Saturday, May 17. Keep your eye out for their names and pictures in the May 25th bulletin.
