LIVE THE LITURGY

The Pharisees try to trick Jesus into starting a political revolution. They don't realize he came to start a revolution of the heart, not the state. God's image is stamped on our soul, but still the world tries to claim us. Revolt! You belong to God.

VIRTUES EXPLAINED

Perseverance, Explained

“It is not easy for man, wounded by sin, to maintain moral balance,” we read in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1811). “Christ's gift of salvation offers us the grace necessary to persevere in the pursuit of the virtues.”

Perseverance is unique because without it, we cannot grow in any of the other virtues. If we cannot persevere, we cannot carry the cross. Faith, hope, love, mercy, justice, temperance — these virtues are the fruits of a Christian life, and perseverance is the soil in which they take root.

Like the soil in any garden, it has to be nourished. Perseverance is fed by trials, difficulties, and temptations. “We rejoice in our sufferings,” writes St. Paul, “knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us” (Romans 5:4-5).

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

LITURGY GOSPEL MEDITATIONS

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 22:15-21

Occasionally, I'll slip into a parish I've never visited before, pick up the bulletin, and find one of my Gospel reflections. My heart usually swells with a bit of affection for my creation. I imprint a bit of myself into my little "literary labors of love." Anyone who has created something — a piece of writing, a garden, a meal, a child — knows that feeling. We love the things into which we put ourselves. We are happy when they return to us.

With this in mind, listen to Jesus' classic line in this Sunday's Gospel: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). He presents this little riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. Which means everyone — including Caesar — belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him.

— Father John Muir

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer: The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Whose Image We Bear

In writing this column, I spent a lot of time mulling over a strange question: if I had a coin with Caesar's face on it, could I use it to pay for my morning coffee?

Ancient Roman artifacts are worth a lot of money, but I have no idea how to appraise the artifacts and convert that worth to cash. I doubt my local barista does, either.

Out of curiosity, I Googled it. Apparently, the value depends a lot on the emperor. If we're talking about a marquee name like Julius Caesar, a coin will go for thousands of dollars. But let's say it's a shekel from Emperor Geta, some third-century failure who got murdered by his brother. You can get his coin for less than $200.

It matters, apparently, whose face you're stamped with. We are all only as good as the image we bear.

When Christ said, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God," he was talking about faithful citizenship and faithful discipleship. He was talking about the omnipotence of God over any political movement or historical era.

But he was also talking about our worth. Where it comes from, what it means, how long it will last. He was talking about whose image we bear.

Nevada Day - Mass at 9 a.m. / Offices Closed

In observance of Nevada Day, daily Mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. on Friday, October 30, and the parish offices, gift shop, and Mater Dei Chapel (no Adoration) will be closed. The church will close for the day immediately after Mass.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: Cyrus, king of the Persian Empire, learns that God plans to use him to rescue his people, Israel. Have you ever felt God has used you to help someone else?

Second Reading: Paul speaks in gratitude for the faith of the Thessalonians and the presence of the Holy Spirit in their midst. What are you thankful for this week?

Gospel: The Pharisees and the Herodians are unable to trap Jesus in his words. Do you feel equipped to defend the Faith from others who may challenge you?

SEAS Human Concerns Ministry: Justice, Peace and Respect Life

ECONOMIC JUSTICE AND POVERTY

"[W]e are called to honour the poor and to give them precedence, out of the conviction that they are a true presence of Jesus in our midst. 'As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' (Mt. 25:40)." -Message of Pope Francis for the Second World Day of the Poor, June 13, 2018

Parish Stewardship Program

Our Lady of the Valley Roman Catholic Church in Pahrump will be the October 2026 recipient of our parish stewardship program, "In Giving, We Receive." Through this ministry, we gift 2% of our weekly offertory collection each month to a charity or parish in need within the Archdiocese of Las Vegas. The Archdiocese helps identify which parishes have the greatest need. If you would like to help Our Lady of the Valley Church as part of your own personal stewardship, put your contribution in a plain envelope CLEARLY MARKED FOR OUR LADY OF THE VALLEY CHURCH and place it in any Sunday collection basket. Your gift will be included with the parish gift that will be given at the end of October.

Assistive Listening Devices Available

For those who are hearing impaired or may have difficulty understanding what is said during Mass due to background noise, distance from the speakers, or echo in the church, we offer assistive listening devices to help get past hearing obstacles. Each wireless unit comes with an earpiece that sits over the top of the ear or you can attach your own mini jack (3.5mm) ear buds or headphones. The units can be borrowed from the reception desk located inside the gift shop. Please remember to return them to the receptionist after Mass so they will be available for others to use.

Enhanced Security at Weekend Masses

In an ongoing effort to enhance the safety of our parishioners and guests, we have contracted with Triumph Protective Services to provide an on-site security guard at all weekend Masses beginning Oct. 17-18th. This decision, with consultation of the Archdiocese of Las Vegas and the encouragement of our Parish Finance Council, was not made out of fear or any immediate threat. Nor is it intended to cause alarm to anyone. In addition, there is absolutely no connection with ICE (the United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency). Rather, it's a proactive step to provide for the safety and well-being of everyone who comes to worship here. More details were given in Fr. Jim's October 11th bulletin letter.

A Note of Thanks from Opportunity Village

Good morning, I would like to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude to the Knights of Columbus and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton for their continued support over the years. Your generosity has made a lasting impact — providing new equipment and enabling essential repairs to existing resources. This equipment plays a critical role in training and developing new skills for the individuals we serve, empowering people with disabilities to reach their fullest potential. Contributions like yours are not just donations—they are investments in opportunity, independence, and dignity. Thanks to your commitment, Opportunity Village can continue to fulfill its mission of enriching lives and creating pathways for success. We deeply appreciate your partnership and the difference you make in our community. Thank you again and have a blessed day.

Malcolm McCollum, B.S., M.B.A. Vice President of Operations
Opportunity Village, Las Vegas, Nevada
