MERCY FLOWS, LOVE REDEEMS

Dear Parishioners and Friends of SEAS,

BECAUSE WE CARE

As we are all too well aware, there are people in this world who are out to make life miserable for others. Whatever their intention, we may not know. What we do know, however, is there are options we can implement to help protect ourselves from someone who may want to cause harm to others. Therefore, in an ongoing effort to enhance the safety of our parishioners and guests, we have hired the services of a security company to give us some reasonable peace of mind at all of our weekend Masses. We already do this for the Christmas and Easter holidays, and now it's time to provide this security on an ongoing basis.

We have contracted with Triumph Protective Services to provide an armed, on-site security guard during all weekend Masses beginning next weekend, October 17th and 18th. This is the same security company that currently provides two security guards to our parish school and faith formation programs when children are present.

This decision, with consultation of the Archdiocese of Las Vegas and the encouragement of our Parish Finance Council, was not made out of fear or any immediate threat. Nor is it intended to cause alarm to anyone.

In addition, there is absolutely no connection with ICE (the United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency). Rather, it's a proactive step to provide for the safety and well-being of everyone who comes to worship here, for everyone of God's people should feel welcome and safe on our entire parish campus. Sadly, houses of worship across the nation have recognized that safeguarding their communities has become necessary. Some of the parishes in our Archdiocese have already implemented the same protections.

Like many churches, synagogues, and other faith communities, we believe it is both responsible and appropriate to take reasonable protections to help ensure, as much as possible, that our whole parish campus remains a safe and welcoming place for all who come to worship. While no security service can be 100% effective, it certainly is better than nothing.

Thanks for your understanding, cooperation and continued support as we strive to Journey Together Joyfully, simply because we care.

Peace always,

Fr. James Michael Jankowski
Pastor

Archbishop Thomas' Letter Regarding Question 6 on the Nevada Ballot on November 3, 2026. This letter was read at all Masses the weekend of October 3/4 by Fr. Jim in his pre-Mass video announcements.

October 1, 2026

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On this Respect Life Sunday, I write to you regarding Question 6, a proposed amendment to the Nevada Constitution greatly expanding abortion rights.

This question is not whether abortion is legal in Nevada; it already is under a law approved by Nevada voters in 1990. The Legislature cannot amend or repeal that law; only a direct vote of the people can do so. This question is whether Nevada voters should expand the right to abortion in ways that can harm the health, safety, and welfare of women and minors. Moreover, this measure will have grave and lasting consequences for vulnerable unborn lives. I ask you to give this matter your careful attention.

If approved by voters for a second time, Question 6 would amend the Nevada Constitution. Among the serious concerns surrounding this proposal are the following:

- It dangerously expands abortion rights. Abortion, already legal in Nevada up to 24 weeks of pregnancy, would potentially be permitted to the ninth month of pregnancy.
- It ratifies removal of parental notification and family involvement from abortion decisions made by minor children. Parental consent is required to give a student Tylenol; this initiative would allow a minor to obtain an abortion without a parent even knowing.
- It is dangerous for women and young girls, as Question 6 would replace the 'licensed physician' requirement for abortion with 'health care practitioner,' a term that could include nurses, dentists, opticians, and medical laboratory technicians (NRS 439A.0195) and severely threatens the State's ability to regulate abortion clinics for basic health, safety, and sanitary conditions.

Unborn children have no voice and cannot defend themselves. As Catholics, our faith requires us to protect the inherent dignity of every human life and to speak for those who cannot speak for themselves. Our faith also calls us to approach moral issues of great consequence with truth, prayer and a well-formed conscience. Nevada law already permits abortion under existing state law. Question 6 concerns whether abortion rights should be further expanded in the Nevada Constitution.

I encourage you to vote no on Question 6 and invite your family and friends to do the same. Please pick up the advisory from the Nevada Catholic Conference, available in English and Spanish at your parish. I encourage you to read it carefully and to share this information with others.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.
Archbishop of Las Vegas

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Honesty, Explained

If the question were posed: "Who is God?" a variety of answers could be given, and more than one could be correct. The most succinct, however, would be this: God is truth.

