CATHOLIC TRIVIA

Question: What saint is symbolized by a flaming torch?

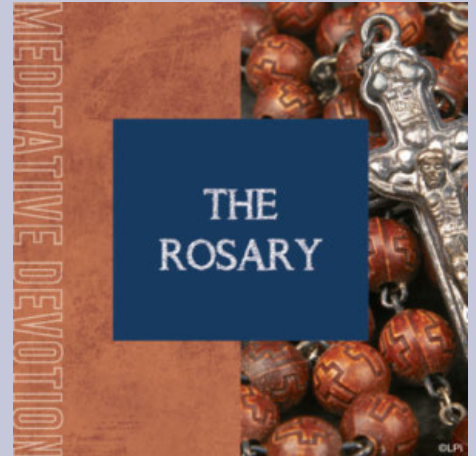

Answer: St. Aidan of Lindisfarne

LIVE THE LITURGY

Jesus bids the disciples to bring their bounty of fish to the fire, to gather around it, to be warmed and fed. God's invitation is for all of us: come to the fire of His love. Be warmed. Be fed. Then, go forth, and feed the sheep.

DEVOTIONS EXPLAINED

The Rosary, Explained

Christians have used beads to mark the recitation of prayers since ancient times. In the 12th century, the Rosary emerged as a meditative devotion centering on significant moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary. In the words of St. Leo XIII, "there is no more excellent way of praying."

The Rosary is traditionally attributed to a Marian vision received by St. Dominic de Guzman (1170-1221). Though scholarship on this point is uncertain, the Dominican Order was undoubtedly crucial in establishing and evangelizing the Rosary as a devotional prayer.

Over the centuries, the formula of the devotion eventually took the shape of 50 Hail Marys divided into five "decades," with each decade focused on a different mystery. The Church has defined the Joyful Mysteries (to be recited on Saturdays and Mondays), the Glorious Mysteries (Sundays and Wednesdays), the Sorrowful Mysteries (Tuesdays and Fridays), and most recently the Luminous Mysteries (to be recited on Thursdays).

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATION

3rd Sunday of Easter: John 21:1-19

I eat breakfast. If I don't have something substantial, I'm fading by midmorning. Breakfast is my key meal because it sets up my physical wellbeing for the rest of the day.

Spiritually speaking, we need sustenance to get us going. This is true for the Apostles in this Sunday's remarkable Gospel reading. The risen Jesus makes his third appearance to them in the early morning light and calls, "Come, have breakfast" (John 21:12). The exhausted and cold fishermen sit, and he feeds them bread and fish as the dawn breaks. They are overwhelmed by his presence to the point of awestruck silence. As they eat, their bodies and their hearts come alive. Once refreshed by their morning meal, they will be ready to feed others — indeed, the whole world — with the love of the risen Jesus. But first, they need breakfast from him.

Do you realize how essential early morning prayer is? Jesus desires to refresh us every morning with his word of love, with his grace-filled presence. This week, hear Jesus calling to you: "Come, have breakfast!" Embrace some form of spiritual, meditative practice each morning for spiritual strength to get you going.

— Father John Muir

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The Witnesses of What Makes No Sense

It never fails to amuse me that the disciples in today's Gospel don't recognize Jesus until he asks them to do something that makes absolutely no logical sense. He's just some random stranger on the shore — until he gives them an order that, in any other circumstances, would have them rolling their eyes into the backs of their head: Drop the nets again. I know you haven't caught anything all night. I know you're tired. Just do it one more time. Trust me. Again. That's when they recognize him.

The disciples display such poor recognition of Jesus after the resurrection. I'm sure there's a good, theologically sound reason for it, one I am not smart enough to explain. Whatever that reason is, it's very clear that God was carefully orchestrating these moments of realization. He is trying to tell us something about how we recognize the risen Christ — the one who has conquered sin, the one whose love was stronger than death. The one who never made any sense, and never will, because his kingdom is not of this world, and to understand him — to recognize him — you have to detach from the priorities, the expectations, the limitations of this present world. You have to be willing to do what makes no sense.

Love — again, even when it doesn't make sense. Forgive — again, even when it doesn't make sense. Believe — again, even when it doesn't make sense. "We are the witnesses of these things," Peter tells the Sanhedrin (Acts 5:32). Peter, who was so full of joy when he recognized Jesus that he leapt into the sea, fully clothed, desperate to be near him. It makes no sense, and that's okay. That's kind of our whole thing, as Christians. We are the witnesses of the things that make no sense.

First Reading: The Apostles "rejoiced" when they suffered public dishonor for preaching that Jesus rose from the dead. Have you ever found joy amid your own suffering?

Second Reading: John has a vision of the whole created order worshipping and praising Jesus as the slain and risen Lamb. In what ways will you praise and worship Jesus this week?

Gospel: The resurrected Jesus reveals to Peter that the cost of following him and leading the disciples will be his own martyrdom. How are you sometimes challenged in following Jesus?

SEAS NCG Team Meeting

All are invited to our SEAS Nevadans for the Common Good (NCG) monthly team meeting on Tuesday, May 6, and every first Tuesday of the month, at 6 p.m. in the parish hall. Learn how NCG works and get involved with advocating for issues that are important to our community. Questions? Contact Patti McGuire at pmcguire@seaslv.org or 702-804-8311.

Mothers Day Novena of Masses May 11-19

If you would like to include the name of your mother, grandmother, or anyone who has fulfilled the role of mother in your life, living or deceased, in the Mother's Day Novena of Masses (9 Masses), fill out a novena envelope (extra ones are in the gathering space) and return it before May 11, to the Sursum Corda Gift Shop or in any collection basket at Mass.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Question: I can't explain it. I feel a nudge from God to something out of the ordinary. How do I respond?