"I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," Jesus tells his disciples (John 14:6). The pursuit of truth, he further instructs, will set them free (John 8:32) from the original untruth uttered and embraced in Eden.

If God is truth, he is honored by truthfulness. Untruthfulness, not surprisingly, is synonymous with disorder and broken relationships among mankind — Eden's everlasting legacy. The virtue of honesty, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, is "a kind of spiritual beauty" which measures the degree to which we honor one another in how we live truthfully (Sum. II:II, 145, Art 1-4).

Honesty is something that must be known interiorly in order to be visible exteriorly: "Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your Truth" (Psalm 86:11).

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 22:1-14

Some friends invited me to one of the most famous and expensive restaurants in the country. I was grateful and eager to go. One invited friend even flew from another state for the experience. Every bite and sip was truly memorable and delicious. But my friends' teenage children spent much of the time on their phones, complained about the food, and generally ignored the once-in-a-lifetime experience. I wanted to yell, "C'mon, you guys! Look what you're missing!"

In today's parable, Jesus describes people invited to an amazing wedding feast who respond with inexplicable indifference. He says, "Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business" (Matthew 22:5). The problem is not that they choose evil but that they allow other desires to distract them from an amazing opportunity. The feast is prepared, but their hearts are elsewhere. In Christ Jesus, God offers each of us a wildly extravagant offer: a place at the wedding banquet between heaven and earth.

What are your current excuses for the delay in engaging with Jesus? How are you postponing a deepening of your relationship with him under the guise of responsibility? The good news is that the feast is ready. His invitation remains. Hear the Lord say to us, "C'mon, guys! Look what you're missing!" Then respond with concrete action.

— Father John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer: Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives!

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The King of Rejected Meals

"She was the Queen of Rejected Meals." That's what I want it to say on my tombstone. Etched in marble, deeply, so the wind and rain of a thousand years can never erase it.

Humor, you see, masks my despair. I'm sure many of you know the feeling of sweating over a hot stove for an hour to create a dish that a small, picky eater will push away, lips curled with disgust. We've all made a feast no one wanted to come to.

It strikes me that "King of Rejected Meals" is an epithet which could likewise be scrawled on the empty tomb. Don't mistake me — I'm not comparing myself to Christ! (And I'm definitely not comparing my sub-par beef-and-zucchini casserole to the Eucharist, the food of life.)

I'm just saying that a lot of evenings, when I'm clearing plates from the table, I wonder why I even bother. I wonder why I don't just give in and let the kids eat potato chips and KitKats for every meal like they want. Why don't I? Well, mom guilt, for starters. But it's more than that, really. It's the certainty I have, underneath the resentment, that my efforts aren't in vain, despite all evidence to the contrary.

Hope springs eternal, you see. How can we Christians help but be optimistic? We have been welcomed to a feast laid for others. We find our salvation in the ultimate rejected meal, in recognizing what true nourishment looks and feels and tastes like, even — especially! — when the rest of the world does not.

Maybe one day my kids will eat grilled chicken willingly. Who knows? Miracles happen every day.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Isaiah speaks of the Lord's lavish future blessings upon all nations and peoples. How should we, as believers, best prepare for God's future blessings?

Second Reading: Paul sees that the key to peace of mind in all of life's circumstances is to be "empowered" by Christ Jesus. How does your faith in Jesus strengthen you?

Gospel: In the Parable of the Wedding Feast, Jesus teaches that all who are invited to God's banquet are to be fully open and prepared. What are some spiritual exercises you practice to remain prepared for God's work in your life?

Archbishop Thomas' Letter Regarding The October 17-18 Second Collection

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On October 17 and 18, we join Catholics throughout the world by observing World Mission Sunday. During this same weekend we are asked to support the Missionary work of the Church through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Pope Leo XIV was a missionary Priest and Bishop for many years in Peru, and calls us to be "One in Christ, united in mission." His own missionary experience reminds us of the substantial impact our prayers and generosity can have on the missions throughout the world.

Your support helps sustain missionaries, priests, religious sisters and brothers, catechists, and lay leaders who proclaim the Gospel and serve communities facing poverty, persecution, and great need.

Thank you for your prayers and generous support of World Mission Sunday. May the Lord bless you and your families as we share together in the Church's mission of bringing the hope and love of Jesus Christ to the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop George Leo Thomas, Ph.D.
Archbishop of Las Vegas

Nevada Day - Mass at 9 a.m. / Offices Closed

SEAS Human Concerns Ministry: Justice, Peace and Respect Life

MIGRANTS, MISSIONARIES OF HOPE

The Church hears the suffering cry of all who are uprooted from their own land, of families forcefully separated, of those who, in the rapid changes of our day, are unable to find a stable home anywhere. She senses the anguish of those without rights, without any security, at the mercy of every kind of exploitation, and she supports them in their unhappiness. [We are called to work] so that every person's dignity is respected, the immigrant is welcomed as a brother or sister, and all humanity forms a united family which knows how to appreciate with discernment the different cultures which comprise it.

Misson Cooperative Collection Oct. 17-18

Fr. Ernest Ukwueze, will speak on behalf of The Missionary Servants of the Needy at all Masses on Oct. 10-11, and a collection to support the mission will be taken next weekend, Oct. 17-18. Please use the envelope attached to this bulletin or make your contribution through our giving platform at www.seaslv.org.

Enhanced Security at Weekend Masses

In an ongoing effort to enhance the safety of our parishioners and guests, we have contracted with Triumph Protective Services to provide an on-site security guard at all weekend Masses beginning Oct. 17-18th. This decision, with consultation of the Archdiocese of Las Vegas and the encouragement of our Parish Finance Council, was not made out of fear or any immediate threat. Nor is it intended to cause alarm to anyone. In addition, there is absolutely no connection with ICE (the United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency). Rather, it's a proactive step to provide for the safety and well-being of everyone who comes to worship here. Please read Fr. Jim's letter on page 3 to learn more.

The Men's Club invites men to share our faith, enjoy fellowship, and to become active in service to others. Questions? Contact John Owen at 503-952-6680 or seasmensclub@seaslv.org.

Boo Bash Featured Entertainment

Ways to Participate in Boo Bash!

This coming week, lots of activity will be going on behind the scenes to prepare for next weekend's BOO BASH! If you would like to help in any of the following ways, please contact Maureen Sisto at msisto@seaslv.org or 702-804-8321 or Patty Janura for the Hidden Gems Talent Showcase at PattyJanura@seaslv.org or 702-804-8326.

- Volunteers: There is always a need for volunteers to help in many different capacities before, during, and after the event. Need volunteer hours? Consider volunteering at Boo Bash!
- Financial Contributions and Sponsorships: Your dollars help cover the cost of party rentals, entertainment, food and drink preparation, security, and so much more! Financial assistance is greatly appreciated!
- Food Booths: Are you a good cook? Do you have a specialty that everyone loves? Consider helping with food prep or with serving at the food booths, or maybe your financial donation can be directed to help with food expenses.
- Candy Donations: Boo Bash Trick-or-Treating is always a hit with upwards of 700 individuals in attendance. With Friday's Trunk-and-Treat in the upper parking lot (which is replacing the previous years' Saturday Trick-or-Treating in the school) we expect the same fabulous turn out and appreciate your donations of individually wrapped candy which can be placed in the church gathering space.
- Hidden Gems Talent Showcase: Have a talent or special skill you would like to share with the community? There's still time to audition for a spot in the Hidden Gems Talent Showcase.
- Purchase Raffle Tickets: Tickets are $5 each or 5 for $20 for a chance to win $5000, $2500, and $1000. Winner need not be present.
- Come to Boo Bash and Spread the Word! Word of mouth is the best advertisement. Get the word out and invite your friends. If you are a Boo Bash "regular" you already know how much you're gonna have. If you've never been, make this the year you come out!