Answer: You're in good company! Abraham was asked to leave all he knew and loved for a strange land, with only abstract divine assurance that such a sacrifice would be worth it. Plenty of prophets protested against God's call, whether it was claiming they were too young (Jeremiah) or running away entirely, only to end up in a whale's belly (Jonah). St. Joseph was asked to do something very strange. He was asked to believe — on the word of an angelic appearance in a dream — that his betrothed was pregnant not from another man, but by a miraculous intervention of God. Then he was called to marry her.

Author Flannery O'Connor once wrote, "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you odd." Sometimes God's invitation might seem strange or challenging. It might require sacrifices we never expected to make. Our life might look different than we had always imagined. But as we all know, life throws its own curve balls, regardless of whether or not we're listening for God's will. Better, one would think, to be open to the promptings of God and to follow along the strange trails that they lead. We have the assurance that, eventually, we will find green pastures.

Our Parish Stewardship Program

Christ the King Roman Catholic Church will be the May 2025 recipient of our parish stewardship program, "In Giving, We Receive." Through this program, we give 2% of our offertory collections for the month to a struggling parish or charitable organization within the Archdiocese of Las Vegas. The Archdiocese helps identify which parishes have the greatest need. To help Christ the King Church as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR CHRIST THE KING, and drop it in any Sunday collection basket. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be disbursed at the end of May.

Prayer for Life Monument Dedication

Thank you to all who joined us for the dedication of the new Prayer for Life monument on the exterior of the Mater Dei Chapel. Bishop Gordon (pictured above) presided over the ceremony and blessed the monument after the 4 p.m. Mass on Saturday, April 26. The monument is a joint effort with our parish and the Knights of Columbus, Mother Seton Council. Prayer cards with the Prayer for Life that is etched in the monument are in the gathering space.

Have you ever felt like your spiritual life was in a slump or maybe your relationship with the Lord just didn't excite you anymore? Perhaps you don't feel as connected to God as you once were? Well, there's a cure for that – and we call it PRAYER! Yet, for many, prayer is an optional activity ... something we do on occasion rather than something that is vital to our spiritual growth and well-being. Just like eating and breathing, love and friendship, are essential for a happy and healthy human life, so prayer is essential for a happy, healthy, and holy life. Without these things we die ... either physically, emotionally, or spiritually. To come to God in prayer, to be still, to know God deeply and intimately in the depths of our hearts, isn't just for saints and mystics; priests and nuns – it's for everyone! Come and join us as we explore the importance of prayer and have the opportunity through fellowship, discussion, music, movement, and art to experience prayer!

Marriage Preparation for Engaged Couples

Being engaged is an exciting time and can be an opportunity to deepen your love for one another and grow in spirituality. For engaged couples seeking to be married in the Catholic Church, our parish offers Cana Connection, a marriage preparation weekend designed to help couples prepare for marriage by discussing key topics such as communication, values, finances, intimacy, etc., and fostering meaningful dialogue. Cana Connection is required for all couples seeking marriage at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church and welcomes couples planning to be married at another Catholic Church. Our next Cana Connection weekends are scheduled:

- July 18-20
- November 14-16

Cost: $150 per couple per weekend. Scan the QR Code to submit an interest form or contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321.

SEAS SCHOOL NEWS

Learning About the American Revolution

Mrs. Von Tobel's 4th grade class is learning about the American Revolution! The students played games based on the events leading to the revolution. Some 4th graders presented games for projects; other presented slide shows, trading cards, or news reports. Learning is FUN at SEAS!

SEAS School Part-Time and Full-Time Positions

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Roman Catholic School has the following job opportunities for the 2025-2026 school year:

- Substitute Teachers (part-time)
- Elementary School Teachers (full-time)
- Middle School Math Teacher (full-time)
- Lunch Aide (part-time)

Learn more at www.seascatholicsschool.org/jobs. Interested candidates should submit a brief cover letter and resume, along with the completed Archdiocesan Application for Employment, to Len Urso, Principal, at urso@seaslv.org. The Archdiocesan Application can be found at <https://www.lvcatholic.org/employment-and-volunteer-applications>.

Grieving the Loss of a Loved One

Whether it be for the loss of a spouse, parent, child, or friend, all those grieving the loss of a loved one are invited to participate in our upcoming 14-week GriefShare program. Beginning May 18, sessions will be held on Saturdays from 9-10:30 a.m. in Emmaus Central (formerly the Youth Ministry building). Cost is $25 for workbook materials. Scholarships are available.

Register at: <https://www.griefshare.org/groups/263523>.

Questions? Contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321. GriefShare is comprised of a weekly video seminar, small group discussions, and a workbook which includes your own personal journaling and study exercises which reinforce the weekly topics.

SEAS Craft Fair Open to Shoppers and Vendors

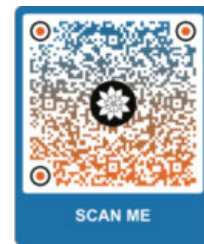

The SEAS Youth & Young Adult Ministry is hosting a Craft Fair! Come and see what various vendors have to offer.

- Saturday, June 14
8 a.m. - 6 p.m.
- Sunday, June 15
7 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Vendors can purchase space:

- 8 x 8 indoor space $125
- 10 x 10 outdoor space $150

Interested vendors, please scan the QR Code to fill out an interest form. Youth Ministry will then contact you to discuss specifics. For more information, contact Maureen at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321.

Please note: Not accepting food booths or baked goods.
